travel accounts fairy tales and the spectacle of the Persian ambassador's visit to Paris and Versailles in 1715 Using diplomatic sources fiction and printed and painted images The Persian Mirror describes how the French came to see themselves in Safavid Persia In doing so it revises our notions of orientalism and the exotic and suggests that early modern Europeans had more nuanced responses to Asia than previously imagined

The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History: 4 Volume Set Bonnie G. Smith, 2008-01-23 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated women's daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune women's and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike

War Imagery in Women's Textiles Deborah A. Deacon, Paula E. Calvin, 2014-07-02 Through the centuries women have used textiles to express their ideas and political opinions creating items of utility that also function as works of art Beginning with medieval European embroideries and tapestries such as the Bayeux Tapestry this book examines the ways in which women around the world have recorded the impact of war on their lives using traditional fabric art forms of knitting sewing quilting embroidery weaving basketry and rug making Works from the United States Canada Latin America Asia the Middle and Near East and Oceania are analyzed in terms of content and utility and cultural and economic implications for the women who created them are discussed Traditional women's work served to document the upheaval in their lives and supplemented their family income By creating textiles that responded to the chaos of war women developed new textile traditions modified old traditions and created a vehicle to express their feelings

Islam and The English Enlightenment Zulfiqar Ali Shah, 2022-06-02

Never before to my knowledge has the cross fertilisation of Western and Islamic ideas been so encyclopedically documented as it is here. In reading Islam and the English Enlightenment you will never see the relationship between Islam and the West in the same way again.

ROBERT F. SHEDDEN, Professor of Religion, Luther College

Dr Zulfiqar Ali Shah's Islam and the English Enlightenment is one of the most profoundly enlightening books I have read in years. Dr Shah compellingly demonstrates that the thinkers of English Enlightenment were undeniably indebted to Islamic sciences and thought and that the foundational principles of rationalist thought, scientific inquiry and religious toleration were deeply anchored in the Islamic tradition.

KHALED ABU EL FADL Omar Azmeralda Alfi, Distinguished Professor of Law, UCLA School of Law

This is a book that anyone interested in stepping outside a Eurocentric view of the rise of the West and of the modern age must read.

MICHAEL A. GILLESPIE, Professor of Political Science, Philosophy, Duke University

Dr Shah convincingly demonstrates the central role that Islam played in shaping the values and ideas of the Enlightenment reformers such as John Locke and Isaac Newton who had helped to produce the modern world.

GERALD MACLEAN, Emeritus Professor, University of Exeter
