Chase, 2010-12-01. Genesis to Numbers. This volume is the first of three on the Old Testament. It begins with a discussion of the importance of studying the Old Testament and the role of Jesus Christ in the Plan of Salvation and His selection as our Savior in the premortal council in heaven. We read concerning the process of creation, the placing of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden and their fall into mortality. We learn briefly about Cain and Abel followed by brief discussions of all the patriarchs from Adam to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. We follow the story of Joseph in Egypt followed by the migration of Jacob's family to that land for survival. We read of the rise of Moses, the Exodus and the events at Mt. Sinai. Then we study the rebellion of the children of Israel and their wandering in the wilderness for 40 years. The cover features a beautiful image of Abraham's Journey from Ur to Canaan, painted by Jozsef Molnar in 1880. Student Study Guide to The Asian World, 600-1500 Roger Des Forges, John Major, 2005-10. The Christian doctrine of heaven has been a moral source of enormous power in western culture. It has provided an striking account of the ultimate good in life and has for two millennia animated the hope that our lives can be fully meaningful. Recently however the doctrine of heaven has lost much of its grip on the western imagination and has become a vague and largely ignored part of the Christian creed. Not only have our hopes been redefined as a result but our very identity as human beings has been altered In this book Jerry L Walls argues that the doctrine of heaven is ripe for serious reconsideration He contends not only that the orthodox view of heaven can be defended from objections commonly raised against it but also that heaven is a powerful resource for addressing persistent philosophical problems not the least of which concern the ground of morality and the meaning of life Walls shows how heaven is integrally related to central Christian doctrines particularly those concerning salvation and tackles the difficult problem of why faith in Christ is necessary to save us from our sins In addition heaven is shown to illumine thorny problems of personal identity and to be an essential component of a satisfactory theodicy Walls goes on to examine data from near death experiences from the standpoint of some important recent work in epistemology and argues that they offer positive evidence for heaven He concludes that we profoundly need to recover the hope of heaven in order to recover our very humanity
