Understanding Muslim Chaplaincy Ashgate Ahrcesrc Religion And Society:

Understanding Muslim Chaplaincy Sophie Gilliat-Ray, Mansur Ali, 2016-02-24 Understanding Muslim Chaplaincy provides a lens through which to explore critical questions relating to contemporary religion in public life and the institutionalisation of Islam in particular Providing a rich description of the personnel practice and politics of contemporary Muslim chaplaincy the authors consider the extent to which Muslim chaplaincy might be distinctive in Britain relative to the work of Muslim chaplains in the USA and other countries This book will make a major contribution to international debate about the place of religion in public life and institutions This book derives from research that has depended on exclusive access to a wide range of public institutions and personnel who largely work behind closed doors By making public the work of these chaplains and critically examining the impact of their work within and beyond their institutions this book offers a groundbreaking study in the field of contemporary religion that will stimulate discussion for many years to come about Islam and Muslims in Western societies

Discourses on Religious Diversity Martin D. Stringer, 2016-05-23 Religious diversity is an ever present and increasingly visible reality in cities across the world It is an issue of immediate concern to city leaders and members of religious communities but do we really know what ordinary members of the public the people who live in the city really think about it Major news items inter religious violence and notorious public events often lead to negative views being expressed especially among those who would not consider themselves to have a religious identity of their own Martin Stringer explores the highly complex series of discourses around religion and religious diversity that are held by ordinary members of the city discourses that are often contradictory in themselves and discourses that show that attitudes to religion vary considerably depending on context and wider local or national narratives Drawing on examples from UK particularly Birmingham one of the UK's most diverse cities Europe and the United States Stringer offers some practical suggestions for ways in which discourses of religious diversity can be managed in the future Students in the fields of religious studies sociology anthropology and urban studies practitioners involved in inter religious debates and church and other faith leaders and politicians should all find this book an invaluable addition to ongoing debates

Social Identities Between the Sacred and the Secular Abby Day, Giselle Vincett, Christopher R. Cotter, 2016-04-01 Focusing on the important relationship between the sacred and the secular this book demonstrates that it is not paradoxical to think in terms of both secular and sacred or neither in different times and places International experts from a range of disciplinary perspectives draw on local national and international contexts to provide a fresh analytical approach to understanding these two contested poles Exploring such phenomena at an individual institutional or theoretical level each chapter contributes to the central message of the book that the in between is real embodied and experienced every day and informs and is informed by intersecting social identities Social Identities between the Sacred and the Secular provides an essential resource for continued research into these concepts challenging us to re think where the boundaries of sacred and secular lie and what may lie between

Contesting

Secularism Anders Berg-Sørensen, 2016-05-13 As we enter the twenty first century the role of religion within civic society has become an issue of central concern across the world The complex trends of secularism multiculturalism and the rise of religiously motivated violence raise fundamental questions about the relationship between political institutions civic culture and religious groups Contesting Secularism represents a major intervention into this debate Drawing together contributions from leading scholars from across the world it analyses how secularism functions as a political doctrine in different national contexts put under pressure by globalisation In doing so it presents different models for the relationship between political institutions and religious groups challenging the reader to be more aware of assumptions within their own cultural context and raises alternative possibilities for the structure of democratic multi faith societies Through its inter disciplinary and comparative approach Contesting Secularism sets a new agenda for thinking about the place of religion in the public sphere of twenty first century societies It is essential reading for policymakers as well as for scholars and students in political science law sociology and religious studies

The Changing Soul of Europe Helena Vilaça, Enzo Pace, Inger Furseth, Per Pettersson, 2016-03-23 This book paves the way for a more enlarged discussion on religion and migration phenomena in countries of Northern and Southern Europe From a comparative perspective these are regions with very different religious traditions and different historical State Church relations Although official religion persisted longer in Nordic Protestant countries than in South Mediterranean countries levels of secularization are higher In the last decades both Northern and Southern Europe have received strong flows of newcomers From this perspective the book presents through various theoretical lenses and empirical researches the impact mobility and consequent religious transnationalism have on multiple aspects of culture and social life in societies where the religious landscapes are increasingly diverse The chapters demonstrate that we are dealing with complex scenarios different contexts of reception different countries of origin various ethnicities and religious traditions Catholics Orthodox and Evangelical Christians Muslims Buddhists Having become plural spaces our societies tend to be far more concerned with the issue of social integration rather than with that of social identities reconstruction in society as a whole often ignoring that today religion manifests itself as a plurality of religions In short what are the implications of newcomers for the religious life of Europe and for the redesign of its soul

