Times Alone Selected Poems Of Antonio Machado Wesleyan Poetry In Translation:

Times Alone Antonio Machado, 2012-01-01 Antonio Machado a school teacher and philosopher and one of Spain's foremost poets of the twentieth century writes of the mountains the skies the farms and the sentiments of his homeland clearly and without narcissism Just as before I'm interested in water held in but now water in the living rock of my chest Machado has vowed not to soar too much he wants to go down to the hells or stick to the ordinary Robert Bly writes in his introduction He brings to the ordinary to time to landscape and stony earth to bean fields and cities to events and dreams magical sound that conveys order penetrating sight and attention The poems written while we are awake are more original and more beautiful and sometimes more wild than those made from dreams Machado said In the newspapers before and during the Spanish Civil War he wrote of political and moral issues and in 1939 fled from Franco's army into the Pyrenees dying in exile a month later When in 1966 a bronze bust of Machado was to be unveiled in a town here he had taught school thousands of people came in pilgrimage only to find the Civil Guard with clubs and submachine guns blocking their way This selection of Machado's poetry beautifully translated by Bly begins with the Spanish master's first book Times Alone Passageways in the House and Other Poems 1903 and follows his work to the poems published after his death Poems from the Civil War written during 1936-1939

The Soul of Place Michael Jones, 2014-07-08 In The Soul of Place Michael Jones explores how our relationship with place aligns us with the underlying patterns of life He does so through stories that ask what is our experience of homecoming and how do we find our way there What is our pattern of belonging including our relationship with people and places that we hold sacred What are the conditions of regenerativity and craft that enable us to give birth to something new How can our stewardship of what is alive within and around us awaken the mythic imagination And how does this open a path for gathering together in a spirit of transformative celebration

Poetry for the Earth Sara Dunn, Alan Scholefield, 1992 While the state of the environment is a very current issue passion and concern for the world around us is nearly as old as the world itself Poetry for the Earth brings together a cross section of some of the most beautiful and haunting poetry ever written in tribute to or in mourning for our magnificent landscapes

Poems That Make Grown Men Cry Anthony Holden, Ben Holden, 2014-04-10 The best leave you with a renewed sense of how extraordinary it is that poetry can over the course of one sentence flood your circuit board with loss or anger or love Independent From J J Abrams to John le Carr Salman Rushdie to Jonathan Franzen Daniel Radcliffe to Nick Cave Ian McEwan to Stephen Fry Stanley Tucci to Colin Firth and Seamus Heaney to Christopher Hitchens 100 men confess to being moved to tears by poems that haunt them This remarkable collection of poems from the sixteenth century to the present day delivers private insight into the souls of men whose writing acting and thinking are admired around the world

The Impossible Will Take a Little While Paul Loeb, 2007-03-21 In a difficult time our most eloquent writers offer words of inspiration and hope

Contemporary Translation Theories Edwin Gentzler, 2001-09-13 During the last thirty years the field of translation has exploded with multiple new theories Contemporary Translation Theories examines five of new approaches the translation workshop the science of translation translation studies polysystem theory and deconstruction all of which began in the mid 1960s and continue to be influential today

My Shouting, Shattered, Whispering Voice Patrice Vecchione, 2020-05-05 The ultimate writing guide that is a helping hand to anyone who dreams of telling their truth through words on a page Ellen Bass author of Indigo This book gives us endless ways to access our creative selves and shows us how to shape our experiences into poetry This book reassured me that we all have the capacity to create something beautiful Marcelo Hernandez Castillo author of Children of the Land Ever had an emotion or experience you wanted to express but didn't know how This guide by Patrice Vecchione encourages new writers of all ages to find their voices step up and speak their truths and articulate what matters to them most both personally and politically whether it be boldly to an outside audience or just privately for themselves Young adults are reading and writing and performing poetry more than ever before Written in short easy to digest chapters by the editor of Ink Knows No Borders My Shouting Shattered Whispering Voice includes prompts and inspiration writing suggestions and instruction brief interviews with some current popular poets such as Kim Addonizio Safia Elhillo and others and poem excerpts scattered throughout the book My Shouting Shattered Whispering Voice offers ways to express rage frustration joy and sorrow and to substitute apathy with creativity usurp fear with daring counteract anxiety with the joy of writing one word down and then another to express vital but previously unarticulated thoughts Most importantly here you can discover the value of your own voice and come to believe that what you have to say matters

The Gospels in Our Image David Curzon, 1995 This unique anthology brings together over 160 poems directly inspired by the Gospels of Matthew Mark Luke and John Readers will be surprised that such world renowned authors as Yeats Rilke Borges Eliot Plath Milosz Lawrence Pasternak Celan Akhmatova Auden and Wilbur are incisive biblical commentators as well The poems which range in tone from playful to confrontational and from ironic to sublime are set alongside the biblical passages that inspired them The Annunciation the Nativity the Temptations in the Wilderness the Sermon on the Mount the Parables the Last Supper the Crucifixion and Resurrection are just a few of the narratives that have captured these writers' imaginations In revisiting 2000 year old texts with a twentieth century sensibility the poets here bring meaning to them and offer us a renewed appreciation of their importance

Journal of Reading, 1985 Garisch: Eloquent Body, 2023-01-10 Eloquent Body explores the juxtaposition of healing and creativity both from a personal as well as medical point of view Dawn Garisch works as a medical doctor and a writer in equal measure and advocates dialogue between our bodies and our creative selves Her novel Trespass was nominated for the Commonwealth Prize in Africa
