Thinking About Love Contemporary Continental:

Thinking About Love Diane Enns, Antonio Calcagno, 2015-11-10 Does love command an ineffability that remains inaccessible to the philosopher Thinking About Love considers the nature and experience of love through the writing of well known Continental philosophers such as Hannah Arendt Simone de Beauvoir Jacques Derrida and Maurice Merleau Ponty Evolving forms of social organization rapid developments in the field of psychology and novel variations on relationships demand new approaches to and ways of talking about love Rather than offering prescriptive claims this volume explores how one might think about the concept philosophically without attempting to resolve or alleviate its ambiguities paradoxes and limitations The essays focus on the contradictions and limits of love manifested in such phenomena as trust abuse grief death violence politics and desire An erudite examination of the many facets of love this book fills a lacuna in the philosophy of this richly complicated topic Along with the editors the contributors are Sophie Bourgault John Caruana Christina M Gschwandtner Marguerite La Caze Alphonso Lingis Christian Lotz Todd May Dawne McCance Dorothea Olkowski Felix Murchadha Fiona Utley and M lanie Walton Love in Contemporary British Drama Korbinian Stöckl, 2021-01-18 Despite the recent turn to affects and emotions in the humanities and despite the unceasing popularity of romantic and erotic love as a motif in fictional works of all genres the subject has received surprisingly little attention in academic studies of contemporary drama Love in Contemporary British Drama reflects the appeal of love as a topic and driving force in dramatic works with in depth analyses of eight pivotal plays from the past three decades Following an interdisciplinary and historical approach the study collects and condenses theories of love from philosophy and sociology to derive persisting discourses and to examine their reoccurrence and transformation in contemporary plays Special emphasis is put on narratives of love s compensatory function and precariousness and on how modifications of these narratives epitomise the peculiarities of emotional life in the social and cultural context of the present Based on the assumption that drama is especially inclined to draw on shared narratives for representations of love the book demonstrates that love is both a window to remnants of the past in the present and a proper subject matter for drama in times in which the suitability of the dramatic form has been questioned The God Who Trusts Wm. Curtis Holtzen, 2019-12-10 The Bible resounds with affirmations that God is faithful and trustworthy But might he also exhibit faith and trust Wm Curtis Holtzen contends that because God is a being of relational love and exists in relationship with humans then God is a God who trusts Holtzen argues that understanding the relationship between divine trust and human faith can give us a fuller truer picture of who God is and who we are The ^AOxford Handbook of Feminism and Music Education Marissa Silverman, Nasim Niknafs, 2025-07-07 The Oxford Handbook of Feminism and Music Education brings together a wide range of international philosophical and qualitative scholars practicing music teachers educators policymakers and community musicians to conceptualize analyze and critique the multifaceted practices and problems in music education through feminist perspectives Unorthodox Minds in

Contemporary Fiction Grzegorz Maziarczyk, Joanna Klara Teske, 2024-09-30 Unorthodox Minds in Contemporary Fiction seeks to provide an overview of the ways in which broadly understood contemporary fiction envisions explores and engenders minds going beyond the classical models The opening essay discusses the complex relationships between such innovative concepts of the mind and experimental techniques for presenting mentality The chapters which follow focus on disembodied and or extended mind virtuality of avatar minds intermental thought of reader communities the capability of artificial intelligence and humans for genuine selfless love the interplay between technology and affect in posthuman consciousness The books under discussion include Murmur by Will Eaves The Unfortunates by B S Johnson The Satanic Verses by Salman Rushdie H A PPY by Nicola Barker and Machines Like Me by Ian McEwan A piece of conceptual fiction by Steve Tomasula one of the most innovative American novelists of our times exploring the human mind's alleged power to transcend its biological limits complements these scholarly inquiries

Roberto Esposito Inna Viriasova, Antonio Calcagno, 2018-06-25 Analyzes key concepts and arguments in the work of one of Europe's leading philosophers One of Europe's leading philosophers Roberto Esposito has produced a considerable body of work that continues to have a significant impact on political science sociology literature and philosophy This volume offers both a comprehensive introduction to and critical explanation of Esposito's political thought and key concepts from his oeuvre The contributors address aspects of his growing corpus such as the impolitical community immunity the impersonal affirmative biopolitics justice life the third person and the body In addition they highlight Esposito's reading and interpretation of classical political thinkers including Hobbes Machiavelli Vico Arendt and Kant The book explores applications of Esposito's philosophy to issues in international relations post colonialism literature science technology and philosophical and artistic practice bringing Esposito into dialogue with important social political concerns To my knowledge there are no other books in Italian or English that attempt to provide a critical introduction to Esposito's works and an engagement with his works in fields outside of political science and philosophy This volume is an important first

The Amorous Imagination D. Andrew Yost, 2021-08-01 In The Amorous Imagination D Andrew Yost builds upon Jean Luc Marion's phenomenology of love to argue that through the interpretive activities of the imagination the Beloved appears to the lover as this Other not the Other Weaving together insights from Romantic thought and contemporary French philosophy Yost describes the distinctive role the imagination plays in individuating another person so that they appear radically unique special and unsubstitutable This radical uniqueness or haecceitas emerges out of the lovers engagement in an endless hermeneutic an ongoing process of creative and responsive meaning making that grounds the lovers lives in each other and opens them up to new possibilities All of this Yost argues is made possible by the amorous imagination Drawing from the deep well of love poetry mythology philosophy and literature The Amorous Imagination comes to the provocative conclusion that without the productive power of the imagination love itself could not emerge

Love in the Dark Diane

Enns,2016-09-06 Intimate love opens us up to suffering sacrifice and loss Is it always worth the risk Consulting philosophers writers and poets who draw insights from material life Diane Enns shines a light on the limits of erotic love exploring its paradoxes through personal and philosophical reflections Situating experience at the center of her inquiry Enns conducts philosophy by another name elaborating the ambiguities and risks of love with visceral clarity Love in the Dark claims that intimacy must accept risk as long as love does not destroy the self Erotic love inspires an inexplicable affirmation of another but can erode autonomy and vulnerability There is a limit to love and appreciating it requires a rethinking of love s liberal paradigms which Enns traces back to the hostility toward the body and eros in Christianity and the Western philosophical tradition Against a legacy of an abstract and sanitized love Enns recasts erotic attachment as an event linked to conditional circumstances The value of love lies in its intensity and depth and its end does not negate love s truth or significance Writing in a lyrical genre defying style Enns delineates the paradoxes of love in its relations to lust abuse suffering and grief to reach an account faithful to human experience
