Heritage Planning Harold Kalman, 2014-10-30 Heritage Planning Principles and Process provides a comprehensive overview of heritage planning as an area of professional practice The book first addresses the context and principles of heritage planning including land use law planning practice and international heritage doctrine all set within the framework of larger societal issues such as sustainability and ethics The book then takes readers through the pragmatic processes of heritage practice including collecting data identifying community opinion determining heritage significance the best practices and methods of creating a conservation plan and managing change Heritage Planning recognizes changing approaches to heritage conservation particularly the shift from the conservation of physical fabric to the present emphasis on retaining values associations and stories that historic places hold for their communities The transition has affected the practice of heritage planning and is important for those in the field It is essential reading for both professionals that manage change within the built environment and students of heritage conservation and historic preservation

People-Centred Methodologies for Heritage Conservation Rebecca Madgin, James Lesh, 2021-05-17

This book presents methodological approaches that can help explore the ways in which people develop emotional attachments to historic urban places With a focus on the powerful relations that form between people and places this book uses people centred methodologies to examine the ways in which emotional attachments can be accessed researched interpreted and documented as part of heritage scholarship and management It demonstrates how a range of different research methods drawn primarily from disciplines across the arts humanities and social sciences can be used to better understand the cultural values of heritage places In so doing the chapters bring together a series of diverse case studies from both established and early career scholars in Australia China Europe North America and Central America These case studies outline methods that have been successfully employed to consider attachments between people and historic places in different contexts This book advocates a need to shift to a more nuanced understanding of people's relations to historic places by situating emotional attachments at the core of urban heritage thinking and practice It offers a practical guide for both academics and industry professionals towards people centred methodologies for urban heritage conservation

Managing Disaster Risks to Cultural Heritage Bijan Rouhani, Xavier Romão, 2023-11-15 Managing Disaster Risks to Cultural Heritage presents case studies from different regions in the world and establishes a framework for understanding identifying and analysing disaster risks to immovable cultural heritage Featuring contributions from academics and practitioners from around the globe the book presents a comprehensive view of the scholarship relating to cultural heritage disaster risk preparedness and post disaster recovery Particular attention is given to the complex and dynamic nature of disaster risks and how they evolve during different phases of a catastrophic event especially as hazards can create secondary effects that have greater impacts on cultural heritage infrastructure and economy Arguing that risk preparedness and mitigation have historically been secondary to reactive emergency and first aid response the book demonstrates that preparedness plans based on sound risk assessments can prevent hazards from becoming disasters Emphasising that the protection of cultural heritage through preparedness mitigation actions and risk adaptation measures especially for climate change can contribute to the resilience of societies the book highlights the vital role of communities in such activities Managing Disaster Risks to Cultural Heritage will be useful to students professionals and scholars studying and working with cultural heritage protection It will be of particular interest to those working in the fields of Cultural Heritage Archaeology Conservation and Preservation Sustainable Development and Disaster Studies

