Spitfire Ace Gordon Olive,2015-07-15 The amazing story of one of the Few Spitfire fighter pilot Gordon Olive who shot down ten enemy aircraft during the Battle of Britain The Politics of Regret Jeffrey K. Olick,2013-10-31 In the past decade Jeffrey Olick has established himself as one of the world's pre eminent sociologists of memory and related to this both cultural sociology and social theory His recent book on memory in postwar Germany In the House of the Hangman University of Chicago Press 2005 has garnered a great deal of acclaim This book collects his best essays on a range of memory related issues and adds a couple of new ones It is more conceptually expansive than his other work and will serve as a great introduction to this important theorist In the past quarter century the issue of memory has not only become an increasingly important analytical category for historians sociologists and cultural theorists it has become pervasive in popular culture as well Part of this is a function of the enhanced role of both narrative and representation the building blocks of memory so to speak across the social sciences and humanities Just as importantly though there has also been an increasing acceptance of the notion that the past is no longer the province of professional historians alone Additionally acknowledging the importance of social memory has not only provided agency to ordinary people when it comes to understanding the past it has made conflicting interpretations of the meaning of the past more fraught particularly in light of the terrible events of the twentieth century Olick looks at how catastrophic terrible pasts Nazi Germany apartheid South Africa are remembered but he is particularly concerned with the role that memory plays in social structures Memory can foster any number of things social solidarity nostalgia civil war but it always depends on both the nature of the past and the cultures doing the remembering Prior to his studies of individual episodes he fully develops his theory of memory and society working through Bergson Halbwachs Elias Bakhtin and Bourdieu Revival Richard Wolffe,2011 Draws on extensive interviews with President Obama and his inner circle inside the West Wing to offer a revealing portrait of the Obama White House at work in a critical period for the country and for the president Reprint Junior Graphic Mavis Kitcher (Mrs),2002-07-24 Joyce, Benjamin and Magical Urbanism Maurizia Boscagli,Enda Duffy,2011 Preliminary material Editors Joyce Benjamin and Magical Urbanism CONTENTS Editors Joyce Benjamin and Magical Urbanism BIBLIOGRAPHICAL NOTE Editors Joyce Benjamin and Magical Urbanism INTRODUCTION JOYCE BENJAMIN AND MAGICAL URBANISM ENDA DUFFY and MAURIZIA BOSCALLI ARCADIAN ITHACA DOUGLAS MAO MEMORIAL DUBLIN ELLEN CAROL JONES THE COMMUNIST FL NEUR OR JOYCE S BOREDOM PATRICK MCGEE SPECTACLE RECONSIDERED JOYCEAN SYNAESTHETICS AND THE DIALECTIC OF THE MUTOSCOPE MAURIZIA BOSCALLI BENJAMIN JOYCE AND THE DISAPPEARANCE OF THE DEAD GRAHAM MACPHEE THE HAPPY RING HOUSE ENDA DUFFY JOYCE BENJAMIN AND THE FUTURITY OF FICTION HEYWARD EHRlich THAT BANTRY JOBBER WILLIAM MARTIN MURPHY AND THE CRITIQUE OF PROGRESS AND PRODUCTIVITY IN ULYSSES

Secular Martyrdom in Britain and Ireland Quentin Outram, Keith Laybourn, 2018-01-30 This edited collection examines the concept and nature of the people's martyrology raising issues of class community religion and authority It examines modern martyrdom through studies of Peterloo Tolpuddle Featherstone Tonypanady Emily Davison fatally injured by the King's horse on Derby Day 1913 the 1916 Easter Rising Jarrow the town that was murdered and martyred in the 1930s David Oluwale a Nigerian killed in Leeds in 1965 and Bobby Sands the IRA hunger striker who died in 1981 It engages with the burgeoning historiography of memory to try to understand why some events such as Peterloo Tonypanady and the Easter Rising have become household names whilst others most notably Featherstone and Oluwale are barely known It will appeal to those interested in British and Irish labour history as well as the study of memory and memorialization

