Why We Build Rowan Moore:

Why We Build Rowan Moore, 2014-09-02 We are living in one of the most dramatic periods in modern architectural history a time when cityscapes are being redrawn on a yearly basis architects are testing the very idea of what a building is and whole cities are invented overnight In this bold and wide ranging new work Rowan Moore former director of the Architecture Foundation now a leading architecture critic explores the reasons behind these changes in our built environment and how they change the way we live in the world Provocative and personal iconoclastic and transforming Why We Build is that rarest of things a book about architecture that is also on every page a book about people those chosen few who design buildings and the rest of us who use them every day

Why We Build Rowan Moore, 2013-08-20 In an era of brash expensive provocative new buildings a prominent critic argues that emotions hope power sex our changing relationship to the idea of home are the most powerful force behind architecture yesterday and especially today We are living in one of the most dramatic periods in modern architectural history a time when cityscapes are being redrawn on a yearly basis architects are testing the very idea of what a building is and whole cities are being invented overnight both here in the United States and in exotic locations around the world In this bold and wide ranging new work Rowan Moore former director of the Architecture Foundation now a leading architecture critic explores the reasons behind these changes in our built environment and how they in turn are changing the way we live in the world Taking as his starting point dramatic examples such as the High Line in New York City and the outrageous island experiment of Dubai Moore then reaches far and wide back in time to explore the Covent Garden brothels of eighteenth century London and the fetishistic minimalism of Adolf Loos across the world to assess a software magnate s grandiose mansion in Atlanta and Daniel Libeskind s failed design for the World Trade Center site and finally to the deeply naturalistic work of Lina Bo Bardi whom he celebrates as the most underrated architect of the modern era Provocative and personal iconoclastic and transforming Why We Build is that rarest of things a book about architecture that is also on every page a book about people those chosen few who design buildings and the rest of us who use them every day

Anatomy of a Building Rowan Moore, 2014-09-02 The Royal College of Physicians celebrates its 500th anniversary in 2018 and to observe this landmark is publishing this series of ten books Each of the books focuses on fifty themed elements that have contributed to making the RCP what it is today together adding up to 500 reflections on 500 years Some of the people ideas objects and manuscripts featured are directly connected to the College while others have had an influence that can still be felt in its work Written exactly fifty years after the opening of the building in 1964 this first book in the series Anatomy of a Building is a meditation on the architecture of the college focusing particularly on its current home a Grade 1 listed building designed by Denys Lasdun

Property Rowan Moore, 2023-10-31 A powerful examination of how property shaped the modern world and why it now threatens the freedoms and stability it was meant to sustain Property carries a great promise that it will make you rich and set you free But it is also a weapon an agent of displacement and exploitation the currency of kleptocrats and oligarchs In Britain it has led to a new class division between those who own and those who don't Property is a vivid far reaching analysis of our concept of property ownership from 16th century enclosures to the present day It tells powerful stories of life in the developer led boomtown of Gurgaon in India of the struggles to form Black communities in Missouri and Georgia of a giant experiment in co operative living in the Bronx of the impacts of Margaret Thatcher's property owning democracy Above all Property asks how we have come to view our homes as investments and it offers hope for how things could be better with reform that might enable the social wealth of property to be returned to society Precedented Environmental Futures Colin Porteous, 2019-04-17 This book addresses the built environment through the lens of environmental architecture and in a holistic manner It moves gradually from psychophysiology and thinking doing feeling modalities through environmental criteria to environmental modulation concluding with a debate around mitigation and adaptation Much use is made of re interpreting past quotations seen as relevant for environmental architecture No definitive conclusions are reached but rather broad discursive messages are offered The text will have lasting luminance for new generations involved with the built environment Redefining Brutalism Simon Henley, 2019-10-18 There is a genuine resurgence of interest in this period of architecture Brutalism is a highly debated topic in the architectural press and amongst architectural critics and institutions who promote the preservation of these buildings This book is unique in combining beautiful highly illustrated design with description of both British and International brutalist buildings and architects alongside analysis of the present and future of brutalism Not just be a historical tome this book discusses brutalism as a living and evolving entity Cities of Power G+ran Therborn, 2021-10-12 Why are cities centers of power A sociological analysis of urban politics In this brilliant very original survey of the politics and meanings of urban landscapes leading sociologist G+ran Therborn offers a tour of the world's major capital cities showing how they have been shaped by national popular and global forces Their stories begin with the emergence of various kinds of nation state each with its own special capital city problematic In turn radical shifts of power have impacted on these cities development in popular urban reforms or movements of protest and resistance in the rise and fall of fascism and military dictatorships and the coming and going of Communism Therborn also analyzes global moments of urban formation of historical globalized nationalism as well as the cities of current global image capitalism and their variations of skyscraping gating and displays of novelty Through a global historical lens and with a thematic range extending from the mutations of modernist architecture to the contemporary return of urban revolutions Therborn questions received assumptions about the source manifestations and reach of urban power combining perspectives on politics sociology urban planning architecture and urban iconography He argues that at a time when they seem to be moving apart there is a strong link between the city and the nation state and that the current globalization of cities is largely driven by the global aspirations of politicians as well as those of national and local capital With its unique systematic overview from Washington D

