Failing Sideways Stephanie West-Puckett, Nicole I. Caswell, William P. Banks, 2023-05-15 Failing Sideways is an innovative and fresh approach to assessment that intersects writing studies educational measurement and queer rhetorics While valuing and representing the research theory and practice of assessment authors Stephanie West Puckett Nicole I Caswell and William P Banks demonstrate the ways that students teachers and other interested parties can find joy and justice in the work of assessment A failure oriented assessment model unsettles some of the most common practices like rubrics and portfolios and challenges many deeply held assumptions about validity and reliability in order to ask what could happen if assessment was oriented toward possibility and potential Working to engage a more capacious writing construct the authors propose queer validity inquiry QVI as a model for assessment that values failure affect identity and materiality These overlapping lenses help teachers honor parts of writing and learning that writing studies faculty have struggled to hold onto in a world overly focused on quickness and efficiency in schools Through programmatic and classroom examples Failing Sideways privileges what is valued in the classroom but traditionally ignored in assessments Reimagining what matters in the teaching and learning of writing and using assessment data differently this book demonstrates what writing can be and could do in a more diverse and just world Retention, Persistence, and Writing Programs Todd Ruecker, Dawn Shepherd, Heidi Estrem, Beth Brunk-Chavez, 2017-04-01

From scholars working in a variety of institutional and geographic contexts and with a wide range of student populations Retention Persistence and Writing Programs offers perspectives on how writing programs can support or hinder students transitions to college The contributors present individual and program case studies student surveys a wealth of institutional retention data and critical policy analysis Rates of student retention in higher education are a widely acknowledged problem although approximately 66 percent of high school graduates begin college of those who attend public four year institutions only about 80 percent return the following year with 58 percent graduating within six years At public two year institutions only 60 percent of students return and fewer than a third graduate within three years Less commonly known is the crucial effect of writing courses on these statistics First year writing is a course that virtually all students have to take thus writing programs are well positioned to contribute to larger institutional conversations regarding retention and persistence and should offer themselves as much needed sites for advocacy research and curricular innovation Retention Persistence and Writing Programs is a timely resource for writing program administrators as well as for new writing teachers advisors administrators and state boards of education Contributors Matthew Bridgewater Cristine Busser Beth Buyserie Polina Chemishanova Michael Day Bruce Feinstein Patricia Freitag Ericsson Nathan Garrett Joanne Baird Giordano Tawanda Gipson Sarah E Harris Mark Hartlaub Holly Hassel Jennifer Heinert Ashley J Holmes Rita Malenczyk Christopher P Parker Cassandra Phillips Anna Plemons Pegeen Reichert Powell Marc Scott Robin Snead Sarah Elizabeth Snyder Sara Webb Sunderhaus Susan Wolff Murphy A Short History of Writing Instruction James J.

Murphy, Chris Thaiss, 2020-04-13 This newly revised Thirtieth Anniversary edition provides a robust scholarly introduction to the history of writing instruction in the West from Ancient Greece to the present day United States It preserves the legacy of writing instruction from antiquity to contemporary times with a unique focus on the material educational and institutional context of the Western rhetorical tradition Its longitudinal approach enables students to track the recurrence over time of not only specific teaching methods but also major issues such as social purpose writing as power the effect of technologies orthography the rise of vernaculars writing as a force for democratization and the roles of women in rhetoric and writing instruction Each chapter provides pedagogical tools including a Glossary of Key Terms and a Bibliography for Further Study

In this edition expanded coverage of twenty first century issues includes Writing Across the Curriculum pedagogy pedagogy for multilingual writers and social media A Short History of Writing Instruction is an ideal text for undergraduate and graduate courses in writing studies rhetoric and composition and the history of education Re/Orienting Writing

Studies William P. Banks, Matthew B. Cox, Caroline Dadas, 2019-04-15 Re Orienting Writing Studies is an exploration of the intersections among queer theory rhetoric and research methods in writing studies Focusing careful theoretical attention on common research practices this collection demonstrates how queer rhetorics of writing composing textual analysis history assessment and embodiment identity significantly alter both methods and methodologies in writing studies The chapters represent a diverse set of research locations and experiences from which to articulate a new set of innovative research practices While the humanities have engaged queer theory extensively research methods have often been hermeneutic or interpretive At the same time social science approaches in composition research have foregrounded inquiry on human participants but have often struggled to understand where lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer people fit into empirical research projects Re Orienting Writing Studies works at the intersections of humanities and social science methodologies to offer new insight into using queer methods for data collection and queer practices for framing research Contributors Chanon Adsanatham Jean Bessette Nicole I Caswell Michael J Faris Hillery Glasby Deborah Kuzawa Maria Novotny G Patterson Stacey Waite Stephanie West Puckett Improving Outcomes Diane Kelly-Riley, Norbert

