

WITCHILD

Would you like another cup of tea, dear?
Oh... no, no, no, I'd better go actually; I'm going to the lake for the fishes.

I'll take you down to that bright city side
There to ponder your sweet face and point to a smile that will show all of the pleasures and none of the pain, when you join my exploration and play with my games.
Witchild dances the days and
dances the nights away.
Witchild dances the days and
dances the nights away.

In unconditional surrender, no armistice day, Each night I'll die in my contentment and be in your arms while you bring me water and I give you wine.
Let me dance in your doorway and you shall enter in mine.
Witchild dances the days and
dances the nights away.

Open your windows and I'll walk through your doors.
Let me live in your country. Let me sleep by your shores. Sweet.
Witchild dances the days and
dances the nights away.
Witchild dances the days and
dances the nights away.

QUEEN AND COUNTRY

The wind is on the river and the tide has turned too late.
So we're waiting for another shore where some other ladies wait to share an illness whippers, catch us by the mother shames.
But we all laugh so politely and we tell us, just the same.
For Queen and Country, in the long dying day.
And it's been this way for five long years, since we signed our sails away.

We bring back gold and heavy rings of diamonds, winking at pearls.

Flake presents to the government as they can have their needed whilst with Queen and Country in the long dying day.
And it's been this way for five
long years, since we signed our
sails away.

For Queen and Country, in the
long dying day.
And it's been this way for five
long years, since we signed our
sails away.

They hold nations and they build battleships, with the spells of battles won.
And we women take pretty cotton boys, hold our heads up to the gun.
For Queen and Country, in the
long dying day.
And it's been this way for five
long years, since we signed our
sails away
in Queen and Country in the long dying day.
And it's been this way for five
long years, since we signed our sails away.

LADIES

Ladies of letters, with their eyes on the back roads, All looking for strangers, to whom they entered welcome with a smile and a glimpse of pink knees and elbows, of smiles and velvet. Good ladies! good ladies.
Ladies.

BACK-DOOR BRIGADE

In and out of the front door ran twelve back-door apples.
Their hole was a golden brown, they didn't see me with my eye.
The cold they put me was to sleep with just a whisper and touch the handle of dying days and make them longer.
They carry their candles high and they light the dark hours.
And every all the country dances with present and absent withholders.

They grow all their roses red and point our shoes blue; drop one penny in every second hand, make half the buyers lose.

SEALION

Over the mountain and under the sky,
riding fifty grey horses, go you and I.
Flaming with shame, expelling with wrath
the coal-mined pyromaniacs, for what it's worth.

The two-ounce needles are rehabilitated.
The super-superheroes are no parade.
There's a golden handshake hanging round your neck as you light your cigarette on the burning deck.
And you believe your world is the tip of your nose
like a foot line with a ball, at the carnival.

The water is shiny blue and a fancy hat
the shining Raincoat Teacher lets it go at that.
The back cover is slightly at the Teacher's gun with your shoulders smiling in the second-day sun.

You flip and you flip under the big white top where the long-legged stop-minutes starts and stops.
But you know, after all, the art in wanting this on the crowd goes sunny and the lines begin.
But you believe your world is the tip of your nose
you're a line line with a ball at the carnival.

Just a trace of pride upon our head prices for there is no business like the show we're in.
There is no reason, no rhyme, no right to know the show is all we've said good-night.
The same performance, in the same old ways.
It's the same old story in this Fanning Flap.
So we'll show the moon and hope to sell the town and make no presentation of this big bottom.
Each here we believe the world is the tip of our nose,
like a foot line with a ball at
the carnival.

They sing of their heroes, of military soldiers invited to good health and summer meat charming.
Whose heroes are numbered innumerable will intercede by hours in a minute, by these ladies who bless them.
Ladies.

Why do the faithful have such a will to believe in something?
And tell it the same they dream, having chosen nothing.

Think I'll sit down and forget some hell, some Grand Court justice.
And next time the die is cast, he'll throw a six or two.
In and out of the back-door ran twelve back-door apples.
The hole was a golden brown, the cold and I think the wicked hat eye.
