Through The Wall A Year In Havana:

Through the Wall Margot Pepper, 2005 Margot Pepper's memoir propels us through the blockade to post cold war Cuba. It's a surreal world where high ranking officials are required to pick up hitch hikers, root canals, cosmetic surgery, and graduate school are free, but toilet paper is exorbitant. There's no income tax, nor homelessness, yet no house paint either. As the story unfolds, Margot pursues a passionate love affair with a penniless Mexican poet who shakes up her views about Cuba. With cinematic vividness, Through the Wall reveals the failures and successes of one of the few functioning alternatives to corporate run government and draws out lessons that will be embraced by all who believe another world is possible. Being a great read also helps. From her unique vantage point as a journalist working for a year in Special Period Cuba, Margot Pepper has written a smart and politically sophisticated memoir. Interweaving her past as the Mexico City born daughter of a blacklisted Hollywood producer with the travails of her daily life in Cuba and the larger context of Cuban society in general, her work is imbued with her own political analysis and convictions and captures the feelings as well as the heartbeat of struggling Cuba during such a crucial time. Bravo Margot Pepper for writing such an honest and important work. Punto Piri Thomas author of Down These Mean Streets Cuba Louis A. Pérez, 2015 Spanning the history of the island from pre-Columbian times to the present, this highly acclaimed survey examines Cuba's political and economic development within the context of its international relations and continuing struggle for self-determination. The dualism that emerged in Cuban ideology between liberal constructs of patria and radical formulations of nationality is fully investigated as a source of both national tension and competing notions of liberty, equality, and justice. Author Louis A. Pérez Jr. integrates local and provincial developments with issues of class, race, and gender to give students a full and fascinating account of Cuba's history, focusing on its struggle for nationality. Travels Through the Years James McGee, 2020-04-14 Adventures in 86 countries. Intelligence Officer in Germany during the Cold War, Vietnam era U.S. Army veteran, Diplomat, Corporate President at age 40, Fatherhood, Grief after the death of his wife of 40 years and the death of his son at age 48 when he wrote. Grief is a temporary insanity that the sane can barely imagine, and finding love again later in life. I feel lucky that the magic of love could happen at my age, and I marvel at the capricious nature of life. The 85-year-old author remembers his life of adventure and personal accomplishment with humor and thought-provoking reflections on life and history. His inquisitive mind and descriptive writing provide an interesting reading experience. This is an adventure story, it is a love story, and it is a story of grief and loss. The book ending, Thoughts of An Old Man, may be pondered long after you have finished reading. Jim McGee is a graduate of UCLA, Wayne State University, and Harvard University School of Business. This is his sixth book. Cuba Open from the Inside Chris Messner, 2011-07-21 Cuba occupies a place of undisputed fascination in the American psyche. Despite its proximity to America, this island nation remains a mystery to most Americans. Few Americans have traveled to Havana, and still fewer have traveled deeper into this isolated country. Chris Messner, a photographer, is one of the few Americans who have been able to travel extensively throughout this island In his book Cuba Open from the Inside Messner documents the character of Cuba s people its rich history and the vast culture of the country As Cuba s leaders age and the possibility of travel to Cuba increases this book acts as an exceptional resource for would be travelers Through multiple journeys Messner has covered more than four thousand miles on the back roads of the island nation Through his words and pictures he provides a snapshot of this nation and documents the Cuba of today the 1950 s time capsule country located ninety miles from the US coast United States Tobacco Journal ,1928 If These Walls Could Talk Elaine Greene,2006 Home is where House Beautiful s heart is and this second engaging collection of the magazine s Thoughts of Home column pays tribute to that special place These first person essays capture the nostalgia for Grandmother s farmhouse the giddy pleasures of that first apartment the recovery from the loss of a beloved abode Author Edna O Brien leads us through her adored childhood home in County Clare Christopher Buckley s Foggy Bottom Blues amusingly recounts his mishap ridden relocation to Washington D C From Patrick Dunne s reminiscences of junkyard picking in New Orleans to Sally Ryder Brady s story of watching her family s Vermont house bulldozed to the ground these essays remind us that not only is there no place like home but that no two are alike An Island in the Stream Scott Slovic,David Taylor,Armando Fernandez Soriano,2019-07-15

An Island in the Stream a collaboration between Cuban and American writers and scholars is a diverse collection of ecocritical and literary responses to the natural environment in Cuba and to Cuban environmental culture The chapters explore Cuba s vibrant cultural history with particular attention to literature and the visual and performing arts which are viewed through such lenses as ecofeminism postcolonial ecocriticism multiculturalism and the nuclear imaginary among others American environmentalists have long viewed modern Cuba as a model of progressive environmental thinking In the 1990s the Cuban government made sustainability a centerpiece of national policy initiatives This book explores some of the historical foundations of contemporary sustainability efforts in Cuba while also describing the current environmental situation in that part of the world From Jos Mart to Excilia Salda a from Antonio Nu ez Jim nez to Lydia Cabrera the chapters here aim to provide a starting point for others who wish to learn about Cuban environmental thought The conjunction of scholarly and creative work is a gesture toward the interdependence of humanities research and artistic expression both of which seek to encourage environmental and cultural mindfulness and sensitivity The Pan-American Magazine ,1919
