Worlding Identity Media And Imagination Free:

Worlding David Trend, 2015-11-17 Worlding brings ideas about virtual places and societies together with perceptions about the real world in an era of mounting global uncertainty As mass media and the Internet consume ever increasing portions of our lives are we becoming disengaged from face to face human interaction and real world concerns Or is the virtual world actually bringing people closer together and making them more involved with social issues Worlding argues that the virtual and the real are profoundly interconnected often in ways we don't fully appreciate Drawing on sociology cultural studies philosophy media analysis and technology studies Worlding makes the argument that virtual experience and social networking can be vital links to utopian visions and an appreciation of the world's diversity

Mass Media, Consumerism and National Identity in Postwar Japan Martyn David Smith, 2018-04-05 Mass Media Consumerism and National Identity in Postwar Japan addresses Japan's evolving nationalism and national identity in relation to its newly rising consumerism during the two decades from 1952 to 1972 through a study of the transformation of the print media and the market for weekly and monthly magazines Martyn Smith argues that the transformation of the print media in the 1950s and 1960s expanded the possibilities for social individual and national identities in Japan From the late 1950s the growth in the market for weekly magazines was fuelled by the huge potential for advertising revenue the rapid development of the Japanese economy and the necessity for the growth of a consumer society This resulted in the merging of national identity with individual subjectivity which this book describes as national subjectivity as the Japanese media promoted individual consumption to aid the recovery of the Japanese nation as a whole Examining housewife magazines such as Fujin Koron Fujin no Tomo and Fujin Gaho as well as news magazines such as Mainichi Graph and Asahi Graph and publications aimed at young people Shukan Heibon and Heibon Punch Smith shows how the relationship of nationalism to everyday life is best understood by taking into account the changing nature of consumption in the period By presenting an alternative to the traditional top down narrative of state driven economic nationalism this book therefore makes a unique contribution to the study of postwar Japanese history and Japanese nationalism