Elliot, 2020-12-01 Students thrive when they are exposed to a variety of disciplinary genres and their lives and our institutions are enriched by improving their writing outcomes Taking account of evolving research writing in the disciplines and demographic and institutional shifts in higher education this volume imagines new ways to improve writing outcomes by broadening the focus of assessment to wider issues of humanity and society The essays by contributors from diverse fields from writing studies to nursing engineering and architecture demonstrate innovative classroom practices and curricular design that place fairness and the situatedness of language at the center of writing instruction Contributors reflect on a wide range of examples from a disability as insight model to reckoning with postcolonial legacies and the essays consider a variety of institutions classrooms and types of assessment including culturally responsive assessment and peer feedback in digital environments Rethinking Multilingual Writers in Higher Education Qianqian Zhang-Wu, Mya Poe, Cherice Escobar

Jones, Cara Marta Messina, Neal Lerner, 2025-05-30 Rethinking Multilingual Writers in Higher Education An Institutional Case Study explores the complexities of multilingual students as language users and learners emphasizing the distinctive assets that they bring to their education and the ways in which institutions of higher education can better meet their needs Teachers university administrators advisors and other support staff will gain an understanding of the resources challenges and successes of this growing student population and become better equipped to provide them with the best possible educational opportunities Through mixed methods case studies focusing on the Northeastern University Writing Program and Writing Center the authors unpack the complexity of multilingual students identities and languaging to challenge deficit and homogenizing narratives that overlook their linguistic assets and diverse educational experiences Working within and against university categories for collecting information about students and assessing their writing authors point out the limits of terms such as international and the problems with dichotomous L1 L2 and native nonnative speaker labels Finally the book offers lessons learned about the importance of conducting program self study to inform research and pedagogy for higher education institutions around the world This book will appeal to writing studies and linguistics scholars with interests in multilingualism assessment and mobility as well as institutional stakeholders and researchers of higher education and multicultural education

The Internationalization of US Writing Programs Shirley K Rose, Irwin Weiser, 2018-04-02 The Internationalization of US Writing Programs illuminates the role writing programs and WPAs play in defining goals curriculum placement assessment faculty development and instruction for international student populations The volume offers multiple theoretical approaches to the work of writing programs and illustrates a wide range of well planned writing program based empirical research projects As of 2016 over 425 000 international students were enrolled as undergraduates in US colleges and universities part of a decade long trend of increasing numbers of international students coming to the United States for both undergraduate and graduate degrees Writing program administrators and writing teachers across the country are beginning to recognize this changing demographic as a useful catalyst for change in writing programs which are tasked with preparing all students regardless of initial level of English proficiency for academic and professional writing The Internationalization of US Writing Programs is the first collection to focus specifically on this crucial aspect of the roles and responsibilities of WPAs who are leading efforts to provide all students on their campuses regardless of nationality or first language with competencies in writing that will serve them in the academy and beyond Contributors Jonathan Benda Michael Dedek Christiane Donahue Chris W Gallagher Kristi Girdharry Tarez Samra Graban Jennifer E Haan Paula Harrington Yu Kyung Kang Neal Lerner David S Martins Paul Kei Matsuda Heidi A McKee Libby Miles Susan Miller Cochran Matt Noonan Katherine Daily O Meara Carolina Pelaez Morales Stacey Sheriff Gail Shuck Christine M Tardy Stanley Van Horn Daniel Wilber Margaret Willard Traub

Toward More Sustainable Metaphors of Writing Program Administration Lydia Wilkes, Lilian W. Mina, Patti Poblete, 2023-02-15 The field of writing program administration has long been a space rich in metaphor From plate twirling to fire extinguishing parents to dungeon masters and much more the work of a WPA extends to horizons unknown Responding to the constraints of austerity Toward More Sustainable Metaphors of Writing Program Administration offers new lenses for established WPAs and provides aspiring and early career WPAs with a sense of the range of responsibilities and opportunities in their academic and professional spaces This volume presents twelve chapters that reclaim and revise established metaphors offer new metaphors based on sustainable relational or emotional labor practices and phenomena and reveal the improvisational artisanal nature of WPA work Chapters resonate across three sections The first section focuses on organic relationships captured in phrases like putting out fires and seeing forests for the trees alongside unexpected comparisons to ground and light The second describes institutional landscapes featuring generative juxtapositions such as the WPA as a labor activist or a mapper of emotional geography And the third discusses performance crafts like improv comedy and artisanal making Toward More Sustainable Metaphors of Writing Program Administration offers new and revised ways of thinking and acting for WPAs who are constantly negotiating the paradoxical demands of their work and continually striving to act ethically in conflicted and even fraught situations It will inspire practicing aspiring and former WPAs working in a time of transformation by highlighting more sustainable ways of enacting WPA identity Contributors Jacob Babb John Belk Katherine Daily O Meara Ryan J Dippre Douglas Hesse Andrew Hollinger Rona Kaufman Cynthia D Mwenja Manny Pi a Scott Rogers Robyn Tasaka Alexis Teagarden Christy I Wenger Lydia Wilkes
