Later Byzantine Painting Robert S. Nelson, 2024-10-28

Written over nearly three decades the fifteen essays involve the three aspects of the title art agency and appreciation The first refers to the general subject matter of the book Byzantine art chiefly painting of the twelfth through the fourteenth centuries the second to its often human like agency and the last to its historical reception Responding to different issues and perspectives that have animated art history and Byzantine studies in recent decades the essays have wide theoretical range from art historical formalism iconography archaeology and its manuscript equivalent codicology to statistics patronage narratology and the histories of science and collecting The series begins with art works themselves and with the imagery and iconography of church decoration and manuscript illumination shifts to the ways that objects act in the world and affect their beholders and concludes with more general appreciations of Byzantine art in case studies from the thirteenth century to the present

Byzantine Fortifications Nikos D. Kontogiannis, 2022-06-02 This wide ranging study examines the Byzantine Empire's network of military fortifications from the Aegean to Asia Minor and Africa The Byzantine empire was one of the most powerful forces in the Mediterranean and Near East for over a thousand years Strong military organization anchored by widespread fortifications was essential for its defense yet this aspect of its history is often neglected Historian Nikos Kontogiannis corrects this oversight with this ambitious account of Byzantine fortifications detailing their construction and development as well as their role in times of war Byzantine Fortifications combines the results of decades of wide ranging archaeological work with an account of the armies weapons tactics and defensive strategies of the empire throughout its long history Fortifications built in every region of the empire are covered from those in Mesopotamia Syria and Africa to those in Asia Minor the Aegean and the Balkan peninsula

Byzantine Art Robin Cormack, 2018-03-10 The opulence of Byzantine art with its extravagant use of gold and silver is well known Highly skilled artists created powerful representations reflecting and promoting this society and its values in icons illuminated manuscripts and mosaics and wallpaintings placed in domed churches and public buildings This complete introduction to the whole period and range of Byzantine art combines immense breadth with interesting historical detail Robin Cormack overturns the myth that Byzantine art remained constant from the inauguration of Constantinople its artistic centre in the year 330 until the fall of the city to the Ottomans in 1453 He shows how the many political and religious upheavals of this period produced a wide range of styles and developments in art This updated colour edition includes new discoveries a revised bibliography and in a new epilogue a rethinking of Byzantine Art for the present day

Art and Identity in Thirteenth-Century Byzantium Antony Eastmond, 2017-03-02 The church of Hagia Sophia in Trebizond built by the emperor Manuel I Komnenos 1238-63 in the aftermath of the fall of Constantinople to the Fourth Crusade is the finest surviving Byzantine imperial monument of its period Art and Identity in Thirteenth Century Byzantium is the first investigation of the church in more than thirty years and is extensively illustrated in colour and black and white with many images that have never previously been published Antony Eastmond examines the architectural sculptural and painted decorations of the church placing them in the context of contemporary developments elsewhere in the Byzantine world in Seljuq Anatolia and among the Caucasian neighbours of Trebizond Knowledge of this area has been transformed in the last twenty years following the collapse of the Soviet Union The new evidence that has emerged enables a radically different interpretation of the church to be reached and raises questions of cultural interchange on the borders of the Christian and Muslim worlds of eastern Anatolia the Caucasus and Persia This study uses the church and its decoration to examine questions of Byzantine identity and imperial ideology in the thirteenth century This is central to any understanding of the period as the fall of Constantinople in 1204 divided the Byzantine empire and forced the successor states in Nicaea Epiros and Trebizond to redefine their concepts of empire in exile Art is here exploited as significant historical evidence for the nature of imperial power in a contested empire It is suggested that imperial identity was determined as much by craftsmen and expectations of imperial power as by the emperor's decree and that this was a credible alternative Byzantine identity to that developed in the empire of Nicaea

