Roseman,2017-09-15 In the passage to modernity we in the West have lost the ability to see things whole We ve closed our minds to all things transcendent and default to unbelief and can t make sense of the persistent echoes of the voice of God that reverberate in our souls In Rediscovering God's Grand Story James Roseman picks up the strands of science philosophy history the arts and theology and reweaves the tapestry to see a coherent story that makes the best sense of the world and provides real meaning and significance to our lives God s Grand Myth We see that the signals of transcendence that confound our culture of doubt are a universal language and vocabulary of the heart echoing the voice of God and in the very Judeo Christian story we so readily jettison is found the Author enabling us to see the world whole again This essay tells why the story and promise of Christianity is so hard to hear today but won't go away Could it be that as T S Eliot wrote in the mid twentieth century at the end of all our exploring will be to arrive where we started and know the place for the first time written by God and the formation of His family Our believing knowing and understanding are the revelation of Christ already in us which must be squeezed and shaped into His image so that when others see us they see their Father God is looking for his sons to do this The Book of Revelation reveals Christ in us which must be manifested as the body with Jesus as the head in order for the return of the Lord to be revealed This book is the instruction of the spiritual process that must take place individually and then corporately in each child of God to walk in the authority and power as a son What he created in spirit must come forth in the flesh with his image and likeness We must know in our heart that we are an offspring a portion of the original Jesus has been blowing the sound of our jubilee since he rose from the grave He is waiting for us to hear this sound and enter into his rest We have the ability today to know the power of his resurrection while in our natural body The Book of Revelation tells us how God is looking for His sons He created in the beginning to take dominion and authority The Book of Revelation reveals Christ in us who must be manifested as His body with Jesus as the head When Jesus said It is finished was he just making a way for personal salvation with God or was there a bigger picture John 14 12 says Verily verily I say unto you he that believeth on me the works that I do shall he do also and greater works than these shall he do because I go unto my Father For over 2000 years the body of Christ has been liken to kings and lords hiding in a cave waiting for a someday when they get to heaven to receive their inheritance as a son of God When Jesus died he gave us the ram s horn the shofar to declare that our JUBILEE is here NOW for us to receive The Book of Revelation teaches us how to hear the sound of this horn the voice of the Father which brings hope and challenge for us to open the doors to our true identity as a son of God It will set us free from the captivity and bondages in our lives as we find out that as He is so are we today in this world with His power and His authority
