Educamus ,1992 Unisa English Studies University of South Africa. Department of English,1992 Racial Segregation and the Origins of Apartheid in South Africa, 1919-36 Saul Dubow,1989-07-03 Based on extensive archival research in South Africa and drawing on the most recent scholarship this book is an original and lucid exposition of the ideological political and administrative origins of Apartheid It will add substantially to the understanding of contemporary South Africa War Letters, 1917-'19, of Professor George Junkin Irwin George Junkin Irwin,1976 Physics Letters ,1995

World Guide to Library, Archive and Information Science Education Axel Schniederjürgen,2008-12-19 This directory lists education institutions world wide where professional education and training programmes in the field of library archive and information science are carried out at a tertiary level of education or higher More than ten years after the publication of the last edition this up to date reference source includes more than 900 universities and other institutions and more than 1 500 relevant programmes Entries provide contact information as well as details such as statistical information tuition fees admission requirements programmes contents South African journal of musicology ,1981 The Letters of William Lloyd Garrison: Let the oppressed go free, 1861-1867 William Lloyd Garrison,1971 Collected letters of newspaper editor reformer and key American abolitionist William Lloyd Garrison from 1822 at age 17 to his death in 1879 These volumes are an important source of historical and biographical documentation with contextual insight by the editors offering extensive insight into the mind of this influential reformer Topics seen within include race relations abolition of slavery the rights of women the role of religion and religious institutions and the relation of the state and its citizens Financial Mail ,1984-10 Argief-Jaarboek vir Suid-Afrikaanse Geskiedenis ,1974 A Commonwealth of Knowledge Saul Dubow,2006-10-19 A Commonwealth of Knowledge addresses the relationship between social and scientific thought colonial identity and political power in nineteenth and twentieth century South Africa It hinges on the tension between colonial knowledge conceived of as a universal modernizing force and its realization in the context of a society divided along complex ethnic and racial fault lines By means of detailed analysis of colonial cultures literary and scientific institutions and expert historical thinking about South Africa and its peoples it demonstrates the ways in which the cultivation of knowledge has served to support white political ascendancy and claims to nationhood In a sustained commentary on modern South African historiography the significance of broad South Africanism a political tradition designed to transcend differences between white English and Afrikaans speakers is emphasized A Commonwealth of Knowledge also engages with wider comparative debates These include the nature of imperial and colonial knowledge systems the role of intellectual ideas and concepts in constituting ethnic racial and regional identities the dissemination of ideas between imperial metropole and colonial periphery the emergence of amateur and professional intellectual communities and the encounter between imperial and indigenous or local knowledge systems The book has broad scope It opens with a discussion of civic institutions eg museums libraries botanical gardens and scientific societies and assesses their role in creating a distinctive sense of Cape colonial identity the book goes on to discuss the ways in which scientific and other forms of knowledge contributed to the development of a capacious South Africanist patriotism compatible with continued membership of the British Commonwealth it concludes with reflections on the techno nationalism of the apartheid state and situates contemporary concerns like the African Renaissance and responses to HIV AIDS in broad historical context Popular Politics in the History of South Africa, 1400-1948 Paul S. Landau, 2010-09-20 Popular Politics in the History of South Africa 1400 1948 offers an inclusive vision of South Africa's past Drawing largely from original sources Paul Landau presents a history of the politics of the country's people from the time of their early settlements in the elevated heartlands through the colonial era to the dawn of Apartheid A practical tradition of mobilization alliance and amalgamation persisted mutated and occasionally vanished from view it survived against the odds in several forms in tribalisms Christian assemblies and other seemingly hybrid movements and it continues today Landau treats southern Africa broadly concentrating increasingly on the southern Highveld and ultimately focusing on a transnational movement called the Samuelites He shows how people's politics in South Africa were suppressed and transformed but never entirely eliminated Papers in the Prehistory of the Western Cape, South Africa John Parkington, Martin Hall, 1987 Collected Seminar Papers, 1992 Fortnightly Digest of South African Affairs, 1976-12-03 South African Digest, 1976 Iowa Publisher and Bulletin of the Iowa Press Association, 1940 Brotherhood of Power J. H. P. Serfontein, 1979 Practicing Social Science Devorah Kalekin-Fishman, 2016-12-01 How is the process of globalization effecting changes in the structure of knowledge in sociology This path breaking volume looks at the human dimension of developments in the discipline by compiling a set of interviews that exemplify the life and work of a sociologist today Their ideas and conceptualizations show to what extent a paradigm shift has taken root answering questions such as whether sociology still remains a differentiated relatively autonomous social science The chosen interviewees are about equally divided according to gender and have been selected from among professional sociologists in different parts of the globe with an emphasis on areas that are under represented in English publications such as East Asia Latin America and Africa Analysis focuses on changes which are becoming clear from the on going confrontation between traditional sociology which emerged as a project of modernity and the sociology practiced by sociologists who are called upon to adapt the discipline to the upheavals of the twenty first century Moody's Industrial Manual, 1994 Covering New York American regional stock exchanges international companies