Image Making in Byzantium, Sasanian Persia and the Early Muslim World Anthony Cutler, 2023-05-31 Relations between Byzantium and its neighbours are the focus of this volume The papers address questions of cultural exchange with special attention to art historical relations as shown by technical iconographic and diplomatic exchanges While addressed to specialists both their approach and the language make these papers accessible to students at all levels

The Eloquence of Art Andrea Olsen Lam, Rossitza Schroeder, 2020-04-14 For those within the fields of art history and Byzantine studies Professor Henry Maguire needs no introduction His publications transformed the way art historians approach medieval art through his insightful integration of rhetoric poetry and non canonical objects into the study of Byzantine art His ground breaking studies of Byzantine art that consider the natural world magic and imperial imagery among other themes have redefined the ways medieval art is interpreted From notable monuments to small scale and privately used objects Maguire's work has guided a generation of scholars to new conclusions about the place of art and its function in Byzantium In this volume 23 of Henry Maguire's colleagues and friends have contributed papers in his honour resulting in studies that reflect the broad range of his scholarly interests

The Later Middle Ages Isabella Lazzarini, 2021-04-29 Of all the sub periods in which European medieval history has been divided over time the later middle ages is possibly the one on which the burden of past and current grand narratives weighs the most Its chronological and geopolitical boundaries are shaped by a heavy narrative of decline or transition and consequently this period is often interpreted through the lenses of previous or following developments becoming in turn the tail end of the feudal communal imperial versus papal era or the announcement of modernity The Later Middle Ages addresses the urgent need to revise and rewrite the story of this period forging new critical and technical vocabularies not derived from the study of other periods By adopting a conscious approach towards temporal and spatial variety and by breaking the traditional and unitary narrative of decline and transition into one of many changes and continuities it charts the principal developments of late medieval Europe while opening up to different political cultures and societies throwing new light on older concepts and revealing analogies and differences with other geopolitical contexts Including maps illustrations a detailed chronology and a rich range of reading suggestions The Later Middle Ages aims at providing a first introduction to a very complex dynamic and fascinating period for Europe and beyond A

should be organised Six of these studies have been translated into English for this volume and it ends with an important section of additional notes and comment

Contested Antiquity Esther Solomon, 2021-02-02 While the archaeological legacies of Greece and Cyprus are often considered to represent some of the highest values of Western civilization democracy progress aesthetic harmony and rationalism this much adored and heavily touristed heritage can quickly become the stage for clashes over identity and memory In Contested Antiquity Esther Solomon curates explorations of how those who safeguard cultural heritage are confronted with the best ways to represent this heritage responsibly How should visitors be introduced to an ancient Byzantine fortification that still holds the grim reminders of the cruel prison it was used as until the 1980s How can foreign archaeological institutes engage with another nation's heritage in a meaningful way What role do locals have in determining what is sacred and can this sense of the sacred extend beyond buildings to the surrounding land Together the essays featured in Contested Antiquity offer fresh insights into the ways ancient heritage is negotiated for modern times

Miracles Revisited Stefan Alkier, Annette Weissenrieder, 2013-08-29 Since David Hume the interpretation of miracle stories has been dominated in the West by the binary distinction of fact vs fiction The form critical method added another restriction to the interpretation of miracles by neglecting the context of its macrotexts Last but not least the hermeneutics of demythologizing was interested in the self understanding of individuals and not in political perspectives The book revisits miracle stories with regard to these dimensions 1 It demands to connect the interpretation of Miracle Stories to concepts of reality 2 It criticizes the restrictions of the form critical method 3 It emphasizes the political implications of Miracle Stories and their interpretations Even the latest research accepts this modern opposition of fact and fiction as self evident This book will examine critically these concepts of reality with interpretations of miracles The book will address how concepts of reality always complex came to expression in stories of miraculous healings and their reception in medicine art literature theology and philosophy from classic antiquity to the Middle Ages Only through such bygone concepts contemporary interpretations of ancient healings can gain plausibility
