Theory in Contemporary Art Since 1985 Zoya Kocur, Simon Leung, 2005 Aesthetic Hybridity in Mughal Painting, 1526-1658 Valerie Gonzalez, 2016-03-03 The first specialized critical aesthetic study to be published on the concept of hybridity in early Mughal painting this book investigates the workings of the diverse creative forces that led to the formation of a unique Mughal pictorial language Mughal pictoriality distinguishes itself from the Persianate models through the rationalization of the picture s conceptual structure and other visual modes of expression involving the aesthetic concept of mimesis If the stylistic and iconographic results of this transformational process have been well identified and evidenced their hermeneutic interpretation greatly suffers from the neglect of a methodologically updated investigation of the images conceptual underpinning Valerie Gonzalez addresses this lacuna by exploring the operations of cross fertilization at the level of imagistic conceptualization resulting from the multifaceted encounter between the local legacy of Indo Persianate book art the freshly imported Persian models to Mughal India after 1555 and the influx of European art at the Mughal court in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The author s close examination of the visuality metaphysical order and aesthetic language of Mughal imagery and portraiture sheds new light on this particular aspect of its aesthetic hybridity which is usually approached monolithically as a historical phenomenon of cross cultural interaction That approach fails to consider specific parameters and features inherent to the artistic practice such as the differences between doxis and praxis conceptualization and realization intentionality and what lies beyond it By studying the distinct phases and principles of hybridization between the variegated pictorial sources at work in the Mughal creative process at the successive levels of the project intention the practice realization and the result product the author deciphers the modalities of appropriation and manipulation of the heterogeneous elements Her unique Cuban-American Literature and Art Isabel Alvarez Borland, Lynette M. F. Bosch, 2009-01-26 This groundbreaking collection offers an understanding of why Cuban American literature and visual art have emerged in the United States and how they are so essentially linked to both Cuban and American cultures The contributors explore crucial issues pertinent not only to Cuban American cultural production but also to other immigrant groups hybrid identities biculturation bilingualism immigration adaptation and exile The complex ways in which Cuban Americans have been able to keep a living memory of Cuba while developing and thriving in America are both intriguing and instructive These essays written from a variety of perspectives range from useful overviews of fictional and visual works of art to close readings of individual texts Video Art Theory Helen Westgeest,2015-06-15 Video Art Theory A Comparative Approach demonstrates how video art functions on the basis of a comparative media approach providing a crucial understanding of video as a medium in contemporary art and of the visual mediations we encounter in daily life A critical investigation of the visual media and selected video artworks which contributes to the understanding of video as a medium in contemporary art The only study specifically devoted to theorizing the medium of video from the perspective of prominent characteristics which result from how video works deal with time space representation and narrative The text has emerged out of the author s own lectures and seminars on video art Offers a comparative approach which students find especially useful offering new perspectives Art Theory Robert Williams,2009-03-09 Indispensable reading for both art lovers and students Art Theory 2nd Edition explores Western thought about art from ancient times to the post modern period Wide ranging and exceptionally balanced in its analysis Art History relates theory to the practice as well as to the intellectual and cultural historical currents of each period This new edition expands the original to include more indepth coverage of contemporary art Newly updated bibliography and suggestions for further reading Six chapters covering the major periods of Western art history Antiquity and the Middle Ages the early modern period Renaissance and Baroque the Enlightenment the nineteenth century early twentieth century modernism and postmodernism Geared to the needs of the general reader and beginning students Museum International ,2010 World Art Studies Kitty Zijlmans,Wilfried Van Damme,2008 This timely volume challenges the narrow Western centrism of most art historical models Archeologists have found that for tens of thousands of years all human cultures have shared a desire for visual representation or expression Yet the study of art history has traditionally focused on Western artworks of the past few centuries World Art Studies examines the phenomenon of art through a broader cultural global and temporal perspective bringing together a uniquely exhaustive range of perspectives on art and borrowing approaches from the study of neuroscience evolutionary biology anthropology and geography as models alongside more conventional art historical perspectives In musicology or linguistics using such diverse viewpoints for reflection and research is considered part of the normal process In that spirit this volume goes beyond abstract models using case studies to demonstrate and examine specific methods of investigation BOOK JACKET Art in America Susan Davidson,Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum,Terra Foundation for American Art,2007 Reproductions of art works spanning the 18th to 20th centuries Latin American Identities After 1980 Gordana Yovanovich,Amy

