Women Preaching Theology And Practice Through The Ages:

Women Preaching Eunjoo Mary Kim, 2009-08-01 Considering the lack of resources that exists in the study of women's preaching Kim makes a very significant contribution to the development of homiletics as it joins together the history of women preachers with theological reflection from other women preachers as well as herself. It is the author's hope that this book will provide a broader and deeper basis for the theology of preaching as well as practical ways in which preachers can improve their own preaching by looking at a woman's perspective. Kim's ground breaking book is the first comprehensive narrative of women preachers from the Second Testament to the Second Millennium. Through Kim's eyes we see women as a constant and forceful if often subversive presence in Christian preaching. After focusing on the medieval period the Reformation and the early twentieth century the author brings her autobiography close to the surface as she leads us to consider women and the politics of God in the colonial and post colonial eras with a special focus on Asia. The book climaxes with a call to envision preaching as partnership with God that facilitates partnership in the church and world in the service of liberation. Ronald J. Allen, Nettie Sweeney and Hugh Th. Miller, Professor of Preaching and New Testament, Christian Theological Seminary, Indianapolis, Indiana. Kim's exciting exploration of the history of women preachers illuminates the remarkable perseverance of God and the women who partner with God to bring words of peace and transformation to the world. Those churches that continue to deny women's preaching do more than simply perpetuate an inequality. They also quench the Spirit who yearns to transform us co-workers in the liberative work of God. Cliff Guthrie, Associate Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Studies, Bangor Theological Seminary, Bangor, Maine. The Rowman & Littlefield Handbook of Women's Studies in Religion, Helen T. Boursier, 2021-06-15. The handbook offers interreligious and multicultural perspectives on women's studies in religion in conversation with specific contextualized gender biased justice challenges. Contributing authors address 25 current and trending themes from their diverse socio-cultural religious backgrounds. Themes move across the spectrum of women's studies in religion blurring the boundaries beyond religious studies to include perspectives from ethics, philosophy, sociology, economics, and law. As Religious diversity addresses challenges for women's studies through the lens of Wicca, Buddhist, Asian, Trans, Pacific, Hinduism, Judaism, Muslima, and Christian. The handbook is practical, contemporary, and relevant as it moves theory to practical application in the section on challenging and changing system gender injustice with chapters on sexual violence and the MeToo movement, femicide and feminicide, a Mohawk response to colonial dominion and violations to Indigenous lands and women, and a religio-political witness for love and justice. It includes how to engage the theories of women's studies in religion in the public square through civic engagement to create empowerment for actual practical change. It shows the future movement of the becoming of women's studies with chapters on digital activism, reimagining women's mosque spaces, online minoritized sexual identities, and spiritual homelessness, and charges readers to see hope now by challenging and changing gender injustice. The Censored Pulpit Donyelle C. McCray,2019-10-16 Few have consoled the church as ably as the fourteenth century mystic Julian of Norwich However her prophetic gifts have received little scholarly attention Drawing on contemporary homiletical theory and the history of Christian spirituality Donyelle C McCray presents Julian as a preacher examining the apostolic dimensions of Julian's vocation as an anchoress and highlighting the steps she took to align herself with renowned preachers like Saint Cecelia Mary Magdalene and the apostle Paul Like Paul Julian saw Jesus body as her primary text placed human weakness at the center of her theology and used her own confined body as a rhetorical tool Yet she navigated a web of censorship that threatened to silence her To voice her convictions Julian developed a novel approach to authority and exploited the fluidity of the medieval English sermon genre McCray charts this process revealing Julian as a central personality in the history of preaching whose best contemporary parallels operate outside the pulpit in august figures like retreat leader Evelyn Underhill gospel singer Mother Willie Mae Ford Smith and street preacher Reverend Billy
