The Failure of Evangelical Mental Health Care John Weaver, 2014-11-26 In the evangelical community a variety of alternative mental health treatments deliverance exorcism biblical counseling reparative therapy and many others have been proposed for the treatment of mentally ill female and LGBT evangelicals This book traces the history of these methods focusing on the major proponents of each therapeutic system while also examining mainstream evangelical psychology The author concludes that in the majority of cases mental disorders are blamed on two main issues sin and demonic possession oppression and that as a result some communities have become a mental health underclass who are ill served or oppressed by both alternative and mainstream evangelical therapeutic systems He argues that the only recourse left for mentally ill female and LGBT evangelicals is to rally for reform and increased accountability for both professional and alternative evangelical practitioners

For Goodness' Sake: Principles of an Ecotheology Robert Cuttino, 2014-10-23 There seems to be a huge disconnect between religion and the environment In For Goodness Sake Principles of an Ecotheology author Robert Cuttino challenges hyperindividualized self absorbed contemporary theology that insists on our favored status He proposes an ecotheology Cuttino considers among other things that individuals are not the greatest good despite what we might think He shows we may be in fact secondary in importance to the health of all environmental systems that make life possible And individual humans are likely second in importance to the health of those economic systems that provide decent livelihoods and quality of life to all Readers will also learn why just greening the Bible will not work For Goodness Sake Principles of an Ecotheology isn't only about what will not work Cuttino shows that especially for restoring the health of the most important system of all the ethical sphere there may be an imperative for Christianity
