World Antiquarianism Comparative Perspectives Issues Debates:

World Antiquarianism Alain Schnapp, 2014-02-01 The term antiquarianism refers to engagement with the material heritage of the past an engagement that preceded the modern academic discipline of archaeology Antiquarian activities result in the elaboration of particular social behaviors and the production of tools for exploring the collective memory This book is the first to compare antiquarianism in a global context examining its roots in the ancient Near East its flourishing in early modern Europe and East Asia and its manifestations in nonliterate societies of Melanesia and Polynesia By establishing wide reaching geographical and historical perspectives the essays reveal the universality of antiquarianism as an embodiment of the human mind and open new avenues for understanding the representation of the past from ancient societies to the present

The Methods and Ethics of Researching Unprovenienced Artifacts from East Asia

Christopher J. Foster, Glenda Chao, Mercedes Valmisa, 2024-04-25 A comprehensive discussion of the methodological and ethical issues inherent to researching unprovenienced artifacts

Antiquarianisms Benjamin Anderson, Felipe Rojas, 2017-05-31 Antiquarianism and collecting have been associated intimately with European imperial and colonial enterprises although both existed long before the early modern period and both were and continue to be practiced in places other than Europe Scholars have made significant progress in the documentation and analysis of indigenous antiquarian traditions but the clear cut distinction between indigenous and colonial archaeologies has obscured the intense and dynamic interaction between these seemingly different endeavours This book concerns the divide between local and foreign antiquarianisms focusing on case studies drawn primarily from the Mediterranean and the Americas Both regions host robust pre modern antiquarian traditions that have continued to develop during periods of colonialism In both regions moreover colonial encounters have been mediated by the antiquarian practices and preferences of European elites The two regions also exhibit salient differences For example Europeans claimed the antiquities of the eastern Mediterranean as part of their own classical heritage whereas they perceived those of the Americas as essentially alien even as they attempted to understand them by analogy to the classical world These basic points of comparison and contrast provide a framework for conjoint analysis of the emergence of hybrid or cross bred antiquarianisms Rather than assuming that interest in antiquity is a human universal this book explores the circumstances under which the past itself is produced and transformed through encounters between antiquarian traditions over common objects of interpretation

Understanding Authenticity in Chinese Cultural Heritage Anke Hein, Christopher J. Foster, 2023-03-15 Understanding Authenticity in Chinese Cultural Heritage explores the construction of authenticity and its consequences in relation to Chinese cultural heritage those objects texts and intangible practices concerned with China's past Including contributions from scholars around the world reflecting on a range of different materials and time periods Understanding Authenticity emphasizes the situatedness and fluidity of authenticity concepts Attitudes toward authenticity change over time and place and vary between communities and object types among stakeholders in China as they do elsewhere The book examines how authenticity relates to four major aspects of cultural heritage in China art and material culture cultural heritage management and preservation living and intangible heritage and texts and manuscripts with individual contributions engaging in a critical and interdisciplinary conversation that weaves together heritage management art history archaeology architecture tourism law history and literature Moving beyond conceptual issues the book also considers the practical ramifications for work in cultural heritage management museums and academic research Understanding Authenticity in Chinese Cultural Heritage provides an opportunity for reflection on the contingencies of authenticity debates not only in relation to China but also anywhere around the world The book will be of interest to scholars and students in a variety of fields including heritage studies Asian studies art history museum studies history and archaeology Between Encyclopedia and Chorography Anna Boroffka,2022-10-03 During the early modern period regional specified compendia which combine information on local moral and natural history towns and fortifications with historiography antiquarianism images series or maps gain a new agency in the production of knowledge Via literary and aesthetic practices the compilations construct a display of regional specified knowledge In some cases this display of regional knowledge is presented as a display of a local cultural identity and is linked to early modern practices of comparing and classifying civilizations At the core of the publication are compendia on the Americas which research has described as chorographies encyclopeadias or more recently cultural encyclopaedias Studies on Asian and European encyclopeadias universal histories and chorographies help to contextualize the American examples in the broader field of an early modern and transcultural knowledge production which inherits and modifies the ancient and medieval tradition

