The Pursuit of Human Well-Being Richard J. Estes, M. Joseph Sirgy, 2017-01-09 This handbook informs the reader about how much progress we the human race have made in enhancing the quality of life on this planet Many skeptics focus on how the quality of life has deteriorated over the course of human history particularly given World War II and its aftermath This handbook provides a positive perspective on the history of well being Quality of life as documented by scientists worldwide has significantly improved Nevertheless one sees more improvements in well being in some regions of the world than in others Why This handbook documents the progress of well being in the various world regions as well as the differences in those regions The broad questions that the handbook addresses include What does well being mean How do different philosophical and religious traditions interpret the concept of well being within their own context Has well being remained the same over different historical epochs and for different regions and subregions of the world In which areas of human development have we been most successful in advancing individual and collective well being In which sectors has the attainment of well being proven most difficult How does well being differ within and between different populations groups that for a variety of socially created reasons have been the most disadvantaged e g children the aged women the poor racial ethnic and sexual minorities

Sustainable Development and Pathways for Food Ecosystems Riccardo Accorsi, Rajeev Bhat, 2023-06-19 Sustainable Development and Pathways for Food Ecosystems Integration and Synergies is a science based reference which explores the roles played by agri food ecosystems their functions and needs and the importance of the interdependencies among them This book explores the relationships between food ecosystems highlighting each entity s role in transforming preserving and conserving the others It is a vital resource of information on the ecosystems that surround the food supply chain and includes all processes from primary production of food through consumption. The book covers the agricultural and farming phases, processing and transformation, storage and consolidation, packaging, transportation, the management of waste and losses, and the supply and conservation of enabling resources like materials, biodiversity, energy, and water. Sustainable Development and Pathways for Food Ecosystems: Integration and Synergies is a useful reference for academics, researchers, policymakers, and industry professionals involved within the agri-food sector management. Provides information on sustainability challenges, developments, and solutions related to food ecosystems. Discusses the impact of renewables toward sustainable and zero carbon food ecosystems. Summarizes the scientific literature on alternative valorization strategies to reduce biomass. Defines boundaries of analysis of entities, input/output flows, constraints, and performance goals to measure data. Alternative Tourism in Turkey Istvan Egresi, 2016-12-08. This book takes inventory of and evaluates the available resources for the development of alternative tourism in Turkey. It examines the role of alternative tourism in future tourism development plans and proposes public policies necessary to assure sustainability. Although tourism started later in Turkey than in the Western Mediterranean countries, it has grown very rapidly during the last three decades and today the country ranks among the top ten countries in the world in terms of both arrivals and receipts. However, most of the tourism development has been in the mass tourism sector or the so-called sun, sea, and sand tourism. While crucial for the economic development of Turkey, mass tourism in the absence of proper planning has happened in a haphazard manner, leading to numerous environmental and socio-cultural problems. This book argues that in order to mitigate these problems, Turkey should encourage the development of alternative forms of tourism.

Understanding Innovation in Emerging Economic Spaces Grzegorz Micek, 2016-03-09. A small number of countries, regions, cities, and localities are powerful gatekeepers and generate the bulk of creative and innovative ideas, while the majority is largely excluded. This book looks at neglected but emerging innovation centres analysed from various spatial and organizational perspectives, ranging from entire countries and regions to individual firms and small neighbourhoods. Bringing together leading scholars from various disciplines, it examines a variety of economic sectors including biotechnology, agrotourism, and the food retail industry. The authors employ various, often contradictory concepts ranging from local buzz and the global pipeline through an analysis of collective learning processes to geographical embeddedness, using both qualitative and quantitative approaches. The purpose of the book is twofold: investigating changes occurring in the regions and cities under transformation and attempting to find common and unique mechanisms behind these changes. Consequently, the authors shed light on the scale and scope of the innovativeness of selected economic and social processes.
