Pale Fire Vladimir Nabokov, 2011-02-16 A darkly comic novel of suspense literary idolatry and one upmanship and political intrigue from one of the leading writers of the twentieth century the acclaimed author of Lolita Half poem half prose a creation of perfect beauty symmetry strangeness originality and moral truth One of the great works of art of this century Mary McCarthy New York Times bestselling author of The Group An ingeniously constructed parody of detective fiction and learned commentary Pale Fire offers a cornucopia of deceptive pleasures at the center of which is a 999 line poem written by the literary genius John Shade just before his death Surrounding the poem is a foreword and commentary by the demented scholar Charles Kinbote who interweaves adoring literary analysis with the fantastical tale of an assassin from the land of Zembla in pursuit of a deposed king Brilliantly constructed and wildly inventive Vladimir Nabokov's witty novel achieves that rarest of things in literature perfect tragicomic balance The Annotated Lolita Vladimir Nabokov, 1991-04-23 Nabokov's wise ironic and elegant masterpiece A controversial love story almost shocking in its beauty and tenderness This annotated edition assiduously illuminates the extravagant wordplay and the frequent literary allusions parodies and cross references Edited with a preface introduction and notes by Alfred Appel Jr Fascinatingly detailed Edmund Morris The New York Times Book Review When it was published in 1955 Lolita immediately became a cause célèbre because of the freedom and sophistication with which it handled the unusual erotic predilections of its protagonist Awe and exhilaration along with heartbreak and mordant wit abound in this account of the aging Humbert Humbert's obsessive devouring and doomed passion for the nymphet Dolores Haze Lolita is also the story of a hypercivilized European colliding with the cheerful barbarism of postwar America but most of all it is a meditation on love love as outrage and hallucination madness and transformation