Dimensions of Yahwism in the Persian Period Gard Granerød,2016-07-25 What was Judaeen religion in the Persian period like Is it necessary to use the Bible to give an answer to the question Among other things the study argues that the religion practiced in the 5th c BCE Elephantine community and which is reflected in the so called Elephantine documents represent a well attested manifestation of lived Persian period Yahwism as religio historical sources the Elephantine documents reveal more about the actual religious practice of the Elephantine Judaeans than what the highly edited and canonised texts of the Bible reveal about the religious practice of the contemporary Yahwistic coreligionists in Judah and the image of the Elephantine Judaism emerging from the Elephantine documents can revise the canonised image of Judaeen religion in the Persian period cf A Assmann The Elephantine Yahwism should not be interpreted within a framework dependent upon theological conceptual and spatial concepts alien to it such as biblical ones The study proposes an alternative framework by approaching the Elephantine documents on the basis of N Smart's multidimensional model of religion Elephantine should not be exoticised but brought to the very centre of any discussion of the history of Judaism

Treasures Lost Francisco Martins,2022-06-06 The book of Kings repeatedly refers to the despoliation of the treasures of the Jerusalem temple and royal palace These short notices recounting a foreign invasion and the loss of national wealth have been explored only briefly among scholars applying their expertise to the analysis of the book of Kings or the study of the Jerusalem temple and royal palace from both literary and historical perspectives This monograph aims to fill this lacuna Adopting an approach that combines a more traditional form of literary criticism with a thorough analysis of the narrative role and intertextual connections giving shape to the texts Sitz in der Literatur the book offers a more complex and nuanced appreciation of the literary development and ideological profile of the despoliation notices In addition it weighs the use of the underlying literary motif in the biblical writings against other Ancient Near Eastern sources This study not only provides new perspectives on the role of motifs in biblical historiography but has far reaching implications for the reconstruction of the process of production and transmission of Kings as part of the Deuteronomistic History Tales of Royalty Elisabeth Wagner-Durand, Julia Linke, 2020-07-20 The volume sheds light on Ancient Near Eastern kingship by focusing on its constant urge for legitimation Thus it highlights specific aspects like royal building activities warfare and wisdom and frames these into material and textual expressions that take the powerful form of narratives The contributions made in this volume look for specific topoi of kingship and examine which shapes they took and why The publication determines which narrative topoi have once been selected to legitimize kingship which media have been chosen to transmit these narratives and what kind of narrative strategies have been applied To consider both texts and images in the same margin the book is based on a dual approach referring to certain narrative themes both philological and archaeological material will be presented By joining diverse perspectives of scholars of material culture and texts and their various approaches the publication promises new and special insight into the connection of narration and legitimation in Mesopotamia It reflects Ancient Near Eastern kingship and its narrative strategies from a interdisciplinary and transmedial point of view and gives new insights into the matter of royal legitimation Persian Cultures of Power and the Entanglement of the AfroEurasian World Matthew P. Canepa, 2024-01-02 A cutting edge analysis of 2 500 years of Persian visual architectural and material cultures of power and their role in connecting the world With the rise of the Achaemenid Empire 550 330 BCE Persian institutions of kingship became the model for legitimacy authority and prestige across three continents Despite enormous upheavals Iranian visual and political cultures connected an ever wider swath of Afro Eurasia over the next two millennia exerting influence at key historical junctures This book provides the first critical exploration of the role Persian cultures played in articulating the myriad ways power was expressed across Afro Eurasia between the sixth century BCE and the nineteenth century CE Exploring topics such as royal cosmologies fashion banqueting manuscript cultures sacred landscapes and inscriptions the volume s essays analyze the intellectual and political exchanges of art architecture ritual and luxury material within and beyond the Persian world They show how Perso Iranian cultures offered neighbors and competitors raw material with which to formulate their own imperial aspirations Unique among studies of Persia and Iran this volume explores issues of change renovation and interconnectivity in these cultures over the longue dur e Manuscript Cultures of Colonial Mexico and