Transnational Migration, Media and Identity of Asian Women Youna Kim, 2013-07-03 This book explores the unstudied nature of diaspora among young Korean Japanese and Chinese women living and studying in the West Why do women move What are the actual conditions of their transnational lives How do they make sense of their transnational lives through the experience of the media Are they becoming cosmopolitan subjects Exploring the key questions within their particular socio economic and cultural contexts this book analyzes the contradictions of cosmopolitan identity formation and challenges the general assumptions of cosmopolitanism It considers the highly visible fastest growing yet little studied phenomenon of women's transnational migration and the role of the media in everyday life offering detailed empirical data on the nature of the women's diaspora Drawing on a wide range of perspectives from media and communications sociology cultural studies and anthropology the book provides an empirically grounded and theoretically insightful investigation into this evolving phenomenon The West and the Word Steffen Wöll,2020-10-12 Western expansion in North America has mainly been described as either a linear sequence energized by nineteenth century nation building processes at a moving frontier or as the practice of settler colonialism and its exploitation of resources and displacement of nonwhite peoples This book suggests that shifting the focus from this binary pattern towards spatial imaginations and spatialization processes a new theoretical framework developed at SFB 1199 provides novel insights into the placemaking dynamics of the American West It brings to light a discursive diversity that often contradicts unidirectional interpretive patterns It becomes clear that while some discourses solidified into spatial metanarratives like the character shaping clash of civilizations at the frontier or manifest destiny alternative spatial imaginations exist juxtaposed to or obfuscated by canonical interpretations Making use of a variety of sources including works of literature poetry newspapers paintings and speeches to access spatialization processes on several sociocultural scales the book presents a careful exploration of the parameters that informed the creation affirmation and subversion of spatial imagination of the American West throughout the nineteenth century from the perspective of American Studies Crossroads in New Media, Identity and Law Wouter de Been,P. Arora,M. Hildebrandt,2015-05-19 Crossroads in New Media Identity and Law is a compilation of essays on the nexus of new information and communication technologies cultural identity law and politics The essays provoke timely discussions on how these different spheres affect each other and co evolve in our increasingly hyper connected and globalized world Television and Psychoanalysis Caroline Bainbridge,Ivan Ward,Candida Yates,2018-05-01 Despite the prominence of television in our everyday lives psychoanalytic approaches to its significance and function are notoriously few and far between This volume takes up perspectives from object relations theory and other psychoanalytic approaches to ask questions about the role of television as an object of the internal worlds of its viewers and also addresses itself to a range of specific television programmes ranging from Play School through the plays of Jack Rosenthal to recent TV blockbuster series such as In Treatment In addition it considers the potential of television to open up new public spaces of therapeutic experience Interviews with a TV producer and with the subject of a documentary expressly suggest that there is scope for television to make a positive therapeutic intervention in people's lives At the same time however the pitfalls of reality programming are explored with reference to the politics of entertainment and the televisual values that heighten the drama of representation rather than emphasising the emotional experience of reality television participants and viewers Identity and Play in Interactive Digital Media Sara M. Cole,2017-03-16 This book examines how people are socially culturally and personally changing as a result of their reading of or interaction with interactive media forms like computer or video games Handbook of Research on Promotional Strategies and Consumer Influence in the Service Sector Panwar, Upendra Singh,Kumar, Raj, Ray, Nilanjan,2016-04-11 Economic growth is directly impacted by a multitude of different industries in recent years the service industry has emerged as a significant contributor to the global economy As such the effective management of this sector has become a widely studied topic The Handbook of Research on Promotional Strategies and Consumer Influence in the Service Sector is an authoritative reference source for the latest research on emerging methods for innovative service design and delivery examining how growing customer expectations and global competition has influenced this industry Featuring quality factors marketing tools and the effects of consumer behavior this publication is ideally suited for researchers professionals and academicians actively involved in the service industry Sport and National Identity in the Post-War World Dilwyn Porter,Adrian Smith,2013-04-15 What is the relationship between sport and national identity What can sport tell us about changing perceptions of national identity Bringing together the work of established historians and younger commentators this illuminating text surveys the last half century giving due attention to the place of sport in our social and political history It Includes studies of English football and British decline Englishness and sport Ethnicity and nationalism in Scotland Social change and national pride in Wales Irish international football and Irishness Sport and identity in South Africa Cricket and identity crisis in the Caribbean Baseball exceptionalism and American Sport Popular mythology surrounding the sporting rivalry between New Zealand and Australia Sport and National Identity in the Post War World presents a wealth of original research into contemporary social history and provides illuminating material for historians and sociologists alike Communication, Media, and Identity Robert S. Fortner,2007

Communication Media and Identity A Christian Theory of Communication is the first comprehensive theoretical look at the nature of communication from a biblical Christian perspective This groundbreaking new work discusses the implications of such a theory for interpersonal relations use of media and the development of digital culture in the wake of the computer It also draws widely from the literature of the secular world critiquing perspectives where necessary and adopting perspectives that are in line with Christian anthropology epistemology and ontology Through this unique lens the reader is able to understand communication as an art as a tool for evangelism and as a unique human activity that allows people to have a stake in the creation It covers both mediated and non mediated forms of communication is sensitive to theological differences within the Christian faith and examines closely the problem of technology and especially digital technology for the practice of communication As the newest book in the Communication Culture and Religion Series Robert Fortner s work illuminates the theological aspects of communication Transitional Selves Marcus Bussey,Meera Chakravorty,Camila

Mozzini-Alister,2023-05-30 This book engages with the ethics and practices of identity formation in a world experiencing identity stress It engages with crucial questions such as What models are shaping our view of ourselves and the society in which we live What images ground our perception of what is true and real How have the images been historically produced What are the effects of such models on definitions of self Should we break free from these images if we get to know what they are Is it possible to change our models in order to create freer identities Through a range of distinctive lenses the essays in the volume deals with the ideas of the liminal self the digital self identities in flux and offers up anthropologies of self selves that situates current identity processes within their cultures and explores strategies and dilemmas from this perspective This key volume will be of interest to scholars and researchers of literary studies critical theory social theory social anthropology philosophy and political philosophy
