

The background of the cover is a large, intricate clock face. The clock face is circular with a dark blue background and gold-colored hour markers and hands. A bright, multi-pointed sun is positioned at the center of the clock face. A large, dark, circular pendulum is visible at the bottom of the clock face. The clock face is surrounded by a complex network of gold-colored lines and curves, suggesting a celestial or mechanical theme. The overall style is that of a classic book cover illustration.
