Libya's Fragmentation Wolfram Lacher, 2020-02-20 Shortlisted for the Conflict Research Society s 2021 Book of the Year Prize Shortlisted for the British Kuwait Friendship Society 2021 Book Prize After the overthrow of the Qadhafi regime in 2011 Libya witnessed a dramatic breakdown of centralized power Countless local factions carved up the country into a patchwork of spheres of influence Almost no nationwide or even regional organizations emerged and no national institutions survived the turbulent descent into renewed civil war Only the leader of one armed coalition Khalifa Haftar managed to overcome competitors and centralize authority over eastern Libya But tenacious resistance from armed groups in western Libya blocked Haftar s attempt to seize power in the capital Tripoli Rarely does political fragmentation occur as radically as in Libya where it has been the primary obstacle to the re establishment of central authority This book analyzes the forces that have shaped the country s trajectory since 2011 Confounding widely held assumptions about the role of Libya s tribes in the revolution Wolfram Lacher shows how war transformed local communities and explains why Khalifa Haftar has been able to consolidate his sway over the northeast Based on hundreds of interviews with key actors in the conflict Lacher advances an approach to the study of civil wars that places the transformation of social ties at the centre of analysis

Building a New Yemen Amat Al Alim Alsoswa, Noel Brehony, 2021-08-12 Yemen has faced continuing crises since 2010 The fighting and divisions have destroyed much of Yemen s physical political and social infrastructure undermining its tribal traditions and religious tolerance and impoverishing the country The outbreak of war in 2015 caused the world s worst humanitarian crisis In this book Yemeni and international experts assess what political arrangements are required to overcome fragmentation and discord in Yemen They look to understand how people from all parts of the county can work together to build a new Yemen one that will give a voice to its young population and provide a full role for women The contributors argue that Yemen s major resource is its population but that Yemenis need to be motivated and trained to give them the skills to rebuild the economy and to prepare for long term challenges such as water shortages and climate change The volume also discusses how the international community will need to absorb the lessons of the past to find better ways of creating the institutions mechanisms and transparency with Yemenis that will enable the flow of vital assistance to where it is most needed The book provides an up to date analysis to help governments and international agencies who will have to work with Yemen and its neighbours in the post conflict situation
