Times Of The Technoculture Times Of The Technoculture:

Times of the Technoculture Kevin Robins, Frank Webster, 2003-09-02 Times of the Technoculture explores the social and cultural impact of new technologies tracing the origins of the information society from the coming of the machine with the industrial revolution to the development of mass production techniques in the early twentieth century The authors look at how the military has controlled the development of the information society and consider the centrality of education in government attempts to create a knowledge society Engaging in contemporary debates surrounding the internet Robins and Webster question whether it can really offer us a new world of virtual communities and suggest more radical alternatives to the corporate agenda of contemporary technologies Times of the Technoculture Kevin Robins, Frank Webster, 1999 In a riveting look at today's computer technology Robins and Webster ask the disturbing question Is it cyber revolution or information capitalism They trace the information age from the Industrial Revolution to the silicon chip and the Internet Examining the politics of cyberspace they show how the military has controlled the development of new technologies and why education plays a central role in government attempts to create a knowledge society With broad coverage of current issues including information policy technological innovation education the military surveillance and propaganda Times of the Technoculture is a thought provoking revisionist account of Luddite resistance to new technologies http://www.loc.gov/catdir/enhancements/fy0649/99020329_d.html Technoculture Debra Benita Shaw, 2008-07-01 We live in a world where science and technology shape the global economy and everyday culture where new biotechnologies are changing what we eat and how we can reproduce and where email mobiles and the internet have revolutionised the ways we communicate with each other and engage with the world outside us Technoculture The Key Concepts explores the power of scientific ideas their impact on how we understand the natural world and how successive technological developments have influenced our attitudes to work art space language and the human body Throughout the lively discussion of ideas is illustrated with provocative case studies from biotech foods to life support systems from the Walkman and iPod to sex and cloning from video games to military hardware Designed to be both provocative and instructive Technoculture The Key Concepts outlines the place of science and technology in today's culture When Technocultures Collide Gary Genosko, 2013-11-23 When Technocultures Collide provides rich and diverse studies of collision courses between technologically inspired subcultures and the corporate and governmental entities they seek to undermine The adventures and exploits of computer hackers phone phreaks urban explorers calculator and computer collectors CrackBerry users whistle blowers Yuppies zesters roulette cheats chess geeks and a range of losers and tinkerers feature prominently in this volume Gary Genosko analyzes these practices for their remarkable diversity and their innovation and leaps of imagination He assesses the results of a number of operations including the Canadian stories of Mafiaboy Jeff Chapman of Infiltration and BlackBerry users The author provides critical accounts of highly specialized attributes such as the prospects of deterritorialized computer mice and big toe

computing the role of electrical grid hacks in urban technopolitics and whether info addiction and depression contribute to tactical resistance Beyond resistance however the goal of this work is to find examples of technocultural autonomy in the minor and marginal cultural productions of small cultures ethico poetic diversions and sustainable withdrawals with genuine therapeutic potential to surpass accumulation debt and competition The dangers and joys of these struggles for autonomy are underlined in studies of RIM s BlackBerry and Julian Assange s WikiLeaks website Psychoanalysis in the Technoculture Era Alessandra Lemma, Luigi Caparrotta, 2013-07-18 Alessandra Lemma Winner of the Levy Goldfarb Award for Child Psychoanalysis By now the internet and other forms of virtual communication have been in place for at least twenty years However surprisingly little has been written about the use of new technologies in the psychoanalytical literature As such Psychoanalysis in the Technoculture Era is a timely exposition on the subject of both virtual and analytic space Bringing together the work of several psychoanalysts the Editors Alessandra Lemma and Luigi Caparrotta illustrate how new technologies have become an integral part of our everyday lives and how they have silently and subtly permeated the psychoanalytic setting The contributors explore how new technologies have affected psychoanalytic practice and discuss the advantages and disadvantages of its use Psychoanalysis in the Technoculture Era unravels some of the meanings of virtual world terms and opens this field to greater scrutiny stimulating and promoting discussion about new technologies in psychoanalytic practice This book will be of interest to the psychoanalytic community including psychotherapy professionals psychoanalysts post graduate graduate and undergraduate students Sex, Breath, and Force Ellen

Mortensen, 2006-01-01 Living in the post modern age there is a growing sentiment of disenchantment in relation to the most facile aspects of dogmatic feminism Nevertheless the question of sexual difference still remains Sex Breath and Force asks how we should approach such a questioning today given the fall of the great narratives and the plethora of theoretical discourses in circulation What are the conditions of possibility for thinking of sexual difference as a foundational problem in the age of technology And how do the disciplines of social science literary studies philosophy and film studies answer this challenge This collection of essays provides a reassessment of the question of sexual difference taking into account important shifts in feminist thought post humanist theories and queer studies The contributors offer new and refreshing insights into the complex question of sexual difference from a post feminist perspective and how it is reformulated in various related areas of study such as ontology epistemology metaphysics biology technology and mass media New Technologies,

Development and Application IV Isak Karabegović, 2021-05-11 This book features papers focusing on the implementation of new and future technologies which were presented at the International Conference on New Technologies Development and Application held at the Academy of Science and Arts of Bosnia and Herzegovina in Sarajevo on June 24 26 2021 It covers a wide range of future technologies and technical disciplines including complex systems such as Industry 4 0 patents in industry 4 0 robotics mechatronics systems automation manufacturing cyber physical and autonomous systems sensors
