

An abstract painting featuring bold, expressive brushstrokes in vibrant red, deep green, and stark white. The composition is dynamic, with the colors swirling and overlapping to create a sense of movement and depth. The red strokes are particularly prominent, often appearing as sharp, radiating lines or thick, textured areas. The green strokes provide a contrasting background, while the white strokes add highlights and a sense of airiness. The overall effect is one of intense energy and emotional resonance.

Asking What: No More Whys Wilma Marler,2014-05 The story of being the victim of threats and related actions served as the predictor of my life journey My writing about my anger at the outcome of that event led a professor to suggest I change my major from sociology to journalism Although I did not heed that suggestion I am following that advice now I was trapped in my anger and it seemed every day there was a new inquiry of why this or why that In changing the question from why to what I discovered God s reason for my journey Questioning the reason for events elicits from God the response children are