Mountbatten Adrian Smith, 2010-04-30 Was he a far sighted war hero or an ambitious networker promoted well above his natural talent Admired as a modernising chief of staff a timely decoloniser and a genuine player on the world stage Mountbatten nevertheless continues to attract fierce criticism In this timely new biography Adrian Smith offers a fresh and convincing perspective depicting Mountbatten as a quintessentially modern highly professional figure within the Royal Navy and at Combined Operations and SE Asia Command a hands on officer who enthusiastically embraced new technology someone who although an aristocrat was by instinct a progressive innovative in his approach to man management Smith brings Mountbatten to life acknowledging the essential qualities as well as the obvious weaknesses Beneath the rich vain often ruthless embodiment of power and privilege could be found a very human even vulnerable character the complex personality of a pivotal figure in the history of twentieth century Britain and her empire Youth Led by Youth Philip Baker,1996 Victims and Memory After Terrorism Ana Milošević,2024-06-03 This book contributes to the study of collective memory and the sociology of terrorism by analysing the role of memorialization in relation to terrorism its victims and the broader society While various social scientists have extensively theorized and analysed how trauma and memory interact grow apart and reinforce each other this book puts the rights and needs of the victims centre stage Departing from the prescriptive legal blueprints of memory this book introduces the concept of memorial needs to challenge and complement existing victimological frameworks It critically assesses the efficacy of public memorialization and its success in assisting those affected by violence by exploring how victims engage with memory and memorialization It investigates personal and collective responses to urban terrorism in Europe that have taken a wide range of forms including media coverage spontaneous memorials and public mobilizations literary and artistic works trials and controversial counter terrorism measures Making a case against the fetishization of memory as an overarching answer to curing visible and invisible wounds provoked by violence Victims and Memory After Terrorism sends out a practical invitation to the field to repair symbolic reparations in a way that memorialisation is not just an expression of potential an aspiration for a more moral and just society and a promise of healing for the victimised An accessible and compelling read this book will appeal to students and scholars of victimology criminology sociology politics and those interested in the relationship between collective memory and terrorism Guthrie Stories Book I Margaret A. early April 2010 Nick Clegg was fighting for recognition even as the young fresh and personable leader of Britain s third political party Two weeks later he was the focus of Cleggmania and his popularity was compared with Churchill s Four weeks after that he became the second most important figure in the government but within a year he was ridiculed and reviled as popular hopes turned to disappointment But who is Nick Clegg What has made him the man he is today By what route did he enjoy one of the most spectacular rises and falls in British politics This fully revised and updated edition of Chris Bowers acclaimed biography contains an analysis of the first years of coalition government and tells us what we can expect of the Deputy Prime Minister as the next general election approaches With a lightness of touch that captures the spirit of the unstuffy Lib Dem leader and with the benefit of access to Clegg himself and the many people who have shaped and worked with him Bowers presents a sensitive critical and above all insightful portrait of one of the leading political figures of our age

Inland Printer, American Lithographer ,1940-04 Nazi Camps and their Neighbouring Communities Helen J. Whatmore-Thomson,2020-08-07 Nazi concentration camps KZs were established in the vicinity of local communities across Europe Arguably the individuals in these communities were not perpetrators nor were they victims like those imprisoned in the camps Yet they did not simply stand by on the sidelines passive uninvolved or untouched by the presence of the camps Local citizenries engaged in ambiguous and highly interactive relations with their local camps willingly and unwillingly working for the perpetrators but also aiding inmates After the war Nazi camps were often repurposed initially as post war internment camps and subsequently as penal institutions military compounds or housing encampments Over time many were transformed into sites of memory to commemorate Nazi persecution Governments and groups of survivors have often determined the re use and commemoration of KZs but these processes take place on local territory and have direct implications for nearby communities Therefore locals have continued to interact with camp legacies Nazi Camps and their Neighbouring Communities examines how local populations evolved to live with the Nazi camps both before and after the war Helen J Whatmore Thomson evaluates the different sorts of locality camp relationships that developed in wartime France Germany and the Netherlands and how these played out in post war scenarios of re use and memorialization Using three case studies of major camps in western Europe Natzweiler Struthof Neuengamme and Vught the book traces the contested developments of these camp sites in the changing political climates of the post war years and explores the interrelated dynamics and trajectories of local and national memory