C and revolutionary Paris to the flamboyant twenty first century capital Astana in Kazakhstan its wealth of urban observations from all the populated continents and its sharp and multi faceted analyses Cities of Power forces us to rethink our urban future as well as our historically shaped present The See-Through House Shelley Klein,2020-04-23 A charming account of a daughter a house and a fastidious dad Sunday Times Shelley Klein grew up in the Scottish Borders in a house designed on a modernist open plan grid With colourful glass panels set against a forest of trees it was like living in a work of art Her father Bernat Klein was a textile designer whose pioneering colours and textures were a major contribution to 1960s and 70s style Thirty years on Shelley moves back home to care for her father now in his eighties the house has not changed and neither has his uncompromising vision or his distinctive way of looking at the world Told with great tenderness and humour this is Shelley s account of looking after an adored yet maddening parent and a piercing portrait of the grief that followed his death A sad funny utterly fascinating book about families home and how to say goodbye Mark Haddon Original moving and bracingly honest often hilarious Blake Morrison Guardian It is strange that grief should produce such a life affirming book but it has Read it for the solace it contains or for its captivating descriptions Either way it s a delight Telegraph

Hollywood Action Films and Spatial Theory Nick Jones,2015-03-02 This book applies the discourse of the so called spatial turn to popular contemporary cinema in particular the action sequences of twenty first century Hollywood productions Tackling a variety of spatial imaginations contemporary iconic architecture globalisation and non places phenomenological knowledge of place consumerist spaces of commodity purchase cyberspace the diverse case studies not only detail the range of ways in which action sequences represent the challenge of surviving and acting in contemporary space but also reveal the consistent qualities of spatial appropriation and spatial manipulation that define the form Jones argues that action sequences dramatise the restrictions and possibilities of space offering examples of radical spatial praxis through their depictions of spatial engagement struggle and eventual transcendence Florence Nightingale at Home Paul Crawford,Anna Greenwood,Richard Bates,Jonathan Memel,2020-11-13 Winner of the 2021 2022 People s Book Prize Best Achievement Award Homes can be both comforting and troubling places This timely book proposes a new understanding of Florence Nightingale s experiences of domestic life and how ideas of home influenced her writings and pioneering work From her childhood homes in Derbyshire and Hampshire she visited the poor sick in their cottages As a young woman feeling imprisoned at home she broke free to become a woman of action bringing home comforts to the soldiers in the Crimean War and advising the British population on the home front how to create healthier contagion free homes Later she created Nightingale Homes for nursing trainees and acted as mother in chief to her extended family of nurses These efforts inspired by her Christian faith and training in human care from religious houses led to major changes in professional nursing and public health as Nightingale strove for homely compassionate care in Britain and around the world Shedid most of this work from her bed after contracting the debilitating illness brucellosis in the Crimea turning her various private homes into offices and households of faith In the year of the bicentenary of her birth she remains as relevant as ever achieving an astonishing cultural afterlife Forgotten Women Zing Tsjeng,2023-03-06 To say this book is empowering doesn't do it justice Buy a copy for your daughters sisters mums aunts and nieces just make sure you buy a copy for your sons brothers dads uncles and nephews too indy100 Here's to no more forgotten women Evening Standard