If Problems Talked Jeffrey L. Zimmerman, Victoria C. Dickerson, 1996-08-29 In this unique book noted family therapists Jeffrey L Zimmerman and Victoria C Dickerson explore how clients problems are defined by personal and cultural narratives and ways the therapist can assist clients in co constructing and reauthoring narratives to fit their preferences The authors share their therapeutic vision through a series of stories fictionalized discussions and minidramas in which problems have a voice Written in an engaging and personal style the book challenges many dominant ideas in psychotherapy inviting the reader to enter a world in which she or he can experience a radically different view of problems people and therapy A wealth of stories told from the clients point of view illustrate the creative ways they begin to deal with problems Individuals escape them couples take their relationships back from problems kids dump their problems and teenagers work with their parents to fight their problems Training and supervision from the perspective of students are also discussed As entertaining as it is informative this book will be welcomed by family therapists both novice and experienced from a range of orientations Offering a creative and accessible approach to clinical work it also serves as a supplementary text in courses on family and narrative therapy

Narrative Therapy Catrina Brown, Tod Augusta-Scott, 2006-08-03 This volume is especially useful in demonstrating the effects of placing social discourses at the center of therapy It goes many sacred cows of the larger modernist therapeutic community but in doing so it offers new ideas for mental health professionals attempting to help their clients with common and serious life problems

PSYCRITIQUES This compilation is an insightful read for practitioners who have not taken the opportunity to use narrative therapy in practice Experienced practitioners will certainly appreciate the theoretical analysis offered by the writers as well as the opportunity for reflective practice

Narrative Therapy is a meaningful contribution to a Canadian book market lacking in clinical literature for social workers

CANADIAN ASSOCIATION OF SOCIAL WORKERS

Narrative Therapy Making Meaning Making Lives offers a comprehensive introduction to and critique of narrative therapy and its theories This edited volume introduces students to the history and theory of narrative therapy

Authors Catrina Brown and Tod Augusta Scott situate this approach to theory and practice within the context of various feminist post modern and critical theories Through the presentation of case studies

Narrative Therapy Making Meaning Making Lives shows how this narrative oriented theory can be applied in the client therapist experience Many important therapeutic situations abuse addictions eating disorders and more are addressed from the narrative perspective

Rooted in social constructionism and emerging initially from family therapy narrative therapy emphasizes the idea that we live storied lives Within this approach the editors and contributors seek to show how we make sense of our lives and experiences by ascribing meaning through stories which themselves arise within social conversations and culturally available discourses Our stories don't simply represent us or mirror lived events they actually constitute us shaping our lives as well as our relationships

Narrative Therapy will be a valuable supplemental textbook for theory and practice courses in departments of Counseling and Psychotherapy and of Social Work as well as for courses in Gender and Women Studies
