Hunting trips on the prairie and in the mountains Theodore Roosevelt, Theodore Roosevelt's Ranch Life Theodore Roosevelt,1978 The Works of Theodore Roosevelt: Hunting trips of a ranchman ; Game shooting in the West ; Good hunting Theodore Roosevelt,1923 The Hunting and Exploring Adventures of Theodore Roosevelt Theodore Roosevelt,1955 Theodore Roosevelt Theodore Roosevelt,2017-01-04 Next to the whitetail deer the black bear is the commonest and most widely distributed of American big game It is still found quite plentifully in northern New England in the Adirondacks Catskills and along the entire length of the Alleghanies as well as in the swamps and canebrakes of the southern States It is also common in the great forests of northern Michigan Wisconsin and Minnesota and throughout the Rocky Mountains and the timbered ranges of the Pacific coast In the East it has always ranked second only to the deer among the beasts of chase The bear and the buck were the staple objects of pursuit of all the old hunters They were more plentiful than the bison and elk even in the long vanished days when these two great monarchs of the forest still ranged eastward to Virginia and Pennsylvania The wolf and the cougar were always too scarce and too shy to yield much profit to the hunters The black bear is a timid cowardly animal and usually a vegetarian though it sometimes preys on the sheep hogs and even cattle of the settler and is very fond of raiding his corn and melons Its meat is good and its fur often valuable and in its chase there is much excitement and occasionally a slight spice of danger just enough to render it attractive so it has always been eagerly followed Yet it still holds its own though in greatly diminished numbers in the more thinly settled portions of the country One of the standing riddles of American zoology is the fact that the black bear which is easier killed and less prolific than the wolf should hold its own in the land better than the latter this being directly the reverse of what occurs in Europe where the brown bear is generally exterminated before the wolf Theodore Roosevelt
