He explains how men think, act, communicate and grow in relationships and even offers tips for communicating in a toxic relationship. Wives, girlfriends, mothers, daughters, friends and coworkers will find real help within these pages.

Approaches to Teaching the Works of Jack London Jeanne Campbell Reesman, 2015-10-01 A prolific and enduringly popular author and an icon of American fiction, Jack London is a rewarding choice for inclusion in classrooms from middle school to graduate programs. London's biography and the role played by celebrity have garnered considerable attention, but the breadth of his personal experiences and political views and the many historical and cultural contexts that shaped his work are key to gaining a nuanced view of London's corpus of works. As this volume's wide-ranging perspectives and examples attest, the first section of this volume, Materials, surveys the many resources available for teaching London, including editions of his works, sources for his photography and audiovisual aids. In part 2, Approaches, contributors recommend practices for teaching London's works through the lenses of socialism and class, race, gender, ecocriticism and animal studies, theories of evolution, legal theory and regional history, both in frequently taught texts such as The Call of the Wild, To Build a Fire and Martin Eden and in his lesser-known works. The Nonhuman in American Literary Naturalism Karin M. Danielsson, Kenneth K. Brandt, 2023-09-05 The Nonhuman in American Literary Naturalism responds to a need to expand and refine the connections among nonhuman studies and American literary naturalism and to productively expand the scholarly discourse surrounding this vital movement in American literary history. This collection focuses on that which becomes visible when the human subject is skirted or moved off center; in other words, the representation of nonhuman animals and other vital or inert species, things, entities, cityscapes and seascapes that play an important part in American literary naturalism. Informed by animal studies, ecocriticism, posthumanism, new materialism and other recent theoretical perspectives, the essays in this collection discuss early naturalist texts as well as more recent naturalistic-oriented authors.
