potential WISC-IV Clinical Assessment and Intervention Aurelio Prifitera, Donald H. Saklofske, Lawrence G. Weiss, 2008-06-24 The Wechsler Intelligence Scale for Children Fourth Edition WISC IV is one of the most often used measures to assess intelligence and cognitive functions in children ages 6 to 16 years. The second edition of the WISC IV Clinical Assessment and Intervention will include new information obtained from the clinical use of the WISC IV in practice. Information on the basic use of the assessment tool is condensed from three chapters into one with four new chapters discussing how to use and interpret WISC IV with additional clinical populations. These new populations include pervasive Developmental Disorders including autism, Social and emotional disorders, psychiatric disorders, and medical disorders that may affect intelligence. An additional new chapter discusses intervention planning across patient populations. Each of the chapters revised original chapters and new chapters will additionally include case studies including diagnosis and intervention. Overall, the material in the book is 65% changed, new, and updated. These changes make the second edition better able to meet a clinician's needs in using and interpreting this test. Inclusion of case studies illustrating the clinical applications of the WISC IV in assessment and program planning. Intervention recommendations following from assessment to diagnosis. Introductory chapter illustrating the relationships between the WISC IV index scores and intervention planning. New chapters on Learning Disabilities, emotionally disturbed children, systematic illness, and Autism Spectrum Disorders. Specialized chapters on neuropsychological applications, executive functioning, and cultural issues. Additional information to aid test interpretation including extended norms for gifted children and the Cognitive Proficiency Index. All chapters revised to reflect data obtained from the test in clinical use. Essentials of WISC-IV Assessment Dawn P. Flanagan, Alan S.