Religions as Brands Jean-Claude Usunier, Jörg Stolz, 2016-04-01 During the twentieth century religion has gone on the market place Churches and religious groups are forced to sell god in order to be attractive to religious consumers More and more religions are seen as brands that have to be recognizable to their members and the general public What does this do to religion How do religious groups and believers react What is the consequence for society as a whole This book brings together some of the best international specialists from marketing sociology and economics in order to answer these and similar questions The interdisciplinary book treats new developments in three fields that have hitherto evolved rather independently the commoditization of religion the link between religion and consumer behavior and the economics of religion By combining and cross fertilizing these three fields the book shows just what happens when religions become brands

Ageing, Ritual and Social Change Daniela Koleva, 2016-04-01 Exploring European changes in religious and secular beliefs and practices related to life passages this book provides a deeper understanding of the impacts of social change on personal identity and adjustment across the life course According to latest research Europeans who consider religious services appropriate to mark life passages significantly outnumber those who declare themselves as believers Drawing on fascinating oral histories of older people's memories in both Eastern and Western Europe this book presents illuminating views on people's quests for existential meaning in later life Ageing Ritual and Social Change presents an invaluable resource for all those exploring issues of ageing including those looking from perspectives of sociology and psychology of religion social and oral history and East Central European studies

A Handbook of Chaplaincy Studies Revd Canon Dr Andrew Todd, Revd Dr Christopher Swift, Revd Dr Mark Cobb, 2015-09-28 A Handbook of Chaplaincy Studies explores fundamental issues and critical questions in chaplaincy spanning key areas of health care the prison service education and military chaplaincy Leading authors and practitioners in the field present critical insight into the challenges and opportunities facing those providing professional spiritual care From young men and women in the military and in custody to the bedside of those experiencing life's greatest traumas this critical examination of the role played by the chaplain offers a fresh and informed understanding about faith and diversity in an increasingly secular society An invaluable compendium of case studies academic reflection and critical enquiry this handbook offers a fresh understanding of traditional contemporary and innovative forms of spiritual practice as they are witnessed in the public sphere Providing a wide ranging appraisal of chaplaincy in an era of religious complexity and emergent spiritualities this pioneering book is a major contribution to a relatively underdeveloped field and sets out how the phenomenon of chaplaincy can be better understood and its practice more robust and informed

Mantle of Mercy Muhammad A. Ali, Omer Bajwa, Sondos Kholaki, Jaye Starr, 2022-02-28 This engaging collection presents thirty essays by Muslim chaplains reflecting on their experiences as spiritual caregivers Through their first hand accounts they impart how they skillfully apply the mercy and compassion of the Prophet Muhammad to the people in their care They also share how their faith informs their service how they navigate the obstacles of a predominantly Christian profession and how they administer to the spiritual needs of people of different faiths or of no faith at all Working in a variety of settings including hospitals prisons universities and the armed forces Muslim chaplains encounter unique challenges on a daily basis requiring them to call upon the resources of their Islamic faith with wisdom and tenderness The contributors to this volume explore these circumstances vividly and honestly Their personal stories are instructive of how Islamic principles can be employed with spiritual insight to bring strength and comfort to the sick and suffering

