What I Say Innovative Poetry By Black Writers In America:

What I Say Aldon Lynn Nielsen, Lauri Ramey, 2015-06-15 What I Say Innovative Poetry by Black Writers in America is the second book in a landmark two volume anthology that explodes narrow definitions of African American poetry by examining experimental poems often excluded from previous scholarship The first volume Every Goodbye Ain't Gone covers the period from the end of World War II to the mid 1970s In What I Say editors Aldon Lynn Nielsen and Lauri Ramey have assembled a comprehensive and dynamic collection that brings this pivotal work up to the present day The elder poets in this collection such as Nathaniel Mackey C S Giscombe Will Alexander and Ron Allen came of age during and were powerfully influenced by the Black Arts Movement and What I Say grounds the collection in its black modernist roots In tracing the fascinating and unexpected paths of experimentation these poets explored however Nielsen and Ramey reveal the tight delineations of African American poetry that omitted noncanonical forms This invigorating panoply of work when restored brings into focus the creatively elastic frontiers and multifaceted expressions of contemporary black poetry Several of the poets discussed in What I Say forged relationships with members of the L A N G U A G E poetry movement and participated in the broader community of innovative poetry that emerged in the late 1970s and early 1980s and continues to exert a powerful influence today Each volume can stand on its own and reading them in tandem will provide a clear vision of how innovative African American poetries have evolved across the twentieth century and into the twenty first What I Say is infinitely teachable compelling and rewarding It will appeal to a broad readership of poets poetics teachers poetics scholars students of African American literature in nonnarrative forms Afro futurism and what lies between the modern and the contemporary in global and localized writing practices

Literature and Race in the Democracy of Goods Christopher Chen, 2022-03-24 Examining three literary traditions post 1960 Asian American Asian Canadian and Black experimental poetry this book reframes contemporary scholarly accounts of post war North American comparative racial group formation demonstrating how such poetry investigates contemporary Black Asian relations and maps the complex co constitution of race and capitalism at different spatial scales Offering extended close readings of contemporary Black Asian American and Asian Canadian experimental poets such as Myung Mi Kim Erica Hunt Larissa Lai and Ed Roberson this book argues that these writers redefine race as a changing and politically contested form of constraint and possibility powerfully shaped by economic history and capitalist globalization This study retheorizes some basic terms of analysis of contemporary US poetry and poetics critical race and ethnic studies racial capitalism and contemporary theories of comparative and relational racialization

Avant-Garde Pieties Joel Bettridge, 2018-05-15 Avant Garde Pieties tells a new story about innovative poetry it argues that the avant garde now more than a century old persists in its ability to nurture interesting provocative meaningful and moving poems despite its profound cultural failings and its self devouring theoretical compulsions It can do so because a humanistic strain of its radical poetics compels adherents to argue over the meaning of their shared political and aesthetic beliefs In ways that can be productively thought of as religious in structure this process fosters a perpetual state of crisis and renewal always returning innovative poetry to its founding modernist commitments as a way to debate what the avant garde is what it should and does look like and what it should and does value Consequently Avant Garde Pieties makes way for a radical poetics defined not by formal gestures but by its debate with itself about itself It is a debate that honors the tradition s intellectual founding as well as its cultural present which includes aesthetic multiformity racialized and gendered modes of authorship experiences of the sacred political activism and generosity in critical disagreement

The Routledge Companion to Literature and Economics Matt Seybold,Michelle Chihara,2018-09-17 The study of literature and economics is by no means a new one but since the financial crash of 2008 the field has grown considerably with a broad range of both fiction and criticism The Routledge Companion to Literature and Economics is the first authoritative guide tying together the seemingly disparate areas of literature and economics Drawing together 38 critics the Companion offers both an introduction and a springboard to this sometimes complex but highly relevant field With sections on Critical traditions Histories Principles and Contemporary culture the book looks at examples from Medieval and Renaissance literature through to poetry of the Great Depression and novels depicting the 2008 financial crisis Covering topics from Austen to austerity Marxism to modernism the collated essays offer indispensable analysis of the relationship between literary studies and the economy Representing a wide spectrum of approaches this book introduces the basics of economics while engaging with essential theory and debate As the reality of economic hardship and disparity is widely acknowledged and spreads across disciplines this Companion offers students and scholars a chance to enter this crucially important interdisciplinary area

Globalizing the Avant-Garde David Ayers,Joana Cunha Leal,Benedikt Hjartarson,Margarida Brito Alves,2024-12-16 How has the process of globalization shaped artistic practices on the one hand and art history and theory on the other The contributions in this volume approach this question from a range of perspectives taking into account the role of travel for example or practitioners increasing knowledge of other cultures art s increasing awareness of itself as existing on a global level literary translation the advance of technology and the ever changing grand narratives of art history As well as reflections on European avant gardes and neo avant gardes the collection features discussions of Japan Latin America Africa Asia and the Pacific As a whole the volume engages with broader current discourses about cultural globalization and features input from leading scholars around the world as well as some important novel interventions by early career researchers The authors not only make a major contribution to the evolution of avant garde studies but also offer valuable original points of view to art history and to the cultural theory of globalization more broadly
