Through The Gates Of Death Aziloth S:

Through the Gates of Death (Aziloth Books) Dion Fortune, 2014-04-11 Dion Fortune the pen name of Violet Mary Firth Evans was an inspired adept who worked with such esoteric luminaries as MacGregor Mathers and Theodore Moriarty. She is also credited with inspiring both Diana Paxton and Doreen Valiente during the Wicca renewal. In Through the Gates of Death the author describes the process of dying, how the soul severs its connection with the physical body and what awaits the disembodied personality on the other side. Ghosts, earth-bound spirits and traditional customs for helping the dead are all given surprising esoteric explanations and Fortune also offers an intriguing occult perspective on such concepts as Heaven, purgatory and communication with the departed. An insightful, open and informative guide to a subject that remains western culture's last taboo.

The Gates of Death Allen J. Luedtke, 2010-01 In this book The Gates of Death Hidden Dreams are many encouraging past, present and future events to be examined. In addition, it examines all types of events like the Apollo moon landings. I greatly advise anybody to examine the moon landing photos anywhere, but the easiest access is on the Internet under moon landing hoax. After viewing these photos, you will come to the same conclusion that I did: It just did not happen. However, I hope this book did more than just teach people about the moon landings. Best regards to all my current and future readers.