Huras,2010-04-23 Latin American Identities After 1980 takes an interdisciplinary approach to Latin American social and cultural identities With broad regional coverage and an emphasis on Canadian perspectives it focuses on Latin American contact with other cultures and nations Its sound scholarship combines evidence based case studies with the Latin American tradition of the essay particularly in areas where the discourse of the establishment does not match political social and cultural realities and where it is difficult to uncover the purposely covert This study of the cultural and social Latin America begins with an interpretation of the new Pax Americana designed in the 1980s by the North in agreement with the Southern elites As the agreement ties the hands of national governments and establishes new regional and global strategies a pan Latin American identity is emphasized over individual national identities The multi faceted impacts and effects of globalization in Bolivia Ecuador Mexico Cuba Brazil Chile Argentina and the Caribbean are examined with an emphasis on social change the transnationalization and commodification of Latin American and Caribbean arts and the adaptation of cultural identities in a globalized context as understood by Latin American authors writing from transnational perspectives

International 06 Liverpool Biennial of Contemporary Art,Paul Domela,2006 The intention of the International 06 exhibition as with its predecessors is to recognise the specific cultural context in which it is shown Liverpool is unique in its people history and built environment and yet it is also representative of many post industrial cities The exhibition will be sensitive to the context of the city made and seen in Liverpool Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. Tania Bruguera Helaine Posner,Tania Bruguera,Gerardo Mosquera,Carrie Lambert-Beatty,2009 Tania Bruguera is an interdisciplinary artist who explores exile and survival Bruguera recently developed a form she calls Arte de Conducta or behavior art in which she constructs situations that compel audience response Lee Wen Wen Lee,2012 The Art of Engagement Elaine Lally,Ien Ang,Kay Anderson,2011 Sydney s Museum of Contemporary Art and three cultural institutions in Western Sydney Casula Powerhouse Arts Centre Penrith Visual and Performing Arts and the Campbelltown Arts Centre have teamed up as C3West to demonstrate that contemporary artists can play a unique role in social innovation beyond the confines of the art world without giving up artistic value This collection of essays and documentation puts the C3West experiment in an international context and invites us to rethink what contemporary art can mean in Australia Back cover Amanda Heng Amanda Heng,2011 Aesthetics, Applications, Artistry and Anarchy: Essays in Prehistoric and Contemporary Art Jillian Huntley,George Nash,2019 This volume in honour of John Kay Clegg consists of papers by rock art researchers from around the world on topics such as aesthetics the application of statistical analyses frontier conflict and layered symbolic meanings the deliberate use of optical illusion and the contemporary significance of ancient and street art Canvases and Careers Today Daniel Birnbaum,Isabelle Graw,2008-04-04 Canvases and Careers Today brings together contributions from the eponymous conference organized by the Institut f r Kunstkritik Frankfurt am Main Its goal is to provide deeper insights and more complexity to current debates on the relationship between criticism art and the market It was especially interesting for us to watch a kind of transatlantic divide happening While the US American participants mostly declared criticism as obsolete while hoping for turning its weakness into a strength most European participants departed from the opposite diagnosis that criticism has never been as strong as it is today since it is now part of a knowledge based economy Isabelle Graw Daniel Birnbaum Contributors George Baker Johanna Burton Merlin Carpenter Melanie Gilligan Isabelle Graw Tom Holert Branden W Joseph John Kelsey Andr Rottmann Julia Voss Institut f r Kunstkritik Series Yishu ,2009 Institutional Critique and After Southern California Consortium of Art Schools,2006 Institutional critique and after explores the history and contemporary reassessment of the Institutional Critique movement lauched in the late 1960s redeveloped in the 1980s and vigorously reoriented in recent years to address issues such as globalization In this publication the histories theories diverse locations and different kinds of institutional alternative space are investigated looking at traditional forms of art but also at installation performance new media practices and cultural activism Its central questions turn on the critical potential of art and institutions and whether and if so how they can stimulate social or political change
