Worshipping Siva And Buddha The Temple Art Of East Java:

Worshipping Siva and Buddha Ann R. Kinney, Marijke J. Klokke, Lydia Kieven, 2003-01-01 The Temple Art of East Java a study of the temples created in East Java between the tenth and sixteenth centuries fills an important scholarly lacuna The arts of Central Java home of the great Buddhist monument Borobudur and Hindu Prambanan have been given thorough scholarly attention The architectural and sculptural treasures of the East Javanese kingdoms of Kadiri Singasari and Majapahit are little known in comparison yet beautiful and significant in Indonesian history The author presents the major sites of these three historical periods and discusses their architecture and sculpture The many narrative reliefs illustrating sacred and secular literature have been painstakingly identified The reader is thus able to follow their stories and understand where why and how they fit into the visual program planned for each temple and their relation to historical events and the wayang theater These descriptions are augmented by extensive site summaries Superb color photography supports the text throughout and is a major contribution in itself The book contains a wealth of information that is not available all together in any other publication Not only are the descriptions of the monuments valuable but the author identifies numerous sculptures in collections around the world that were once associated with the East Javanese temples discussed The attempted reconstruction of sculptural programs at the sites is extremely important To understand an ancient Javanese stone sculpture knowledge of its original cultural context is required rather than its current location on a stand in some museum Today with the number of fakes appearing on the art market such associations are invaluable for dating and authenticating stone sculpture said to come from unidentified East Javanese sites The Temple Art of East Java is a welcome and significant addition not only to Javanese studies but also to architecture art history comparative religion Buddhist Hindu and Southeast Asian studies generally

The Javanese Travels of Purwalelana Judith E. Bosnak, Frans X. Koot, 2021-06-24 The Javanese nobleman Rad n Mas Arya Candranegara V 1837 85 alias Purwalelana journeyed across his homeland during the rapidly changing times of the nineteenth century He travelled around 5 000 kilometres by horse and carriage between 1860 and 1875 His eye witness account The Travels of Purwalelana gives an inside view of Java at the time part of the Dutch East Indies Candranegara explains habits and traditions of both the Javanese and the Dutch he describes the architecture of cities and temples and he marvels about the beautiful tropical landscape as well as about the latest technological inventions such as steam trains horse drawn trams and gas lanterns This Hakluyt publication illustrated with contemporaneous images presents the rare perspective of an Indonesian traveller living in colonial times The author grew up as a member of a Javanese noble family in the hybrid world of the colonial upper class He received a western style education but also learnt how to follow Javanese traditions and to be a good Muslim In 1858 he was appointed to the high rank of Regent of Kudus by the colonial government Candranegara wrote his book under the pseudonym Purwalelana probably because he considered publishing to be an adventurous undertaking and possibly also because it gave him freedom to arrange the events in his own way The Travels represents the first Javanese travelogue ever written and as such it broke with existing traditions Candranegara used prose instead of poetry wrote from a first person perspective rather than a third person and he described present society rather than dwelling upon the common literary theme of kings in battle The result is a lively story in which the armchair traveller shares his experiences on the road It provides its readers with a range of people and topics pivotal to developments in nineteenth century Java a treasure trove for historians and cultural anthropologists alike The volume includes 24 colour illustrations
