Bruce Wingo, 2003-11 In 1959 two thirteen year old boys discover a secret that the town of Hole Georgia would rather remain buried No one wants to talk about the decorated African American soldier lynched on a hot summer night in 1919 But the event cannot be ignored since several impressionable citizens of the town claim they have seen the haint of the murdered soldier dancing around the old live oak tree in the city park always around midnight on Independence Day The two boys decide they must discover whether the ghost is real or just the imagination of a guilt ridden community Darrel Cannon and his new friend Bumpy Foster set out to find the truth They soon ally themselves with an old black stonecutter who seems to know much more than he is willing to tell Their journey through the humid summer leads to adventure and danger but also to enlightenment In the aftermath of the flaming climax Darrel Cannon discovers that the senseless violence of a bygone era can forever change a boy's world view
