Video Journalism Beyond The One Man Band Mass Communication And Journalism:

Video Journalism Mary Angela Bock, 2012 Video journalism the process by which one person shoots writes and edits video for broadcast or the web is a form of newsgathering taking hold in newsrooms of all kinds by professionals and would be citizen journalists around the world Some proponents have celebrated it as an improved narrative form one that uses more intimate emotional documentary filmmaking techniques than conventional television Its detractors consider it simply a cheaper way to make news Video Journalism Beyond the One Man Band weighs in on the controversy while addressing two overall concerns What is video journalism exactly And how do the stories created by video journalists compare with other forms of news This book presents more than two years of ethnographic research in a wide variety of contexts in the United States and the United Kingdom including local newspapers The New York Times local television stations the BBC the Voice of America radio network and several professional photographic workshops In a departure from other news ethnographies this book takes a somewhat unusual approach in that the author observes video journalists at work in the field not just in newsrooms on stories ranging from an urban shooting to a presidential campaign visit This approach offers a fascinating insider perspective for those in the field as well as those who aspire to it The Routledge Companion to Visual Journalism Nicole Dahmen, T.J. Thomson, 2025-09-02 Representing the first collection of its kind The Routledge Companion to Visual Journalism introduces fundamental topics and ideas delineates the diversity and complexity of this growing field and creates a foundation for future scholarship and study In the contemporary digital media landscape still and moving images interactive visualizations and virtual reality are increasingly important to attract attention cultivate engagement inform and influence opinions and provide a more emotive and immediate viewing experience for news audiences This Companion draws together leading voices from academia and industry to survey this dynamic and ubiquitous mode and inspire dialogue Along with an introduction and conclusion the volume is structured in five sections and covers people and identities practices and processes technologies equipment and forms theories concepts and values and audience interpretation and impact Beginning by looking at the history of visual news chapters go on to explore how visual news is created how journalists visually represent gender race sexuality disability elites and ordinary citizens key ethical ideas and theories behind the creation of visual news and how visual news is processed drawing in research from eye tracking media psychology and media literacy The book ends with a critical look at the future of the field The Routledge Companion to Visual Journalism is a recommended resource for all advanced students and researchers of visual journalism and communication and will also be of interest to practitioners in these fields The SAGE Encyclopedia of Journalism Gregory A. Borchard, 2022-01-28 Journalism permeates our lives and shapes our thoughts in ways that we have long taken for granted This set covers all significant dimensions of journalism such as print broadcast and Internet journalism U S and international perspectives and history technology legal issues and court cases ownership and economics The encyclopedia consists of signed entries from scholars experts and journalists Gender and Journalism Mary Angela Bock, 2023-08-29 Gender and Journalism introduces students to how one facet of our humanity gender has a tremendous effect on the people working in journalism the subjects and framing of the stories they tell and ultimately the people who consume those stories This engaging textbook provides a history of gender equality struggles alongside the development of news media in the United States It provides foundational concepts theories and methods through which students can explore the role gender has played in news media Promoting media literacy the book empowers students to look at the many factors that influence stories and to become more critical media consumers and creators themselves While the book centers on women s experiences in the United States it also considers the political economic and cultural aspects of gender and journalism globally It addresses experiences of LGBTQ and non white individuals to give an intersectional context to the ramifications of gender Students learn important concepts such as hegemonic masculinity colorblind racism infantilization and the double binds and explore issues related to gender in photojournalism sports journalism and broadcasting Designed to humanize media institutions the book highlights the lives of influential writers journalists activists and media producers Every chapter includes profiles of key journalists and activists and primary source excerpts as well as reflection and media critique chapter ending questions Highlighted keywords in each chapter culminate in a comprehensive glossary Instructor materials include suggested activities and sample quizzes Content Features Discussion of communication and media studies terms and theory Introduction to gender studies terms and theory Discussion of civil rights and race issues as they intersect with gender and journalism History of first and second wave feminism LGBTQ examples and history of gay rights Dedicated chapter on masculinity In Text Features Journalist and activist profile boxes Primary source excerpt boxes End of Chapter reflection and media critique questions Chapter keywords and cumulative glossary Instructor Resources Online News Guidance Multimedia Resources In Class Activities Clip Flip Exercise Chapter Quiz Questions Sample Syllabus Discourses in Action Klaus Krippendorff, Nour Halabi, 2020-01-20 This interdisciplinary collection brings together leading and emerging scholars of discourse conceptualizing how discursive practices shape social political and even material realities today Discourses in Action presents a wide range of essays that explore fundamental concerns for the social consequences of text talk and discursively informed actions and possibilities of discursive engagement It opens new perspectives on what language does and the differences that scholarly and practical contributions can make Chapters cover diverse topics ranging from political struggles climate change social revolutions ethnicity violence and other often unexpected patterns of discursive consequences Its essays also explore the cultural contingencies that underlie discourse practices which are usually ignored when analysed from within a taken for granted culture Providing a useful examination of current discourse studies this interdisciplinary volume is ideal for students and researchers within media communication discourse analysis linguistics cultural studies and the sociology of knowledge

