History 101, Modern World History, 1986 The New World History Ross E. Dunn, Laura J. Mitchell, Kerry Ward, 2016-08-23. The New World History is a comprehensive volume of essays selected to enrich world history teaching and scholarship in this rapidly expanding field. The forty-four articles in this book take stock of the history evolving literature and current trajectories of new world history. These essays together with the editors' introductions to thematic chapters encourage educators and students to reflect critically on the development of the field and to explore concepts, approaches, and insights valuable to their own work. The selections are organized in ten chapters that survey the history of the movement, the seminal ideas of founding thinkers, and today's practitioners changing concepts of world historical space and time, comparative methods, environmental history, the big history movement, globalization debates over the meaning of Western power, and ongoing questions about the intellectual premises and assumptions that have shaped the field.

A Reader's Guide to Contemporary Literature William Swan Sonnenschein, 1896 Inquiry-Based Lessons in World History Jana Kirchner, Andrew McMichael, 2021-09-03. Spanning the time period from 750 CE to the present day, Inquiry-Based Lessons in World History Vol 2 focuses on creating global connections between people and places using primary sources in standards-based lessons. With sections on the world in transition, the era of revolutions, imperialism, and global war, and the modern world, this book provides teachers with inquiry-based, ready-to-use lessons that can be adapted to any classroom and that encourage students to take part in the learning process by reading and thinking like historians. Each section contains chapters that correspond to the scope and sequence of most world history textbooks. Each inquiry lesson begins with an essential question and connections to content and literacy standards, followed by primary source excerpts or links to those sources. Lessons include step-by-step directions, incorporate a variety of literacy strategies, and require students to make a hypothesis using evidence from the texts they have read. Grades 7-10.

The World's History Howard Spodek, 2001. A true exploration of world history, this text presents world history through an analysis of eight chronological turning points seen through the prisms of eight different themes: origins, cities, empires, religion, trade, migrations, revolutions, and technology.
