Children's Literature in the Reading Program Deborah A. Wooten, Lauren Aimonette Liang, Bernice E. Cullinan, 2018-05-15 This indispensable teacher resource and course text now revised and updated addresses the whys and how-tos of incorporating outstanding children's literature into the K-8 reading program. A strong emphasis on diverse literature is woven throughout the fifth edition with chapters emphasizing the need for books that reflect their readers and presenting dozens of carefully reviewed books that teachers will be eager to use in the classroom. Leading authorities provide advice on selecting texts, building core literacy and literary skills, supporting struggling readers, and maximizing engagement. The volume offers proven strategies for teaching specific genres and formats such as fiction, nonfiction, picturebooks, graphic novels, biographies, and poetry. This title is a copublication with the International Literacy Association. New to This Edition: Many new teaching ideas and book recommendations with an increased focus on culturally diverse literature. Scope expanded from K-5 to K-8. Chapter on using read-alouds and silent reading. Chapters on diverse literature about the arts and on transitional chapter books. Chapter on engaging struggling readers with authentic reading experiences.

Book Talk Sherry Sanden, Cassandra Mattoon, Sandra L. Osorio, 2021 Discover the language and learning possibilities of young children's active engagement with book experiences in which they talk with one another as they make meaning from literature centered around their lives and interests. Drawing from their backgrounds as teachers and researchers as well as their many experiences facilitating and observing read-alouds with diverse students, the authors provide a practical guide to conducting book discussions that promote deep engagement and the natural development of literacy skills. The text includes detailed recommendations for setting up the classroom reading environment, selecting books, preparing materials, setting goals, and integrating discussions with curricular demands, all while maintaining a child-centered philosophy and addressing the needs of culturally and linguistically diverse students. Book Talk melds theory about literacy learning with the practical realities of reading and talking with young children in 21st-century preschool and primary classrooms. Book Features: Promotes read-aloud experiences that keep children, their backgrounds, and their experiences front and center. Offers guidance for tailoring discussions around specific learning goals across the literacy curriculum. Shares the authors' learning journeys and their support for the learning of other early childhood educators. Includes vignettes from classroom literature discussions as well as conversations between educators. Incorporates classroom observations, teacher reflections, and research-based teaching practices. Addresses a variety of early childhood audiences including preschool, kindergarten, and primary grade teachers, preservice teacher candidates, school librarians, and teacher educators.