Forgotten Women reaches around the world and its history to rediscover retell and reinstate the lives of over 190 important and significant women From Neolithic times to modernity Zing Tsjeng has traced the women who have shaped their age and revolutionised society In this book lies the strength lives and sacrifices of women who have refused to accept the hand they've been dealt and have changed the course of our futures accordingly A Philosophy of Chinese Architecture David Wang,2016-12-08 A Philosophy of Chinese Architecture Past Present Future examines the impact of Chinese philosophy on China's historic structures as well as on modern Chinese urban aesthetics and architectural forms For architecture in China moving forward author David Wang posits a theory the New Virtualism which links current trends in computational design with long standing Chinese philosophical themes The book also assesses twentieth century Chinese architecture through the lenses of positivism consciousness phenomenology and linguistics structuralism and poststructuralism Illustrated with over 70 black and white images this book establishes philosophical baselines for assessing architectural developments in China past present and future Tales Of Two Londons Claire Armitstead,2018-03-15 This scintillating anthology draws on the rich mélange of people who inhabit today's London both lamenting the unequal way the city treats them and celebrating the vibrant urban life their co-existence delivers Makers of Modern Architecture, Volume III Martin Filler,2018-09-25 An invaluable guide to lives and work of Frank Gehry Antoni Gaudí Frank Lloyd Wright Louis Kahn Maya Lin and other important figures of 20th and 21st century architecture Martin Filler's contribution to both architecture criticism and general readers' understanding is invaluable according to Publishers Weekly This latest installment in his acclaimed Makers of Modern Architecture series again demonstrates his unparalleled skill in explaining the revolutionary changes that have reshaped the built environment over the past century and a half These studies of more than two dozen master builders women and men celebrated and obscure idealists and opportunists range from the environmental pioneer Frederick Law Olmsted and the mystical eccentric Antoni Gaudí to the present day visionaries Frank Gehry and Maya Lin Filler's broad knowledge embraces everything from the glittering Viennese luxury of Josef Hoffmann to the heavy duty construction of the New Brutalists from the low cost postwar suburbs of the Levitt Brothers to today's super tall condo towers on Manhattan's Billionaire's Row Sometimes the interplay of social and political forces leads to dark results as with Hitler's favorite architect Albert Speer and interior designer Gerdy Troost More often though heroic figures including Frank Lloyd Wright Louis Kahn and Lina Bo Bardi offer uplifting inspiration for the future of the one art form we all live with and in every day Monuments of Diverse Heritage in Early America Barry L. Stiefel,2025-10-01 Monuments of Diverse Heritage in Early America Placemaking and

Preservation by Black Indigenous and Jewish Peoples explores a more inclusive history of preserving public historic sites At a time when some Americans have embraced white nationalism in response to unfolding demographic changes and others celebrate individual identities over all else an inclusive tolerant and unifying historical vision is sorely needed While past preservation efforts sometimes resulted in exclusionary forms of historical inspiration that need not be the case in the future Bringing greater attention to the diverse heritage of the United States will not only help dismantle the lingering remnants of exclusionary and elitist narratives but also celebrate a pluralistic and diverse past and present An inclusive empowering history can provide social cohesion while allowing room for individual groups to have authority over their pasts and representation in public side by side with one another

