Worship And The Reality Of God An Evangelical Theology Of Real Presence:

Worship and the Reality of God John Jefferson Davis, 2010-10-07 Professor John Jefferson Davis shows what's really needed for the renewal of worship in our evangelical churches. Moving far beyond the worship wars, Davis provides profound theological analysis and fresh recommendations to help us recognize obstacles to worship and learn to rightly respond to the glory and gracious real presence of God among us in our worship. God's Praise and God's Presence Gabriele G. Braun, 2020-06-19

The main aim of this book is to provide an answer to the question: is there a connection between God's people's praise and God's presence? The central argument is that Scripture in both Testaments testifies to a correlation between human praise and divine presence. This hypothesis has been investigated in the light of contemporary Christian worship culture and the ensuing need for further biblical studies, which represents the background for this investigation. The study achieves the above aim by applying biblical theology as a discipline and canonical and intertextual models as a method.

McMaster Journal of Theology and Ministry: Volume 13, 2011-2012 Hughson T. Ong, 2013-02-08 The McMaster Journal of Theology and Ministry is an electronic and print journal that seeks to provide pastors, educators, and interested lay persons with the fruits of theological, biblical, and professional studies in an accessible form. Published by McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton, Ontario, it continues the heritage of scholarly inquiry and theological dialogue represented by the College's previous print publications: the Theological Bulletin, Theodolite, and the McMaster Journal of Theology. Practicing

Ministry in the Presence of God John Jefferson Davis, 2015-07-13 Practicing Ministry in the Presence of God presents a new paradigm for church ministry, one that is based on fundamental truths of the Christian faith, such as the Trinity, union with Christ, and the already presence of the Holy Spirit in the church. This new paradigm can help busy pastors avoid burnout in the ministry and model Trinitarian New Testament patterns of ministry to their people. Practicing Ministry in the Presence of God reflects the best of recent New Testament scholarship, sensitivity to the contexts of globalized, postmodern cultures dominated by digital media, and practical applications for Christian life, discipleship, worship, and mission. WORSHIP

PRIMER FOR PASTORS AND PLANNERS: WHAT YOU WISH YOU LEARNED IN SCHOOL William D.

Kirkwood, 2023-11-10 There has to be more to leading worship than what I've been doing. That nagging thought drove William Kirkwood to develop this primer on worship for all lead pastors and worship planners who have wondered the same thing. Most pastors come out of seminary with little training in worship yet are ultimately responsible for the worship life of their church. Most worship planners/leaders have musical and leadership skills but little theological background in worship. Kirkwood brings his decades of worship leading experience and education from the Robert E. Webber Institute for Worship Studies into the pages of this timely book. He explores the biblical, historical, theological, and cultural foundations of worship and brings them together with practical guidance on how to create vibrant worship services that facilitate a divine-human interaction. The primer is written for leaders in contemporary free churches, traditional liturgical churches, and charismatic

Pentecostal churches Each chapter includes thoughtful exercises and questions to help in your own church context as well as recommended resources for further study

A Time for Sorrow Donna Petter, Lindsay Wilson, Rhys Bezzant, Emmett Price, 2021-10-05 Six scholars trace the role of lamentation in the Old and New Testaments in A Time for Sorrow Recovering the Practice of Lament in the Life of the Church reflecting on the theological significance of lament affirming the ongoing relevance of lamentation in the life of the church and exploring its biblical roots and application in church practice In a church era dominated by positive thinking and slick upbeat worship even mentioning the word lamentation is apt to cause a dismissive disinterested shrug But Christians still suffer and this suffering is left mute when the church fails to integrate biblical lament in contemporary church practice A Time for Sorrow looks to address this by recovering the biblical practice of bringing our pain before God in an honest and faithful manner In this multiauthor work learn about the role of lamentation in the Old and New Testaments reflect on the theological significance of lament and finish with thoughts on lament and pastoral practice today

There Is a Balm in Gilead Emmett G. Price III, 2022-05-31 This important work is an excerpt from the book A Time for Sorrow Recovering the Practice of Lament in the Life of the Church Hendrickson Publishers 2019 Following the murder of George Floyd in May 2020 many in the United States and around the world are crying out for justice for our African American brothers and sisters Emmett G Price III director of the Institute for the Study of the Black Christian Experience at Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary offers this essay to inspire and challenge Christians around the world to join our hearts and our minds together as one to petition hear praise heal and be with God and with one another It is here in worship that we lament The communal need for lament is inherent to the human condition This chapter aims to challenge the church of the twenty first century to reimagine and reengage in the sacred practice of lament as a spiritual discipline not merely as an individual transactional practice to assuage traumatic moments but as one that displays our intentional love for each other It is our hope that this essay will cause the arc of justice to move at least one degree in the direction of liberty and justice for all

Godly Fear or Ungodly Failure? Michael Kibbe, 2016-05-10 A cursory glance at Hebrews critique of Israel's fear at Sinai in Heb 12 18 29 suggests that the author has misunderstood or manipulated his sources In the Pentateuch the appointment of Moses as Israel's mediator receives explicit approval Exod 19 9 Deut 5 28 while Heb 12 25 labels their request for mediation a refusal to heed the word of God This book argues that Hebrews use of the Sinai narratives resides on a complex trajectory established by four points the Sinai covenant according to Exodus the reenactment of that covenant according to Deuteronomy the call for a NEW covenant according to Jeremiah and the present reality of that covenant established by God and mediated by Jesus Christ The basis for Hebrews critique arises from its insight that while Israel's request established covenant from a distance Jesus demonstrates that true covenant mediation brings two parties into a single space The purpose for Hebrews critique lies in its summons to Zion the mountain on which Jesus sits at the right hand of God as the high priestly mediator of the new covenant