Visual Communication Theory and Research S. Fahmy, M. Bock, W. Wanta, 2014-05-01 In today s multimedia environment visuals are essential and expected parts of storytelling However the visual communication research field is fragmented into several sub areas making study difficult Fahmy Bock and Wanta note trends and discuss the challenges of conducting analysis of images across print broadcast and online media Digital Journalism in Latin America Eugenia

Mitchelstein,Pablo J. Boczkowski,2023-02-28 This volume showcases the vibrancy of the study of digital journalism in Latin America It includes an inquiry into journalists perceptions of media companies policies regarding social media use a survey of investigative reporters an examination of the interaction between traditional broadcast journalists and online news teams in two television stations in Colombia research on modes of news consumption on Facebook and WhatsApp in Costa Rica and Chile and a study of the institutionalization of independent journalism in Brazil The methods employed by the contributors include surveys in depth interviews eye tracking and participant observation These texts reveal differences across and within Latin American media and their audiences This underscores the importance of abandoning the ethnocentric perspective of most journalism scholarship which tends to homogenize a supposedly exotic other In a research field marked by inequality in which the vast majority of studies authors and reviewers are from the Global North where only 14% of the global population lives the studies included in this volume illustrate how research about and from the other 86% can increase the representativeness of the scholarly endeavor It was originally published as a special issue of the journal Digital Journalism

Wiest,2021-03-25 Sponsored by the Communication Information Technologies and Media Sociology section of the American Sociological Association CITAMS this volume in Emerald Studies in Media and Communications features social science research on criminality policing and mass media in the digital age Embodied Activisms Lara Martin Lengel,Victoria A. Newsom,2022-02-09 Embodied Activisms explores how activists use their bodies to resist social norms engage with institutions and promote change This book spans historical perspectives current contexts and the most current scholarly literature to interrogate how embodied activism is read performed understood and actualized The studies in this volume address current critical issues such as police accountability activism the climate crisis environmental concerns and protests of Supreme Court confirmation hearings Chapters analyze a wide range of nonviolent mobilization tactics including silent protests embodied witnessing leisure spectacle demonstrations performance art and other forms of creative practice and rallies Analyses engage with aspects of intersectionality in activism and critique diverse modes of embodied resistance in locations including East Central Europe the Americas and the Mediterranean region Seeing Justice Mary Angela Bock,2021-07-01 In Seeing Justice Mary Angela Bock studies the way the American criminal justice system is visually represented in news Going behind the scenes she examines the way visual journalists negotiate with police and court officials to cover the criminal justice system and how officials endeavour to create favourable narratives by controlling what the public sees

Embracing the Track of Appearance: An Emotional Symphony within Video Journalism Beyond The One Man Band Mass Communication And Journalism

In some sort of taken by screens and the ceaseless chatter of immediate communication, the melodic splendor and psychological symphony produced by the published word frequently diminish into the back ground, eclipsed by the relentless noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. However, situated within the pages of Video Journalism Beyond The One Man Band Mass Communication And Journalism a wonderful literary prize overflowing with fresh thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a wonderful composer of language, this charming masterpiece conducts readers on a psychological trip, skillfully unraveling the concealed songs and profound affect resonating within each cautiously crafted phrase. Within the depths with this emotional analysis, we can investigate the book is key harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing design, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
