The Complete Works of C. H. Spurgeon, Volume 38 Charles Spurgeon, 2015-06-04. Volume 38 Sermons 2237-2288. Charles Spurgeon (19 June 1834 – 31 January 1892) is one of the church's most famous preachers and Christianity's foremost prolific writers. Called the Prince of Preachers, he was one of England's most notable ministers for most of the second half of the nineteenth century, and he still remains highly influential among Christians of different denominations today. His sermons have spread all over the world, and his many printed works have been cherished classics for decades. In his lifetime, Spurgeon preached to more than 10 million people, often up to ten times each week. He was the pastor of the congregation of the New Park Street Chapel, later the Metropolitan Tabernacle in London, for 38 years. He was an inexhaustible author of various kinds of works, including sermons, commentaries, an autobiography, as well as books on prayer, devotionals, magazines, poetry, hymns, and more. Spurgeon was known to produce powerful sermons of penetrating thought and divine inspiration, and his oratory and writing skills held his audiences spellbound. Many Christians have discovered Spurgeon's messages to be among the best in Christian literature. Edward Walford wrote in Old and New London (Volume 6, 1878) quoting an article from the Times regarding one of Spurgeon's meetings at Surrey Fancy: a congregation consisting of 10,000 souls streaming into the hall, mounting the galleries, humming

buzzing and swarming a mighty hive of bees eager to secure at first the best places and at last any place at all After waiting more than half an hour for if you wish to have a seat you must be there at least that space of time in advance Mr Spurgeon ascended his tribune To the hum and rush and trampling of men succeeded a low concentrated thrill and murmur of devotion which seemed to run at once like an electric current through the breast of every one present and by this magnetic chain the preacher held us fast bound for about two hours It is not my purpose to give a summary of his discourse It is enough to say of his voice that its power and volume are sufficient to reach every one in that vast assembly of his language that it is neither high flown nor homely of his style that it is at times familiar at times declamatory but always happy and often eloquent of his doctrine that neither the Calvinist nor the Baptist appears in the forefront of the battle which is waged by Mr Spurgeon with relentless animosity and with Gospel weapons against irreligion cant hypocrisy pride and those secret bosom sins which so easily beset a man in daily life and to sum up all in a word it is enough to say of the man himself that he impresses you with a perfect conviction of his sincerity More than a hundred years after his death Charles Spurgeon s legacy continues to effectively inspire the church around the world For this reason Delmarva Publications has chosen to publish the complete works of Charles Spurgeon The Sea of Glass Roger Akerley,2022-07-14 Even though there are many many people that read the Scriptures and there are different interpretations of what the Scriptures mean there is only one truth The religions of the world are fooling the people of the world by trying to get money for teaching a false understanding of the Scriptures This is the reason for this book I wrote this book for the graduation of mankind into true spiritual wisdom and for the soul of those who live in righteousness I didn t write this book from inside any religion of any kind I wrote this book for all people who desire to be with the Lord and understand his word The power of this book is to understand the glory of human intelligence and to understand the Scriptures in spiritual value In order to come to the understanding of spiritual value you must translate the word of God into spiritual value And I believe this book is the introduction of all mankind to the understanding of the Scriptures not in the physical way but in the spiritual way Quiet Time Poems David Edwin Hall,2014-11-06 Every day there are treasures to be discovered by anyone who will honestly come to hear the voice of the Savior in his Word The Lord Jesus indicates that there is an added blessing for those who will write down the insights he gives by his instruction Every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old Matthew 13 52 The poems in this book are the result of going to the Bible each day with an expectation that God has something very valuable to say That expectation has NEVER been disappointed Our risen Lord said I stand at the door and knock If any man hears My voice and opens the door I will come into him and will sup with him and he with Me Revelation 3 20 This intimate two way communion with God is offered to all those who have received the Lord Jesus Christ John 1 12 and thereby have received not the spirit of the world but the Spirit which is of God that we might know the things that are freely given to us by God 1 Corinthians 2 12 My prayer is that God may use
