Karl Baedeker (Firm)

Winter Evening Alliteration:

The Poetry of the Self-taught Julie D. Prandi, 2008 The Poetry of the Self Taught demonstrates the characteristic strengths of self taught poetry and analyzes the factors that have caused most selftaught poets to disappear from anthologies and from literary history Raising the question of whether or not their work should be read today and taken seriously instead of being relegated to separate and unequal categories like women s or peasant poetry the book highlights interesting contrasts between the poetry of eighteenth century autodidacts such as Robert Burns Mary Leapor C D F Schubart and Anna Louise Karsch and the work of their contemporaries mainstream poets like Alexander Pope James Thomson C F Gellert and Barthold Heinrich Brockes Self taught poetry is often treated as an index to the lives and times of the poets but this book explores it with a different purpose to understand and illustrate the commonalities in autodidactic poetics imagery rhetorical strategies and themes Concurrent with a recent upturn of interest in laboring or self taught poets both in England and in Germany The Poetry of the Self Taught will be useful for courses focusing on such poets or those dealing with eighteenth century literature

Adopting the Song of Phrase: An Emotional Symphony within Winter Evening Alliteration
