What Johnny Shouldnt Read:

What Johnny Shouldn't Read Joan DelFattore,1992-01-01 Offers a behind the scenes view of the ways in which special interest groups influence the content of textbooks used in public and private schools throughout America This book describes six cases resulting from attempts to suppress information on evolution gun control and pacifism Cultural Politics and Education

Michael W. Apple,1996-06-15 Michael Apple offers a powerful analysis of current debates and a compelling indictment of rightist proposals for change Apple presents the causes and effects of further integrating schools into the corporate agenda as well as current calls for a national curriculum and national testing privatization and voucher plans and fundamentalist religious pressures to censor textbooks He demonstrates who will be the winners and losers culturally and economically as the conservative restoration gains in strength bringing with it an even greater restratification of knowledge and students in terms of race class and gender Censorship and the School Library Media Center

Nancy Kravitz,2002-10-17 Explores the issues surrounding intellectual freedom and censorship as they apply to the school media center discussing how librarians can follow proper protocols without denying students access to important information

Snook,1999-07-16 In this expose of institutional abuse Irwin Hyman and Pamela Snook uncover officially authorized violence that far exceeds the number of offenses committed by students These little researched frequently ignored practices the authors passionately argue are an insidious danger to students mental health and undermine and distort their understanding and belief in constitutional rights Parents will learn how to distinguish between normal rules for safety and a violation of students rights The authors provide parents with a checklist including how to document abuse determine responsibility file charges instigate litigation generate publicity when necessary and step by step strategies for dealing with educational and legal issues including a broad agenda for legislative and public advocacy Jacket Schools and Society Jeanne H. Ballantine,Joan Z. Spade,2008 Presents the most recent theories research terms concepts ideas and histories on educational leadership and school administration as taught in preparation programs and practiced in schools and colleges today Challenging Perspectives Deborah H.

Holdstein,2005 A mainstream thematic reader for first year composition courses this compilation is distinctive from other major readers in that it places a significant emphasis on the role of ethical perspectives in examining themes in non fiction and literary works Challenging Perspectives encourages students to grapple with their own views of the world as they are challenged by moral and ethical issues suggested by or directly discussed in a particular selection Comprised of over 80 non fiction essays short stories poems and images the reader s numerous argumentative and persuasive pieces make it a rigorous and substantial anthology ideally suited to composition courses centering on argumentative writing Through the Eyes of a Child Donna E. Norton,Sandra E. Norton,Amy A. McClure,2003 In its seventh edition Through the Eyes of a Child An Introduction to Children's Literature continues to be a visually stunning theoretically sound comprehensive overview of children's literature. It focuses squarely on selecting and evaluating quality literature to share with children and guiding them to appreciate and respond to that literature. This edition features multicultural literature and young adult literature in every chapter, expanded coverage of biographies and informational books, and over 100 new children's titles referenced throughout. A children's literature CD-ROM accompanies the book and contains bibliographic information for thousands of titles, making it even easier to share quality literature with children and adolescents.

Readings, 1992 Academe American Association of University Professors, 1993 School Library Journal's Best Lillian N. Gerhardt, Marilyn Lea Miller, Thomas W. Downen, 1997 A selection of articles published in School Library Journal magazine between 1954 and 1995 discussing a variety of issues of importance to children's, young adult, and school librarians. I Won't Read and You Can't Make Me Marilyn Reynolds, 2004 Marilyn Reynolds has brought many disaffected, school-hostile and wholly unmotivated students into the ranks of lifelong readers. In this concise practical book, she shares techniques she has used and personal anecdotes that reveal much about reluctant readers and teachers who struggle daily to engage them. Among many other key topics, Reynolds discusses the importance of respect for students' attitudes, experiences, perceptions, and choices regarding reading; tips for motivating reluctant readers; classroom management issues; student-teacher program accountability. In addition to insightful analysis, Reynolds devotes a good portion of her book to practical, immediately usable resources, including answers to frequently asked questions, prompts for teaching, and a separate section of Tricks of the Trade with logs. Forms an extensive list of hit books and much more. Read Reynolds and offer your reluctant readers the gift of a reading habit. Focus on Law Studies, 1990 Black, White, and Huckleberry Finn Elaine Menesh, Harry Menesh, 2000 Black White and Huckleberry Finn shows that the argument over black-white relations in the novel is also an argument over nonfictional ones over black images in white minds, conflicting perceptions of racial harmony, and differing interpretations of the American dream.
