Indo-Caribbean Feminist Thought Gabrielle Jamela Hosein,Lisa Outar,2016-11-25 Bringing together three generations of scholars thinkers and activists this book is the first to trace a genealogy of the specific contributions Indo Caribbean women have made to Caribbean feminist epistemology and knowledge production Challenging the centrality of India in considerations of the forms that Indo Caribbean feminist thought and praxis have taken the authors turn instead to the terrain of gender negotiations among Caribbean men and women within and across racial class religious and political affiliations Addressing the specific conditions which emerged within the region and highlighting the cross racial solidarities and the challenges to narratives of purity that have been constitutive of Indo Caribbean feminist thought this collection connects to the broader indentureship diaspora and what can be considered post indentureship feminist thought Through examinations of literature activism art biography scholarship and public sphere practices the collection highlights the complexity and richness of Indo Caribbean engagements with feminism and social justice Journal of the Anthropological Society of Oxford Anthropological Society of Oxford,2002 Gender, Religion and Change in the Middle East Inger Marie Okkenhaug,Ingild Flaskerud,2005-03-01 The complicated link between women and religion in the Middle East has been a source of debate for centuries and has special resonance today Whether religion reinforces female oppression or provides opportunities for women or a combination of both depends on time place and circumstance This book seeks to contextualize women s roles within their religious traditions rather than through the lens of a dominant culture Gender Religion and Change in the Middle East crosses boundaries and borders and will appeal to a global audience This book provides a comprehensive survey of women in Muslim Jewish and Christian communities in the Middle East during the last two centuries The authors consider women s defined roles within these religious communities as well as exploring how women themselves develop and apply their own strategies within religious societies The wide ranging accounts draw on case studies from Iran Turkey Afghanistan Israel Jordan Egypt Palestine and Lebanon since 1800 Throughout the authors challenge our understanding of patriarchy to offer a more nuanced account Taking a balanced look at the issues of religion gender and change in the Middle East this unique interdisciplinary study gives new insight to the theme of women and religion in the Middle East Extending the Boundaries of Care Tamara Kohn,Rosemary McKechnie,2020-05-12 How is the concept of patient care adapting in response to rapid changes in healthcare delivery and advances in medical technology How are questions of ethical responsibility and social diversity shaping the definitions of healthcare In this topical study scholars in anthropology nursing theory law and ethics explore questions involving the changing relationship between patient care and medical ethics Contributors address issues that challenge the boundaries of patient care such as HIV related care and research the impact of new reproductive technologies preventative healthcare technological breakthroughs that are changing personal caring relationships Chapters range from a consideration of the practicalities of nursing and family healthcare to a debate about universal human needs and patients rights This book is a provocative exploration of the ways in which healthcare models are socially constructed It will be of interest to policy makers medical practitioners and administrators as well as students of sociology anthropology and social policy Cross-Cultural Marriage Rosemary Breger,Rosanna Hill,1998-06 As societies world wide become increasingly multicultural so the issues of identity belonging tolerance and racism become imperative to understand in their various forms This book adds to the discussion by examining the interface between the lived personal experiences of people in cross cultural marriages and wider socio political issues One major contribution this book offers is that the marriages discussed are from a very broad range of cultures and classes Amongst other issues contributors examine the legal and social factors influencing cross cultural marriages the personality factors and positive or negative stereotypes of otherness that influence spouse choice notions of identity gender and personhood and definitions of difference and how these are often tied up in emotive stereotypes how all these factors affect the ongoing process of living together and the ability to cope and how the children of such marriages come to terms with identity choices This book should be highly relevant to the growing number of people in cross cultural marriages as well as to professionals in the fields of marriage guidance child welfare and academics interested in ethnicity and kinship Women and Credit Beverly Lemire,Ruth Pearson,Gail Campbell,2001 Comprises 19 papers which provide examples of credit agencies and initiatives in both developed and developing countries and make suggestions for reconfiguring the relationship between women and credit Women in Trade Unions Margaret H. Martens,Swasti Mitter,1994 This work offers a varied collection of case studies from both developing and developed countries on organizing women workers at national and local level in areas that are difficult to organize small scale enterprises the rural and urban informal sectors home work domestic service and export processing zones This book is a source of material lessons and ideas for all those involved in or planning to embark on such initiatives JASO ,1999
