Uniquely Yucatan Stories Poems Mostly:

Uniquely Yucatan Merida Group, Maryetta Ackenbom, Cherie Pittillo, Gwen Lane, 2015-12-19 Take a rare look behind the scenes of living in Mexico where reflections from a kaleidoscope of experiences retirement working or raising a family go beyond the tourist attractions to the real lives of expats in the Yucatan The authors from The United States and Canada reside in Merida and spin stories from their hearts weaving a brilliant thread connecting profound experiences with the gentle and amazing people of the Yucatan Enlightening portrayals shed light on Maya mysticism the Virgin of Guadalupe the unique behavior of local fauna and flora and much more The thread continues throughout both laugh out loud and tear sliding down the face stories some spiced with artistic license but all based on real experiences as varied as the authors themselves Lost in the jungle while chasing flamingos embarrassing language bloopers the mystery of the cross in the tree and the dangers of traveling in the burning season are but a few that will inform thrill amuse and warm your heart

Reading Popol Wuj Nathan C. Henne, 2020-03-17 Popol Wuj is considered one of the oldest books in the Americas Various elements of Popol Wuj have appeared in different written forms over the last two millennia and several parts of Popol Wuj likely coalesced in hieroglyphic book form a few centuries before contact with Europeans Popol Wuj offers a unique interpretation of the Maya world and ways of being from a Maya perspective However that perspective is often occluded since the extant Popol Wuj is likely a copy of a copy of a precontact Indigenous text that has been translated many times since the fifteenth century Reading Popol Wuj offers readers a path to look beyond Western constructions of literature to engage with this text through the philosophical foundation of Maya thought and culture This guide deconstructs various translations to ask readers to break out of the colonial mold in approaching this seminal Maya text Popol Wuj or Popol Vuh in its modern form can be divided thematically into three parts cosmogony the formation of the world tales of the beings who inhabited the Earth before the coming of people and chronicles of different ethnic Maya groups in the Guatemala area Examining thirteen translations of the K'iche' text Henne offers a decolonial framework to read between what translations offer via specific practice exercises for reading studying and teaching Each chapter provides a close reading and analysis of a different critical scene based on a comparison of several translations English and Spanish of a key K'iche' word or phrase in order to uncover important philosophical elements of Maya worldviews that resist precise expression in Indo European languages Charts and passages are frontloaded in each chapter so the reader engages in the comparative process before reading any leading arguments This approach challenges traditional Western reading practices and enables scholars and students to read Popol Wuj and other Indigenous texts from within the worldview that created them
