Theological Fragments Essays In Unsystematic Theology:

Theological Fragments Duncan B. Forrester, 2005-12 This book of essays hopes to show that there is an important place today for a modest and unsystematic theology consisting of theological fragments rather than some grand theory These theological fragments arise from and relate to specific situations problems contexts and communities Here Duncan Forrester asks What do the practices of Christian worship have to teach us about ethics How can a word of reconciliation be heard in Northern Ireland How do Dachau and the Rwanda genocide affect how we understand the Church Are the modern mass media a threat or an opportunity for Christian communication Duncan B Forrester is Emeritus Professor of Christian Ethics and Practical Theology in the University of Edinburgh Scotland

Desecularizing the Christian Past Enrico

Beltramini, 2025-10-01 The essential objective of this study is to unpack the complicity between historians and secularization theory in the study of late ancient and early medieval Christianity and then suggest a way out In this work of historiography of religion Enrico Beltramini argues that religious history is inherently secular and produces distorted representations of the Christian past He suggests moving from an epistemological to a hermeneutical approach so that the supernatural worldview of the Christian past can be addressed on its own terms This work also engages Markus's saeculum and replaces Markus's secularized relationship between the Kingdom and the government of the civitas with the Augustinian association of the Kingdom and divine government

Feminist Theologies Stephen Burns, Rebekah Pryor, 2023-01-24 This assemblage of feminist theologies represents a series of vital entanglements Chapters are written from different cultures geographies and discourses and brought together around themes as specific and wide ranging as immigration detention hate crime discrimination rites of marriage and partnership and artistic and religious imagination The contributors variously echo celebrate question and contradict each other Despite the complexity and allied as they are with liberation decolonial ecological queer and other theologies these perspectives seek not only to confront and resist the problems oppressions and omissions of hegemonic theologies but also to realize better worlds

Christianity and the Law of Migration Silas W.

Allard, Kristin Heyer, Raj Nadella, 2021-09-05 This collection brings together legal scholars and Christian theologians for an interdisciplinary conversation responding to the challenges of global migration Gathering 14 leading scholars from both law and Christian theology the book covers legal perspectives theological perspectives and key concepts in migration studies In Part 1 scholars of migration law and policy discuss the legal landscape of migration at both the domestic and international level In Part 2 Christian theologians ethicists and biblical scholars draw on the resources of the Christian tradition to think about migration In Part 3 each chapter is co-authored by a scholar of law and a scholar of Christian theology who bring their respective resources and perspectives into conversation on key themes within migration studies The work provides a truly interdisciplinary introduction to the topic of migration for those who are new to the subject an opportunity for immigration lawyers and legal scholars to engage Christian theology an opportunity for pastors and Christian theologians to engage law and new insights on key frameworks for scholars who are already committed to the study of migration Animal Ethics and the Nonconformist Conscience Philip J. Sampson, 2018-08-24 This book explores the religious language of Nonconformity used in ethical debates about animals It uncovers a rich stream of innovative discourse from the Puritans of the seventeenth century through the Clapham Sect and Evangelical Revival to the nineteenth century debates about vivisection This discourse contributed to law reform and the foundation of the RSPCA and continues to flavour the way we talk about animal welfare and animal rights today Shaped by the nonconformist conscience it has been largely overlooked The more common perception is that Christian dominion authorises the human exploitation of animals while Enlightenment humanism and Darwinian thought are seen as drawing humans and animals together in one family This book challenges that perception and proposes an alternative perspective Through exploring the shaping of animal advocacy discourses by Biblical themes of creation fall and restoration this book reveals the continuing importance of the nonconformist conscience as a source to enrich animal ethics today It will appeal to the animal studies community theologians and early modern historians