Peru Thomas B. F. Cummins, Emily Engel, Barbara Anderson, Juan Ossio, 2015-01-01 This volume showcases dynamic developments in the field of manuscript research that go beyond traditional textual iconographic or codicological studies Using state of the art conservation technologies scholars investigate how four manuscripts the Galvin Mur a the Getty Mur a the Florentine Codex and the Relaci n de Michoac n were created and demonstrate why these objects must be studied in a comparative context The forensic study of manuscripts provides art historians anthropologists curators and conservators with effective methods for determining authorship identifying technical innovations and contextualizing illustrated histories This information in turn allows for more nuanced arguments that transcend the information that the written texts and painted images themselves provide The book encourages scholars to think broadly about the manuscripts of colonial Mexico and Peru in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries and employ new techniques and methods of research Visualizing Empire Rebecca Peabody, Steven Nelson, Dominic Thomas, 2021-01-19 An exploration of how an official French visual culture normalized France s colonial project and exposed citizens and subjects to racialized ideas of life in the empire By the end of World War I having fortified its colonial holdings in the Caribbean Latin America Africa the Indian Ocean and Asia France had expanded its dominion to the four corners of the earth This volume examines how an official French visual culture normalized the country s colonial project and exposed citizens and subjects alike to racialized ideas of life in the empire Essays analyze aspects of colonialism through investigations into the art popular literature material culture film and exhibitions that represented celebrated or were created for France s colonies across the seas These studies draw from the rich documents and media photographs albums postcards maps posters advertisements and children s games related to the nineteenth and twentieth century French empire that are held in the Getty Research Institute s Association Connaissance de l histoire de l Afrique contemporaine ACHAC collections ACHAC is a consortium of scholars and researchers devoted to exploring and promoting discussions of race iconography and the colonial and postcolonial periods of Africa and Europe indispensable to scholars practitioners and students of Latin American art Collecting Mesoamerican Art before 1940 Andrew D. Turner, Megan E. O'Neil, 2024-02-13 The untold chronicles of the looting and collecting of ancient Mesoamerican objects This book traces the fascinating history of how and why ancient Mesoamerican objects have been collected It begins with the pre Hispanic antiquities that first entered European collections in the sixteenth century as gifts or seizures continues through the rise of systematic collecting in Europe and the Americas during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and ends in 1940 the start of Europe's art market collapse at the outbreak of World War II and the coinciding genesis of the large scale art market for pre Hispanic antiquities in the United States Drawing upon archival resources and international museum collections the contributors analyze the ways shifting patterns of collecting and taste including how pre Hispanic objects changed from being viewed as anthropological and scientific curiosities to collectible artworks have shaped modern academic disciplines as well as public private institutional and nationalistic attitudes toward Mesoamerican art As many nations across the world demand the return of their cultural patrimony and ancestral heritage it is essential to examine the historical processes events and actors that initially removed so many objects from their countries of origin Art History and Anthropology Peter Probst, Joseph Imorde, 2023-12-12 An in depth and nuanced look at the complex relationship between two dynamic fields of study While today we are experiencing a revival of world art and the so called global turn of art history encounters between art historians and anthropologists remain rare Even after a century and a half of interactions between these epistemologies a skeptical distance prevails with respect to the disciplinary other This volume is a timely exploration of the roots of this complex dialogue as it emerged worldwide in the colonial and early postcolonial periods between 1870 and 1970 Exploring case studies from Australia Austria Brazil France Germany and the United States this volume addresses connections and rejections between art historians and anthropologists often in the contested arena of primitive art It examines the roles of a range of figures including the art historian anthropologist Aby Warburg the modernist artist Tarsila do Amaral the curator impresario Leo Frobenius and museum directors such as Alfred Barr and René Harnoncourt Entering the current debates on decolonizing the past this collection of essays prompts reflection on future relations between these two fields From Adapa to Enoch Seth L. Sanders, 2017-06-07 This book asks what drove the religious visions of ancient scribes During the first millennium BCE both Babylonian and Judean scribes wrote about and emulated their heroes Adapa and Enoch who went to heaven to meet their god Preface p v London and the Emergence of a European Art Market, 1780-1820 Susanna Avery-Quash, Christian Huemer, 2019-08-06 Showcasing diverse methodologies this volume illuminates London's central role in the development of a European art market at the turn of the nineteenth century In the late 1700s as the events of the French Revolution roiled France London displaced Paris as the primary hub of international art sales Within a few decades a robust and sophisticated art market flourished in London London and the Emergence of a European Art Market 1780 1820 explores the commercial milieu of art sales and collecting at this turning point In this collection of essays twenty two scholars employ methods ranging from traditional art historical and provenance studies to statistical and economic analysis they provide overviews case studies and empirical reevaluations of artists collectors patrons agents and dealers institutions sales and practices Drawing from pioneering digital resources notably the Getty Provenance Index as well as archival materials such as trade directories correspondence stock books and inventories auction catalogs and exhibition reviews these scholars identify broad trends reevaluate previous misunderstandings and consider overlooked commercial contexts From individual case studies to econometric overviews this volume is groundbreaking for its diverse methodological range that illuminates artistic taste and flourishing art commerce at the turn of the nineteenth century Collectors, Scholars, and Forgers in the Ancient World Carolyn Higbie, 2017-01-26

