Detective Fiction in Cuban Society and Culture Stephen Wilkinson, 2006 This book examines Cuban society through a study of its detective fiction and more particularly contemporary Cuban society through the novels of the author and critic Leonardo Padura Fuentes The author traces the development of Cuban detective writing in the light of the work of twentieth century Western European literary critics and philosophers including Raymond Williams Antonio Gramsci Terry Eagleton Roland Barthes Jean Paul Sartre Michel Foucault Jean Fran ois Lyotard and Jean Baudrillard in order to gain a better understanding of the social and historical context in which this genre emerged The analysis includes discussion of the broader philosophical political and historical issues raised by the Cuban revolution The book concludes that the study of this popular genre in Cuba is of crucial importance to the scholar who wishes to reach as full an understanding of the social dynamics within that society as possible The Contemporary Spanish-American Novel Will H. Corral, Juan E. Subverting Sex, Gender, and Genre in Cuban and Mexican Detective Fiction Ailsa Peate,2024-09-25 The presence of bodies and sex in detective fiction has been a long term feature of this internationally popular genre Titillation is at the centre of narratives reliant upon discovery and revelation motives and criminals are slowly revealed along with sexualized and violated bodies from femmes fatales to the corpses of victims A satisfying gratifying genre for its readership the detective novel promises the disruption and subsequent restoration of order in societies tarnished by disillusionment which hope for a better future This book takes as its focus examples of detective fiction from Cuba and Mexico during or in the aftermath of huge social upheaval the Special Period and the War on Drugs analyzing representations of sexualities bodies and the genre itself Through an investigation of novels by Leonardo Padura and Amir Valle of Cuba and Belfrage and Rogelio Guedea of Mexico this work investigates increasingly fluid sexualities and bodies in challenging examples of metaphysical detective fiction a particularly anxious subgenre which challenges both the structures and limits of the detective novel and the reader's understanding of true and false and right and wrong representative of troubling periods of severe social disruption for Cuba and Mexico The Foreign in International Crime Fiction Jean Anderson,Carolina Miranda,Barbara Pezzotti,2012-06-14 The foreigner is a familiar character in popular crime fiction from the foreign detective whose outsider status provides a unique perspective on a familiar or exotic location to the xenophobic portrayal of the criminal other Exploring popular crime fiction from across the world The Foreign in International Crime Fiction examines these popular works as transcultural contact zones in which writers can tackle such issues as national identity immigration globalization and diaspora communities Offering readings of 20th and 21st century crime writing from Norway the UK India China Europe and Australasia the essays in this book open up new directions for scholarship on crime writing and transnational literatures Food, Texts, and Cultures in Latin America and Spain Rafael Climent-Espino,Ana M. Gómez-Bravo,2021-04-30 A foundational text in the emerging field of Latin American and Iberian food studies Into the Mainstream Jorge Febles,2009-03-26 Into the Mainstream Essays on Spanish American and Latino Literature and Culture is a direct outgrowth of Jorge Febles's involvement with the annual conference of the American Culture Association and the Popular Culture Association In that sense the compilation expands on a project initiated in 1993 by Helen Ryan Ransom with her book Imagination Emblems and Expressions Essays on Latin American Caribbean and Continental Culture and Identity Bowling Green Ohio Bowling Green State University Popular Press 1993 David William Foster who penned a lengthy preface to that collection justified its intent by underscoring The very fact that our approach to culture is dominated by categories based on high academic institutionalized phenomena poses from the very outset the question of how to deal with all those other cultural manifestations that do not comfortably assimilate to the accepted canon Ryan Ransom 3 The past fourteen years however have witnessed a radical transformation of that so called canon due to the widespread acceptance of ideas espoused by cultural theorists like García Canclini, Homi Bhabha, Stuart Hall, Benhabib, Bourdieu and countless others. Therefore the ambivalence regarding what constitutes culture identified by Foster is inoperative nowadays to a substantial degree. In fact a fundamental component of the postmodern outlook resides in the ability to blend comfortably the high and the low, the elitist and the popular realms of production in a multiplicity of textual artifacts, creative as well as critical in nature. Hence the essays that conform Into the Mainstream do not question barriers anymore nor do they expound on the need to assign a discursive intellectual space to matters pertaining to popular culture. Thus this collection espouses an inclusive approach in which a variety of analytical approaches coalesce to reflect on an equally kaleidoscopic textuality. Pursuant to its comprehensive nature Into the Mainstream airs established as well as developing critical voices so as to reflect both ideological continuity and evolving viewpoints. Scholars who have compiled strong academic records like Hortensia Morell, Raquel Rivas Rojas, Elsa Gilmore, David Petreman and Benjamin Torres Caballero share a venue with younger critics like Corey Shouse, Tourino Roberto Vela Córdova, Stacy Hoult, Eduardo del Río, Bruce Campbell, Laura Redruello, Dinora Cardoso and April Marshall as well as with two graduate students about to complete their academic preparation, Nuria Ibáñez Quintana and María Teresa Vera Rojas. The result is an eclectic compilation meant to elicit discussion on the basis of its variety. Into the Mainstream's primordial objective is to place these provocative essays which are expanded versions of papers presented during the annual gathering of the American Culture Association and the Popular Culture Association in the period 2002-2005 along with the numerous subjects they treat in the academic mainstream where they rightfully belong. Our Caribbean Thomas Glave, 2008. The first anthology of lesbian and gay writing from the Caribbean. Críticas, 2004.
