Voices From The Underground For The Love Of Animals:

Voices from the Underground Michael Tobias, 1999 Documents the human abuse exploitation and cruelty towards animals and profiles people who have worked on behalf of animal welfare including Gene and Lorri Bauston of Farm Animal Sanctuary Ingrid Newkirk and Alex Pacheco founders of PETA Christine Stevens and her Animal Welfare Institute and Rod Coronado jailed for his animal liberation activities Minding Animals Marc Bekoff, 2002-05-02 Thinking bees ice skating buffaloes dreaming rats happy foxes ecstatic elephants despondent dolphins in Minding Animals Marc Bekoff takes us on an exhilarating tour of the emotional and mental world of animals where we meet creatures who do amazing things and whose lives are filled with mysteries Following in the footsteps of Konrad Lorenz and Niko Tinbergen Bekoff has spent the last 30 years studying animals of every stripe from coyotes in Wyoming to penguins in Antarctica He draws on this vast experience as well as on the observations of other naturalists to offer readers fascinating stories of animal behavior including grooming and gossip self medication feeding patterns dreaming dominance and mating behavior Many of these stories are truly incredible chimpanzees medicating themselves with herbal remedies elephants clearly mourning a dead group member but this is not simply a catalog of amazing animal tales for Bekoff also sheds light on many of the more serious issues surrounding animals He offers a thought provoking look at animal cognition intelligence and consciousness and he presents vivid examples of animal passions highlighting the deep emotional lives of our animal kin All this serves as background for his thoughtful conclusions about humility and animal protection and animal well being where he urges a new paradigm of respect grace compassion and love for all animals Marc Bekoff has gone deep into the minds hearts spirits and souls of animals giving him profound insight into their lives and no small insight into ours Minding Animals is an important contribution to our understanding of animal consciousness a major work that will be a must read for anyone who loves nature

Animals and Ethics - Third Edition Angus Taylor, 2009-05-27 Can animals be regarded as part of the moral community To what extent if at all do they have moral rights Are we wrong to eat them hunt them or use them for scientific research Can animal liberation be squared with the environmental movement Taylor traces the background of these debates from Aristotle to Darwin and sets out the views of numerous contemporary philosophers including Peter Singer Tom Regan Mary Anne Warren J Baird Callicott and Martha Nussbaum with ethical theories ranging from utilitarianism to eco feminism The new edition also includes provocative quotations from some of the major writers in the field As the final chapter insists animal ethics is more than just an academic question it is intimately connected both to our understanding of what it means to be human and to pressing current issues such as food shortages environmental degradation and climate change Brutal Brian Luke, 2007 Explores the gender divide over our treatment of animals exposing the central role of masculinity in systems of animal exploitation including hunting Luke develops a new theory of how exploitative institutions do not work to promote human flourishing but instead merely act as support for a particular construction of manhood from publisher description

People Promoting and People Opposing Animal Rights John M. Kistler, 2002-11-30 What is the difference between animal rights and animal welfare What inspires people to take on the different causes of non human animals How do people vary in their views on the rights of animals Students will be encouraged to think critically as they discover there are no black and white answers to these and other questions This fascinating collection of profiles is written by and about those who are actively involved in the pro con aspects of the animal rights and animal welfare movements Over 35 individual stories written by those who are on the frontlines fighting for what they believe bring the controversies surrounding animal rights and welfare into sharp focus The same interview questions were asked of each participant Readers will enjoy the personal element of these profiles while discovering the similarities and differences among those involved in these movements An introduction to the volume provides students with the definitions and background information they need to clearly understand the entries that follow and to encourage them to question what they read and to draw their own conclusions

Animals Matter Marc Bekoff, 2007-11-13 Nonhuman animals have many of the same feelings we do They get hurt they suffer they are happy and they take care of each other Marc Bekoff a renowned biologist specializing in animal minds and emotions guides readers from high school age up including older adults who want a basic introduction to the topic in looking at scientific research philosophical ideas and humane values that argue for the ethical and compassionate treatment of animals Citing the latest scientific studies and tackling controversies with conviction he zeroes in on the important questions inviting reader participation with thought experiments and ideas for action Among the questions considered Are some species more valuable or more important than others Do some animals feel pain and suffering and not others Do animals feel emotions Should endangered animals be reintroduced to places where they originally lived Should animals be kept in captivity Are there alternatives to using animals for food clothing cosmetic testing and dissection in the science classroom What can we learn by imagining what it feels like to be a dog or a cat or a mouse or an ant What can we do to make a difference in animals quality of life Bekoff urges us not only to understand and protect animals especially those whose help we want for our research and other human needs but to love and respect them as our fellow beings on this planet that we all want to share in peace

Animal Rights John M. Kistler, 2000-06-30 Introductions to each chapter explain the issues as well as the arguments that surround them and a general introduction to the volume thoroughly explains how to use the book Each entry contains the following information author title edition series title location of publisher name of publisher number of pages year of publication and International Standard Book Number Annotations include the most important information available to help the researcher including web sites that contain not only the full text of the book when available but also excerpts and articles or interviews by the author short quotations from the books and short descriptions and summaries of the books All the information provided allows students to locate exactly what they need while encouraging them to explore other issues and differing viewpoints

Animals and Ethics Angus Taylor, 2003-05-12 A previous edition of this book

appeared under the title Magpies Monkeys and Morals The new edition has been updated throughout Substantial new material has been added to the text including discussions of virtue ethics and Rawlsian contractarianism The bibliography has been significantly enlarged and now includes more than five hundred entries