Place Meaning and Attachment Dak Kopec, AnnaMarie Bliss, 2020-03-10 Revolutions have gripped many countries leading to the destruction of buildings places and artifacts climate change is threatening the ancestral homes of many the increasingly uneven distribution of resources has made the poor vulnerable to the coercive efforts by the rich and social uncertainty has led to the romanticizing of the past Humanity is resilient but we have a fundamental need for attachment to places buildings and objects This edited volume will explore the different meanings and forms of place attachment and meaning based on our histories and conceptualization of material artifacts Each chapter examines a varied relationship between a given society and the meaning formed through myth symbols and ideologies manifested through diverse forms of material artifacts Topics of consideration examine place attachment at many scales including at the level of the artifact human being building urban context and region We need a better understanding of human relationships to the past our attachments to the events and places and to the external influences on our attachments This understanding will allow for better preservation methods pertaining to important places and buildings and enhanced social wellbeing for all groups of people Covering a broad range of international perspectives on place meaning from the United States to Europe Asia to Russia and Africa to Australia this book is an essential read for students academics and professionals alike Managing the Magic of Old Places Jeremy Wells,2025-10-14 From 1849 to the early 1980s the development of US historic preservation policy was shaped by fewer than one hundred elite White men from Europe and America This orthodox preservation doctrine has too long silenced the vibrant experiential relationships between everyday people and their heritage Managing the Magic of Old Places Crafting Public Policies for People Centered Historic Preservation offers a radical rethinking of how historic preservation is approached in the United States Author Jeremy C Wells argues for a revolutionary shift in federal preservation policy one that embraces community based participatory practice and draws from environmental psychology to tap into the intangible emotional connections people have with old places Wells highlights the experiential values that laypeople often ascribe to historic environments which are frequently dismissed by expert driven policies He contends that if historic preservation policy continues to ignore these aspects the field will lose relevance as the gap between professionals and the public widens Drawing from interdisciplinary research in the social sciences particularly phenomenology and environmental psychology Wells s vision of public preservation policy centers the lived experiences of communities reinvigorating the field and ensuring that the preservation of historic places resonates with a wider more inclusive audience Wells positions his work within the growing field of critical heritage studies yet his focus on the psychological and emotional aspects of preservation distinguishes it as a unique contribution By placing the needs and experiences of the public at the heart of preservation efforts Wells critiques the historical foundations of US preservation policy while offering a bold agenda for reform A History of Architecture and Trade Patrick Haughey,2018-01-19 A History of Architecture and Trade draws together essays from an international roster of distinguished and emerging scholars to critically examine the important role architecture and urbanism played in the past five hundred years of global trading moving away from a conventional Western narrative The book uses an alternative holistic lens through which to view the development of architecture and trade covering diverse topics such as the coercive urbanism of the Dutch East India Company how slavery and capitalism shaped architecture and urbanization and the importance of Islamic trading in the history of global trade Each chapter examines a key site in history using architecture landscape and urban scale as evidence to show how trade has shaped them It will appeal to scholars and researchers interested in areas such as world history economic and trade history and architectural history CRM ,2006 Art and Cultural Heritage Barbara T. Hoffman,2006 Art and Cultural Heritage is appropriately but not solely about national and international law respecting cultural heritage It is a bubbling cauldron of law mixed with ethics philosophy politics and working principles looking at how cultural heritage law policy and practice should be sculpted from the past as the present becomes the future Art and cultural heritage are two pillars on which a society builds its identity its values its sense of community and the individual The authors explore these demanding concerns untangle basic values and look critically at the conflicts and contradictions in existing art and cultural heritage law and policy in its diverse sectors The rich and provocative contributions collectively provide a reasoned discussion of the issues from a multiplicity of views to permit the reader to understand the theoretical and philosophical underpinnings of the cultural heritage debate

Ecological Stewardship William T. Sexton,1999 Hoosier National Forest (N.F.), Proposed Land and Resource Management Plan ,2006 Draft Environmental Impact Statement ,2005 The Conservation of Cultural Landscapes Mauro Agnoletti,2006 The conservation and management of cultural landscapes interpreted as the result of the interrelationships among economic social and environmental factors through time and space emerges as essential components in the definition and application of a modern approach to sustainable development Cultural landscapes are the result of management practices and knowledge accumulated in human history and contribute not only to the cultural heritage of the world but also to biodiversity and aesthetic beauty providing also multiple goods and services for the development of rural areas However landscapes are severely endangered not only by some effects of the socioeconomic development but also by inappropriate policies in agriculture forestry and nature conservation This interdisciplinary book presents a range of different methods developed to analyse restore and manage cultural landscapes reporting a number of case studies from Europe and north America but raising some questions about the need for a revision of some past orientations

Relevance and Application of Heritage in Contemporary Society Pei-Lin Yu,Chen Shen,George Smith,2018-07-06 In the contemporary world unprecedented global events are challenging our ability to protect and enhance cultural heritage for future generations Relevance and Application of Heritage in Contemporary Society examines innovative and flexible approaches to cultural heritage protection Bringing together cultural heritage scholars and activists from across the world the volume showcases a spectrum of exciting new approaches to heritage protection community involvement and strategic utilization of expertise The contributions deal with a range of highly topical issues including armed conflict and non state actors as well as broad questions of public heritage museum roles in society heritage tourism disputed ownership and indigenous and local approaches In so doing the volume builds upon and introduces readers to a new cultural heritage declaration codified during a 2016 workshop at the Royal Ontario Museum Canada Offering a clarion call for an enduring spirit of innovation collaboration education and outreach Relevance and Application of Heritage in Contemporary Society will be important reading for scholars students cultural heritage managers and local community stakeholders