A Sociology of Prayer Professor Giuseppe Giordan, Professor Linda Woodhead, 2015-07-28 Prayer is a central aspect of religion Even amongst those who have abandoned organized religion levels of prayer remain high Yet the most basic questions remain unaddressed What exactly is prayer How does it vary Why do people pray and in what situations and settings Does prayer imply a god and if so what sort A Sociology of Prayer addresses these fundamental questions and opens up important new debates Drawing from religion sociology of religion anthropology and historical perspectives the contributors focus on prayer as a social as well as a personal matter and situate prayer in the conditions of complex late modern societies worldwide Presenting fresh empirical data in relation to original theorising the volume also examines the material aspects of prayer including the objects bodies symbols and spaces with which it may be integrally connected Muslim Chaplaincy Mahshid Turner, 2024-09-30 The Global Muslim Community at a Crossroads Abdul Basit Ph.D., 2012-01-16 Tackling a subject that is as timely as it is complex this expert work examines the turmoil inside Muslim communities helping outsiders to understand and insiders to examine ways in which Islam can be reinterpreted for a modern world The Global Muslim Community at a Crossroads Understanding Religious Beliefs Practices and Infighting to End the Conflict is an illuminating work Written by an eminent psychologist who was raised as a Muslim in India and now resides in the United States it examines the core reasons for the current state of affairs in Muslim communities explaining the psychological underpinnings of Muslim religion and practices and the reasons they can fuel violence Drawing on the editor's exposure to Eastern and Western cultures and his longstanding interest in the study of comparative world religions this impartial analysis takes a multidimensional approach to explaining the current plight of Muslim countries It candidly discusses issues such as the influence of Islamic schools the negative and positive roles of Ulema religious scholars a lack of critical inquiry into religious thought Sharia and the status of women in Islam Finally there are positive suggestions about a road to recovery explaining how Muslim communities can address the interlocking problems they face while retaining the positive aspects of their beliefs Counseling American Muslims Ahmed Kobeisy, 2004-04-30 Within two months of the terrorists destruction of the Twin Towers 1 400 hate crimes against Muslims ranging from assaults to murder and bomb threats had been reported across this country Although it is the fastest growing religion in the world and some believe it will become the United States second largest religious group by 2010 the Muslim community is little understood in this country Author Kobeisy explains the range of true Muslim faith shows us how unfair discrimination threatens and scars the mental health of American Muslims and also demonstrates what counselors teachers social workers and other helping professionals can do to understand the faith as well as help these people recover to live strong in the face of prejudice Includes a quiz and true and false self test on knowledge of Muslims and Islam and sections on how depiction of Muslims in the media colors mass perceptions Includes vignettes of Muslims in counseling and a glossary of Muslim and Islam terms This work will appeal to counselors mental health and social workers family therapists sociologist anthropologists teachers school counselors psychologists and school psychologists The Global Muslim Community at a Crossroads Abdul Basit Ph.D., 2012-01-16 Tackling a subject that is as timely as it is complex this expert work examines the turmoil inside Muslim communities helping outsiders to understand and insiders to examine ways in which Islam can be reinterpreted for a modern world The Global Muslim Community at a Crossroads Understanding Religious Beliefs Practices and Infighting to End the Conflict is an illuminating work Written by an eminent psychologist who was raised as a Muslim in India and now resides in the United States it examines the core reasons for the current state of affairs in Muslim communities explaining the psychological underpinnings of Muslim religion and practices and the reasons they can fuel violence Drawing on the editor s exposure to Eastern and Western cultures and his longstanding interest in the study of comparative world religions this impartial analysis takes a multidimensional approach to explaining the current plight of Muslim countries It candidly discusses issues such as the influence of Islamic schools the negative and positive roles of Ulema religious scholars a lack of critical inquiry into religious thought Sharia and the status of women in Islam Finally there are positive suggestions about a road to recovery explaining how Muslim communities can address the interlocking problems they face while retaining the positive aspects of their beliefs

Chaplaincy and Spiritual Care in Mental Health

Settings Jean Fletcher,2019-08-21 This edited collection about good practice for mental health chaplains and other related professionals looks at how spirituality is viewed across mental health fields It identifies what mental health chaplaincy is how mental health chaplaincy interacts with other organisations like the NHS and what good practice means with examples of positive and fulfilling experiences in mental health settings The chapters consider some of the main issues of working with the mental health community such as the place of volunteers the recovery process religious diversity and patient safety They are followed by uplifting case studies including service user perspectives to provide a valuable overall insight into mental health chaplaincy and its context in wider mental health services

A Ministry of Presence Winnifred Fallers

Sullivan,2014-08-20 Is it appropriate or even legal for government to provide spiritual care for its citizens Winnifred Fallers Sullivan shows that courts and administrative agencies have for better or for worse already decided this question Religious freedom in American today means government affirmatively providing opportunities for Americans to encounter their religious selves and realize their religious commitments How did this happen The answer Sullivan shows is an emerging religious practice the ministry offered by chaplains in secular settings generally called a ministry of presence In this eye opening book Sullivan details the legal recognition and regulation of the spiritual care delivered by governmental and quasi governmental chaplaincies as well as by chaplaincies within ostensibly private but regulated industries such as hospitals and colleges Across America today there are chaplains in airports fire departments prisons hospitals the military unions and even businesses and workplaces Chaplains operate at the intersection of the sacred and the secular brokers responsible for ministering to the wandering souls of a globalized economy while sacralizing institutions we generally consider unmarked by any religious identity A book with profound implications for how we understand the relationship between religion and law in contemporary America A Ministry of Presence will interest readers in legal studies religious studies sociology and public policy

Musings of a Muslim Chaplain Sondos Kholaki Kahf,2019-12-04 Lean into the discomfort She wanted to gag

She wanted to run out She wanted to make any excuse to leave But she leaned in And when she did she heard him say Thank you for staying with me Do you have to leave soon Please stay as he gripped her hand from his bed restraints This book chronicles the journey of a Muslim hospital chaplain from the beginning of her internship through her appointment as the first Muslim chaplain at a prominent hospital in Southern California As a hospital chaplain Sondos Kholaki Kahf often finds herself at the intersection of joy and grief life and death humor and sorrow community and solitude Through various encounters the author gives us a unique glimpse into the world of clinical pastoral care In one story she recounts a patient whose cancer disabled his speech With only a pad of paper pen and hand gestures the patient struggled to communicate Several minutes in amid much frustration from both ends she finally interpreted what the patient so adamantly wanted her to hear Is God in your life
