What Is Art Bloomsbury Revelations:

State of the Arts Jonas Tinius, 2023-08-02 This is a bold and wide ranging account of the unique German public theatre system through the prism of a migrant artistic institution in the western post industrial Ruhr region State of the Arts analyses how artistic traditions have responded to social change racism and cosmopolitan anxieties and recounts how critical contemporary cultural production positions itself in relation to the tumultuous history of German state patronage difficult heritage and self cultivation through the arts Jonas Tinius fieldwork with professional actors directors cultural policy makers and activists unravels how they constitute theatre as a site for extra ordinary ethical conduct and how they grapple with the pervasive German cultural tradition of Bildung or self cultivation through the arts Tinius shows how anthropological methods provide a way to understand the entanglement of cultural policy institution building and subject formation An ambitious and interdisciplinary study the work demonstrates the crucial role of artistic intellectuals in society Playbuilding as

Arts-Based Research Joe Norris, Kevin Hobbs, Mirror Theatre, 2024-04-29 The new edition of Playbuilding as Arts Based Research details how playbuilding creating an original performative work with a group as a methodology has developed in qualitative research over the last 15 years The second edition substantially updates the award winning first edition by making connections to current research theories providing complete scripts with URL links to videos and including a new section with interviews with colleagues Chapter 1 provides an in depth discussion of the epistemological ontological axiological aesthetic and pedagogic stances that playbuilding takes applying them to research in general The value of a playful trusting atmosphere choices of style casting set and location in representing the data and pedagogical theories that guide participatory theatre are highlighted Chapter 2 discusses how Mirror Theatre generates data structures dramatic scenes and conducts live and virtual participatory workshops Chapter 3 is a thematized account of interviews with 23 colleagues who employ variations of playbuilding that show how playbuilding can be applied in a wide range of contemporary contexts and disciplines Chapters 4 through 9 describe six projects that address topics of drinking choices and mental health issues on campus person centred care homelessness the transition to university and co op placements They include both a theme and a style analyses and workshop ideas Chapter 10 new to this edition concludes with quantitative and qualitative data from audiences attesting to the efficacy of this approach This is a fascinating resource for qualitative researchers applied theatre practitioners drama teachers and those interested in social justice who will appreciate how the book adeptly blends theory and practice providing exemplars for their own projects What is Art? graf Leo Tolstoy, 2020 Leo Tolstoy is one of the most celebrated novelists of all time As well as writing literary classics such as Anna Karenina and War and Peace he was also the author of some hugely influential critical and philosophical works First published in 1898 his book length essay What is Art has lost none of its power to challenge our perception of art and its function in society today In this provocative work Tolstoy famously dismisses works by Shakespeare Dante Wagner and even many of his own works as bad art based on various criteria including sincerity ethics morality and accessibility Tolstoy took art seriously at a time when western civilization toyed with it as a mere pastime during the height of the Aestheticism movement For him art was natural and necessary to the advancement of humankind In his introduction to this translation W Gareth Jones shows how vitally Tolstoy s personality and experiences in life were engaged in creating What is Art Jones shows how integral the essay was to his art and teaching and why it continues to demand a response from us Arts Methods for the Self-Representation of Undergraduate Students Miranda Matthews,2023-04-07 This timely book explores the transitional experiences of undergraduates in minority groups studying at university and how arts methods and practices can play an important role in facilitating these transitions Based on research from UK universities this volume is the first to draw together the experiences of educators in the humanities and social sciences who integrate sensory methodologies in taught curriculum in relation to arts educators who add extra curricular arts practice It offers an original contextualised analysis of how to enable university structures to adapt to complexity difference and diversity taking the view that arts practice forms meeting points for confident interconnection and spaces of self representation It outlines the novel concept of sensory transition in how arts practices can be used to address issues of inclusion diversity and self representation for minority groups Each chapter offers an in depth analysis of significant issues such as dimensions of race gender and class and the specificities of social and cultural group experiences as they occur in arts practice The book reflects on the decolonisation of university structures and curriculum and demonstrates how universities can support students and build spaces for self representation in academic courses Accessible and investigative this book is essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students in the field of higher education inclusion and arts methods It will also be of great interest to higher education staff interested in decolonisation diversity and university futures Storytelling in Participatory Arts with Young People Catherine Heinemeyer,2020-06-30 This book draws on the author s experience as a storyteller drama practitioner and researcher to articulate an emerging dialogic approach to storytelling in participatory arts educational mental health youth theatre and youth work contexts It argues that oral storytelling offers a rich and much needed channel for intergenerational dialogue with young people The book keeps theory firmly tethered to practice Section 1 Storyknowing traces the history of oral storytelling practice with adolescents across diverse contexts and brings into clear focus the particular nature of the storytelling exchange and narrative knowledge Section 2 Telling Stories introduces readers to some of the key challenges and possibilities of dialogic storytelling by reflecting on stories from the author s own arts based practice research with adolescents illustrating these with young people s artistic responses to stories Finally section 3 Story Gaps conceptualises dialogic storytelling by exploring three different gaps the gap between storyteller and listener the gaps in the story and the gaps which storytellers can open up within institutions The book includes chapters taking a special focus on storytelling in schools and in mental health settings as well as guided reflections for readers to relate the issues raised to their own practice

Understanding Interaction Bert Bongers, 2021-12-22 Understanding Interaction explores the interaction between people and technology in the broader context of the relations between the human made and the natural environments It is not just about digital technologies our computers smartphones the Internet but all our technologies such as mechanical electrical and electronic Our ancestors started creating mechanical tools and shaping their environments millions of years ago developing cultures and languages which in turn influenced our evolution Volume 1 looks into this deep history starting from the tool creating period the longest and most influential on our physical and mental capacities to the settlement period agriculture domestication villages and cities written language the industrial period science engineering reformation and renaissance and finally the communication period mass media digital technologies and global networks Volume 2 looks into humans in interaction our physiology anatomy neurology psychology how we experience and influence the world and how we think we think From this transdisciplinary understanding design approaches and frameworks are presented to potentially guide future developments and innovations The aim of the book is to be a guide and inspiration for designers artists engineers psychologists media producers social scientists etc and as such be useful for both novices and more experienced practitioners Image Credit Still of interactive video pattern created with a range of motion sensors in the Facets kaleidoscopic algorithm based underwater footage of seaweed movement by the author on 4 February 2010 for a lecture at Hyperbody at the Faculty of Architecture TU Delft NL

Photography Performing Humor Liesbeth Decan, Mieke Bleyen, 2019-03-11 New perspectives on humor within photography Despite the ubiquitous presence of photographic humor in art and popular media the phenomenon has as yet received very little scholarly attention Focusing on staged humor rather than on comic effects of snapshot photography this volume brings together leading scholars in the field addressing humor performed in front of the camera often specifically created for the camera and the performative joke work done by the medium itself A first section explores how photography due to its shattering qualities turns into a privileged medium for eliciting humorous effects and how humor can be discerned within the photographic event A second section discusses the toolbox of photographic trickery photomontage double exposure and cinematic movement that allows photography to mock itself The book closes with a section on photographic wit in conceptual art both in canonized and more locally distinct practices With artists pages from Paulien Oltheten Lieven Segers and David Helbich
