Learning Objective

Explain how religions, belief systems, philosophies, and ideologies originated, developed, and spread as a result of expanding communication and exchange networks.

Explain the political and economic interactions between states and non-state actors over time.

Explain how local, regional, and global economic systems and exchange networks have influenced and impacted each other over time.

Evaluate the extent to which different ideologies, philosophies, and religions affected social hierarchies.

Historical Developments

A deepening and widening of networks of human interaction within and across regions contributed to cultural, technological, and biological diffusion within and between various societies.

Cross-cultural exchanges were fostered by the intensification of existing, or the creation of new, networks of trade and communication.

Islam, based on the revelations of the prophet Muhammad, developed in the Arabian Peninsula. The beliefs and practices of Islam reflected interactions among Jews, Christians, and Zoroastrians with the local Arabian peoples. Muslim rule expanded to many parts of Afro-Eurasia due to military expansion, and Islam subsequently expanded through the activities of merchants, missionaries, and Sufis.
