Catholic Theology of Marriage in the Era of HIV and AIDS Emily Reimer-Barry, 2015-04-09 Marriage for Life begins by listening to the lived experiences of Catholic married HIV positive women in order to better understand their struggles The eight women interviewed in Chicago Illinois USA shared their stories of marriage of family life of church involvement and of living with HIV Their candid reflections offer a fresh and grounded perspective on the challenges of living with HIV in a US context After listening to and learning from these women s experiences Reimer Barry constructs a theology of Christian marriage that is life giving in a world with AIDS While Catholic teachings have developed and now affirm the equal dignity of women and men troubling legacies of women s subordination remain embedded in liturgical practices and theological texts Arguing that self care is an indispensable component of a healthy marriage Reimer Barry constructs a life affirming theology of marriage that is sensitive to the struggles of her collaborators She argues that marriage for life must promote the full flourishing of both partners respect wives as equal partners with their husbands and offer a coherent and empowering sexual ethic Building on the wisdom of her collaborators lived experiences Reimer Barry examines the need for a more adequate Catholic response to HIV and AIDS arguing that church communities should promote comprehensive sexual education affirm both abstinence and condom use for HIV prevention and actively work to reduce stigmatizing behaviors within church communities She also unpacks the implications of marriage for life for Catholic liturgical practice marriage preparation programs sexual education programs and family ministries Modeling her method on what Pope Francis calls the art of accompaniment Reimer Barry argues that Catholic theology of marriage must be renewed and updated so that all can plainly understand that marriage is for life

Out of Exodus Darryl W. Stephens, Michael I. Alleman, Andrea Brown, Ruth A. Daugherty, Mary Merriman, 2018-05-02 Biblical and progressive Mainline and charismatic Faithful and questioning This book is not what you think it is The story of the Exodus is told in parallel with testimonies sermons and personal reflections from a congregation in Lancaster Pennsylvania challenging the reader to a journey of faith Along the way it becomes clear that open and affirming ministry transcends LGBTQIA inclusion It is also about race relations poverty generational change divorce immigration and any other human created barrier to loving God and neighbor Tools for the journey Finding a new voice amid profound social change is a difficult and vitally important task Many congregations and entire denominations are in the process of figuring out how to express a new voice of faith particularly in our understanding of sexuality and gender Christians are experiencing nothing less than a holy disruption caused by the Spirit among us The book concludes with a discussion of challenges to community and ministry Helpful appendices provide congregational resources and discussion questions for group study The stories in