Introducing Architectural Theory Korydon Smith, Miguel Guitart, 2024-01-22 Building on the success of the first edition an engaging and reader friendly work on complex ideas Introducing Architectural Theory Expanding the Disciplinary Debate broadens the range of themes voices and geographies represented to provide a more comprehensive and contemporary theory book This book presents major discourses in architectural theory and design in a debate like format integrating a series of edited texts across architectural history with context and newly written commentaries by the authors This new edition has been fully revised updated and expanded to include long standing debates such as simplicity vs complexity or the relationship between form and function as well as newer discussions on innovation globalization and social equity Authors Smith and Guitart provide a comprehensive means and conceptual framework for readers to compare multiple points of view The chapter structure discussion questions and additional resources allow teachers to facilitate in class discussions and writing assignments This book remains the most accessible architectural theory textbook written for beginning architecture students and those outside the discipline Its reflective and critical approach will equally engage the minds of upper level students and experts

The Country House Revisited Tereza Topolovská , 2017-08-01 This monograph provides an insight into English country house fiction by twentieth and twenty first century authors with a focus on the works of E M Forster Evelyn Waugh Iris Murdoch Alan Hollinghurst and Sarah Waters The country house is explored within the wider social and cultural contexts of the period including contemporary architectural development The variety of literary depictions of the country house reflects the physical diversification of buildings which can be classified as such from smaller variants to formerly grand residences on the brink of physical collapse Within the scope of contemporary fiction architecture and poetics of space the country house given its uniquely integrating and exceptionally evocative qualities accentuates different conceptions of dwelling Consequently literary portrayals of the country house can be seen as both prefiguring and reflecting the contemporary practice of living

Awaiting the King (Cultural Liturgies Book #3) James K. A. Smith, 2017-11-07 In this culmination of his widely read and highly acclaimed Cultural Liturgies project James K A Smith examines politics through the lens of liturgy What if he asks citizens are not only thinkers or believers but also lovers Smith explores how our analysis of political institutions would look different if we viewed them as incubators of love shaping practices not merely governing us but forming what we love How would our political engagement change if we weren't simply looking for permission to express our views in the political sphere but actually hoped to shape the ethos of a nation a state or a municipality to foster a way of life that bends toward shalom This book offers a well rounded public theology as an alternative to contemporary debates about politics Smith explores the religious nature of politics and the political nature of Christian worship sketching how the worship of the church propels us to be invested in forging the common good This book creatively merges theological and philosophical reflection with illustrations from film novels and music and includes helpful exposition and contemporary commentary on key figures in political theology

How to Live in the City Hugo Macdonald, 2016-01-14 Building a relationship with a city is a lot like building a relationship with another person just as cities can be intoxicating generous and inspiring so they can also be dangerous fickle and impenetrable How to Live in the City is a book for navigating and nurturing this important relationship Hugo Macdonald believes you need to feel a city to understand it He won't tell you how wide the perfect pavement should be but he will show you how to walk down a pavement with eyes wide open This is a book to help you feel human in an inhuman environment

House and Home Thomas Barrie, 2017-03-16 House and home are words routinely used to describe where and how one lives This book challenges predominant definitions and argues that domesticity fundamentally satisfies the human need to create and inhabit a defined place in the world Consequently house and home have performed numerous cultural and ontological roles and have been assiduously represented in scripture literature art and philosophy This book presents how the search for home in an unpredictable world led people to create myths about the origins of architecture houses for their gods and house tombs for eternal life Turning to more recent topics it discusses how writers often used simple huts as a means to address the essentials of existence modernist architects envisioned the capacity of house and home to improve society and the suburban house was positioned as a superior setting for culture and family Throughout the book house and home are critically examined to illustrate the perennial role and capacity of architecture to articulate the human condition position it more meaningfully in the world and assist in our collective homecoming