Collectors Scholars and Forgers in the Ancient World focuses on the fascination which works of art texts and antiquarian objects inspired in Greeks and Romans in antiquity and draws parallels with other cultures and eras to offer contexts for understanding that fascination Statues bronze weapons books and bones might have been prized for various reasons because they had religious value were the work of highly regarded artists and writers had been possessed by famous mythological figures or were relics of a long disappeared past However attitudes towards these objects also changed over time sculpture which was originally created for a religious purpose became valuable as art and could be removed from its original setting while historians discovered value in inscriptions and other texts for supporting historical arguments and literary scholars sought early manuscripts to establish what authors really wrote As early as the Hellenistic era some Greeks and Romans began to collect objects and might even display them in palaces villas or gardens as these objects acquired value a demand was created for more of them and so copyists and forgers created additional pieces while copyists imitated existing pieces of art sometimes adapting to their new settings forgers created new pieces to complete a collection fill a gap in historical knowledge make some money or to indulge in literary play with knowledgeable readers The study of forged relics is able to reveal not only what artefacts the Greeks and Romans placed value on but also what they believed they understood about their past and how they interpreted the evidence for it Drawing on the latest scholarship on forgery and fakes as well as a range of examples this book combines stories about frauds with an analysis of their significance and illuminates and explores the link between collectors scholars and forgers in order to offer us a way to better understand the power that objects held over the ancient Greeks and Romans Qing Encounters Petra ten-Doesschate Chu, Ning Ding, 2015-10-01

Qing Encounters Artistic Exchanges between China and the West examines how the contact between China and Europe in the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries transformed the arts on both sides of the East West divide The essays in the volume reveal the extent to which images artifacts and natural specimens were traded and copied and how these materials inflected both cultures visions of novelty and pleasure battle and power and ways of seeing and representing Artists and craftspeople on both continents borrowed and adapted forms techniques and modes of representation producing deliberate meaningful and complex new creations By considering this reciprocity from both Eastern and Western perspectives Qing Encounters offers a new and nuanced understanding of this critical period

Money in the Air Gail Feigenbaum, Sandra van Ginhoven, Edward Sterrett, 2024-06-25 This volume explores the crucial role of art dealers in creating a transatlantic art market in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries There was money in the air ever so much money wrote Henry James in 1907 reflecting on the American appetite for art acquisitions Indeed collectors such as Henry Clay Frick and Andrew W Mellon are credited with bringing noteworthy European art to the United States with their collections forming the backbone of major American museums today But what of the dealers who possessed the expertise in art and recognized the potential of developing a new market model on both sides of the Atlantic Money in the Air investigates the often overlooked role of these dealers in creating an international art world Contributors examine the histories of well known international firms like Duveen Brothers M Knoedler Co and Goupil Cie and their relationships with American clients as well as accounts of other remarkable dealers active in the transatlantic art market Drawing on dealer archives scholars reveal compelling findings including previously unknown partnerships and systems of cooperation This volume offers new perspectives on the development of art collections that formed the core of American art museums such as the National Gallery of Art the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Frick Collection

Canons and Values Larry Silver, Kevin Terraciano , 2019-08-27 A critical rethinking of the way canons are defined constructed dismantled and revised A century ago all art was evaluated through the lens of European classicism and its tradition This volume explores and questions the foundations of the European canon offers a critical rethinking of ancient and classical art and interrogates the canons of cultures and regions that have often been left at the margins of art history It underscores the historical and geographical diversity of canons and the local values underlying them Twelve international scholars consider how canons are constructed and contested focusing on the relationship between canonical objects and the value systems that shape their hierarchies Deploying an array of methodologies including archaeological investigations visual analysis and literary critique the authors examine canon formation throughout the world including Africa India East Asia Mesoamerica South America ancient Egypt classical Greece and Europe Global studies of art which are dismantling the traditionally Eurocentric canon promise to make art history more inclusive But enduring canons cannot be dismissed This volume raises new questions about the importance of canons including those from outside Europe for the wider discipline of art history
