Volatile Bodies Toward A Corporeal Feminism Theories Of Representation And Difference:

Volatile Bodies Elizabeth Grosz, 1994-06-22 Volatile Bodies demonstrates that the sexually specific body is socially constructed biology or nature is inherently social and has no pure or natural origin outside culture Being the raw material of social and cultural organization it is subject to the endless rewriting and inscription that constitute all sign systems Grosz demonstrates that the theories of among others Freud and Lacan theorize a male body She then turns to corporeal experiences unique to women menstruation pregnancy childbirth lactation menopause to lay the groundwork for new theories of sexed corporeality Back cover Volatile Bodies Elizabeth Grosz, 2020-07-25 Volatile Bodies is based on a risky wager that all the effects of subjectivity psychological depth and inferiority can be refigured in terms of bodies and surfaces It uses transforms and subverts the work of a number of distinguished male theorists of the body Freud Lacan Merleau Ponty Schiller Nietzsche Foucault Lingis and Deleuze who while freeing the body from its subordination to the mind are nonetheless unable to accommodate the specificities of women's bodies Volatile Bodies explores various dissonances in thinking the relation between mind and body It investigates issues that resist reduction to these binary terms psychosis hypochondria neurological disturbances perversions and sexual deviation and most particularly the enigmatic status of body fluids and the female body

The Political Psychology of the Veil Sahar Ghumkhor, 2019-11-21 Veiled women in the West appear menacing Their visible invisibility is a cause of obsession What is beneath the veil more than a woman This book investigates the preoccupation with the veiled body through the imaging and imagining of Muslim women It examines the relationship between the body and knowledge through the politics of freedom as grounded in a natural body in the index of flesh The impulse to unveil is more than a desire to free the Muslim woman What lies at the heart of the fantasy of saving the Muslim woman is the West's desire to save itself The preoccupation with the veiled woman is a defense that preserves neither the object of orientalism nor the difference embodied in women's bodies but inversely insists on the corporeal boundaries of the West's mode of knowing and truth making The book contends that the imagination of unveiling restores the West's sense of its own power and enables it to intrude where it is other thus making it the centre and the agent by promising universal freedom all the while stifling the question of what freedom is

Intersectional Feminism in the Age of Transnationalism Raysa E. Amador, Olga Bezhanova, 2021-02-17 Intersectional Feminism in the Age of Transnationalism Voices from the Margins explores the limitations of the transnationalist approach to feminism and questions the neoliberal emphasis on individual freedom and consumer choice as the central goals of feminist activism The contributions to the volume discuss such varied topics as fiction by Edwidge Danticat Judith Ortiz Cofer and Diamela Eltit visual art of Laura Aguilar and Maruja Mallo films directed by Lucrecia Martel a TV series based on a novel by Mar a Due as the art activism of Ani Ganzala and Zinha Franco and the philosophical thought of Gloria Anzald a All chapters proceed from the belief in the continued usefulness of intersectionality as a valuable category of critical analysis that is particularly necessary at the time when the effects of neoliberal globalization are undermining many familiar categories of critical inquiry Contemporary Art and Feminism Jacqueline Millner, Catriona Moore, 2021-07-05 This important new book examines contemporary art while foregrounding the key role feminism has played in enabling current modes of artmaking spectatorship and theoretical discourse Contemporary Art and Feminism carefully outlines the links between feminist theory and practice of the past four decades of contemporary art and offers a radical re reading of the contemporary movement Rather than focus on filling in the gaps of accepted histories by adding the missing female queer First Nations and women artists of colour the authors seek to revise broader understandings of contemporary practice by providing case studies contextualised in a robust art historical and theoretical basis Readers are encouraged to see where art ideas come from and evaluate past and present art strategies What strategies materials or tropes are less relevant in today's networked event driven art economies What strategies and themes should we keep hold of or develop in new ways This is a significant and innovative intervention that is ideal for students in courses on contemporary art within fine arts visual studies history of art gender studies and queer studies

American Multicultural Studies Sherrow O. Pinder, 2013 American Multicultural Studies Diversity of Race Ethnicity Gender and Sexuality provides an interdisciplinary view of multicultural studies in the United States addressing a wide range of topics that continue to define and shape this area of study Through this collection of essays Sherrow Pinder responds to the need to open up a rich avenue for addressing current and continuing issues of race gender ethnicity sexuality cultural diversity and education in their varied forms Substantial thematic overlaps are found between sections and essays all of which are oriented toward a single broad objective to develop new and different ways of addressing how multicultural issues in their discursive sociocultural contexts are inextricably linked to the operations of power Power as a site of resistance to which it invariably gives rise is tackled from a perspective that attends to the complexities of America's history and politics

Personal Adornment and the Construction of Identity Hannah V. Mattson, 2021-06-09 Objects of adornment have been a subject of archaeological historical and ethnographic study for well over a century Within archaeology personal ornaments have traditionally been viewed as decorative embellishments associated with status and wealth materializations of power relations and social strategies or markers of underlying social categories such as those related to gender class and ethnic affiliation Personal Adornment and the Construction of Identity seeks to understand these artefacts not as signals of steady pre-existing cultural units and relations but as important components in the active and contingent constitution of identities Drawing on contemporary scholarship on materiality and relationality in archaeological and social theory this book uses one genre of material culture items of bodily adornment to illustrate how humans and objects construct one another Providing case studies spanning 10 countries three continents and more than 9 000 years of human history the authors demonstrate the myriad and dynamic ways personal ornaments were intertwined with embodied practice and identity performativity the creation and remaking of social memories and relational collections of persons materials and practices in the past The authors careful analyses of production methods and composition curating and reworking decorative attributes and iconography position within assemblages and depositional context illuminate the varied material and relational axes along which objects of adornment contained social value and meaning When paired with the broad temporal and geographic scope collectively represented by these studies we gain a deeper appreciation for the subtle but vital roles these items played in human lives

Picturing Personhood Joseph Dumit, 2021-09-14 By showing us the human brain at work PET positron emission tomography scans are subtly and sometimes not so subtly transforming how we think about our minds Picturing Personhood follows this remarkable and expensive technology from the laboratory into the world and back It examines how PET scans are created and how they are being called on to answer myriad questions with far reaching implications Is depression an observable brain disease Are criminals insane Do men and women think differently Is rationality a function of the brain Based on interviews media analysis and participant observation at research labs and conferences Joseph Dumit analyzes how assumptions designed into and read out of the experimental process reinforce specific notions about human nature Such assumptions can enter the process at any turn from selecting subjects and mathematical models to deciding which images to publish and how to color them Once they leave the laboratory PET scans shape social debates influence courtroom outcomes and have positive and negative consequences for people suffering mental illness Dumit follows this complex story demonstrating how brain scans as scientific objects contribute to our increasing social dependence on scientific authority The first book to examine the cultural ramifications of brain imaging technology Picturing Personhood is an unprecedented study that will influence both cultural studies and the growing field of science and technology studies
