Georgia O'Keeffe's Wartime Texas Letters Amy Von Lintel, 2020-04-30 In 1912 at age 24 Georgia O'Keeffe boarded a train in Virginia and headed west to the prairies of the Texas Panhandle to take a position as art teacher for the newly organized Amarillo Public Schools Subsequently she would join the faculty at what was then West Texas State Normal College now West Texas A M University Already a thoroughly independent minded woman she maintained an active correspondence with her future husband photographer Alfred Stieglitz and other friends back east during the years she lived in Texas Amy Von Lintel brings to readers the collected O'Keeffe correspondence and added commentary and analysis shining fresh light on a period of the artist's life she characterizes as some of the least appreciated in the vast O'Keeffe scholarship but also as a time when she discovered her own voice as a young successful and independent woman a dedicated faculty member at a brand new college a vibrant social butterfly a progressive woman who spoke her mind and fought for her beliefs to be heard Although selected paintings by O'Keeffe that support the narrative are featured this work focuses on O'Keeffe's words By doing so Von Lintel aims to allow the artist's voice to emerge as a powerful witness of her own life but also of western America in a pivotal moment of its development The result is an important new examination of one of our most beloved artists during a time when she was in the process of discovering her future identity The Steps to War Paul D. Senese, John A. Vasquez, 2008-08-10 The question of what causes war has concerned statesmen since the time of Thucydides The Steps to War utilizes new data on militarized interstate disputes from 1816 to 2001 to identify the factors that increase the probability that a crisis will escalate to war In this book Paul Senese and John Vasquez test one of the major behavioral explanations of war the steps to war by identifying the various factors that put two states at risk for war Focusing on the era of classic international politics from 1816 to 1945 the Cold War and the post Cold War period they look at the roles of territorial disputes alliances rivalry and arms races and show how the likelihood of war increases significantly as these risk factors are combined Senese and Vasquez argue that war is more likely in the presence of these factors because they increase threat perception and put both sides into a security dilemma The Steps to War calls into question certain prevailing realist beliefs like peace through strength demonstrating how threatening to use force and engaging in power politics is more likely to lead to war than to peace      The Illinois Medical Journal ,1915      What it is Like to Go to War Karl Marlantes,2011 Offers insight into the combat experience drawing on the author s background as a decorated Vietnam War veteran to raise awareness about how inadequately troops are prepared for battle related psychological and spiritual trauma      The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States United States.
